One Hundred and Sixty Bridge Tables Already Engaged at Party for Italian Committee This Afternoon

this afternoon at the Manheim Cricket Cub has grown. It seems that all Germanown and Chestnut Hill has responded to the needs of Mrs. Benjamin Miller's milan War Relief Committee of the Emergency Aid (for that's what it's for you know). The number of tables reserved has been steadily increasing until now 160 have been sold, and not only the ballroom and porch will be used, but the dining room and ladies' wing of the clab will be thrown open as well, in order to accommodate the hundreds of persons who will take part in the entertainment. Mrs. Walter Banes, who has charge of the whole affair, has an active and able semistant in Miss Margaret Law, who is chairman of the Junior Committee, Besides the auction bridge, which will start at 2 o'clock sharp, several other attractive features will be in order. First and foremost, Mrs. Miller will give a short address on the "Italian Battle Front," and will also tell something of the work of her relief committee. The ballnorm will be decorated with flags of the Allies, and Miss Margaret Tattersfield will take charge of a booth, which will display all the different kinds of knitted articles and surgical dressings sent to Italy by the Several tonations have already been received; ene of $100, another of $25 and numerous smaller ones.

THE members of the committee include 1 Mrs. Frank McGrath, Mrs. Foster Reeder, Mrs. Nicholas Petry, Mrs. Percital Tattersfield, Mrs. James A. Campbell, Mrs. E. R. Carter, Mrs. C. B. Grace and Mrs. Harold Roberts. Miss Margaret Law's Junior Auxiliary has in it Hazel Comp. Margaret Roberts, Christine Rehn and Elizabeth Van Dusen.

Then here are just a few of those who will occupy tables; Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Samuel Clements, Mrs. Joseph Huston, Mrs. Joshua Ash Pearson, Mrs. Cornellus Bodine, Mrs. George Bodine, Mrs. Herbert Tilden, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. William Price Newhall, Mrs. Herbert Fisher, Mrs. Maurice Burton, Mrs. Stanley Ketcham, Miss Isabel Miles, Miss Eisine English and Miss Martha Shoemaker.

CHILDREN certainly are dears, aren't Uthey? But just the same, some of us do not always appreciate them when they speak out their small minds. Two small daters had an aunt of whom they were the ancient Romans held a feast of dedicavery fond and Auntie was at that time muchly admired by quite a "Heavy Lover." Well, the tale runs thusly: Kind parents of the two small sisters thought it would be nice to have Auntie come out to their country home one evening with sister and then to the club, nearby, where there would be dancing, for said parents knew that Auntie liked to trip the light fantastic. All very well; why, certainly; yes, rae: why not? Well, "Heavy Lover"
