

LIBERTY LOAN DAY FINDS PHILADELPHIA UNITED FOR THE FINAL DRIVE OF THE CAMPAIGN

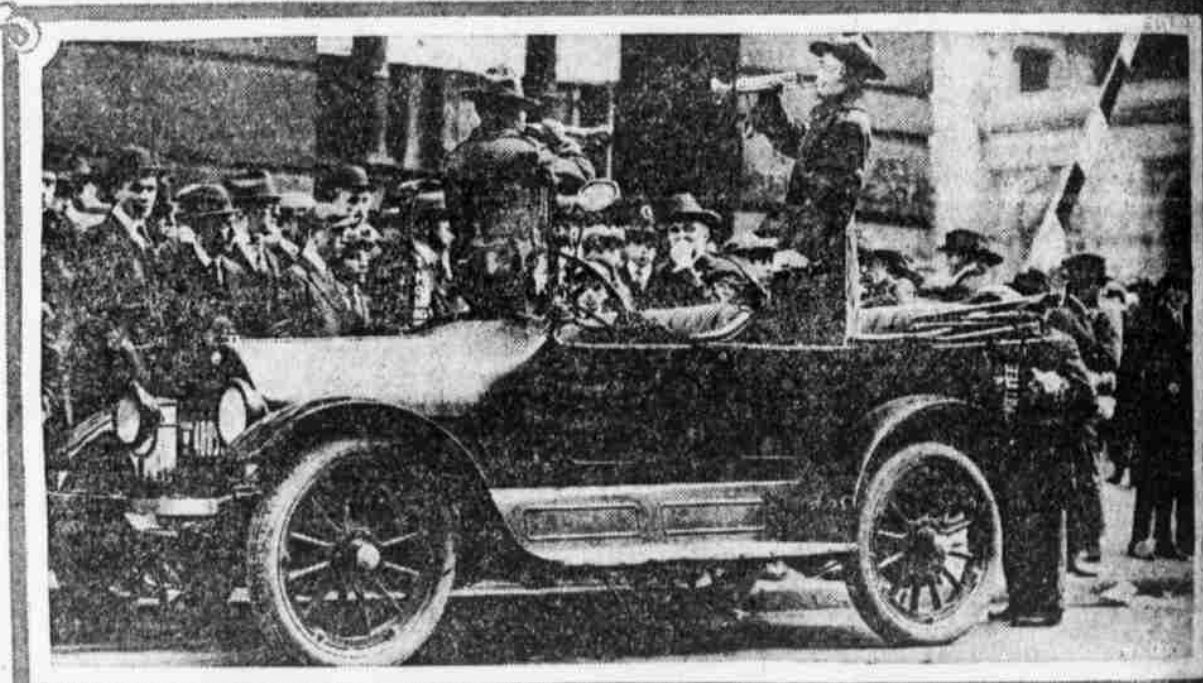

HERE'S A DAY'S LIBERTY LOAN MAIL AT THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT IN WASHINGTON
Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
Tens of thousands of letters received daily contain everything from subscriptions and inquiries about the loan to expressions of regret from persons unable to subscribe.

GENERAL L. T. W. WALLER, OF THE MARINE CORPS, WHO MADE THE PLANS FOR PHILADELPHIA'S CELEBRATION TODAY

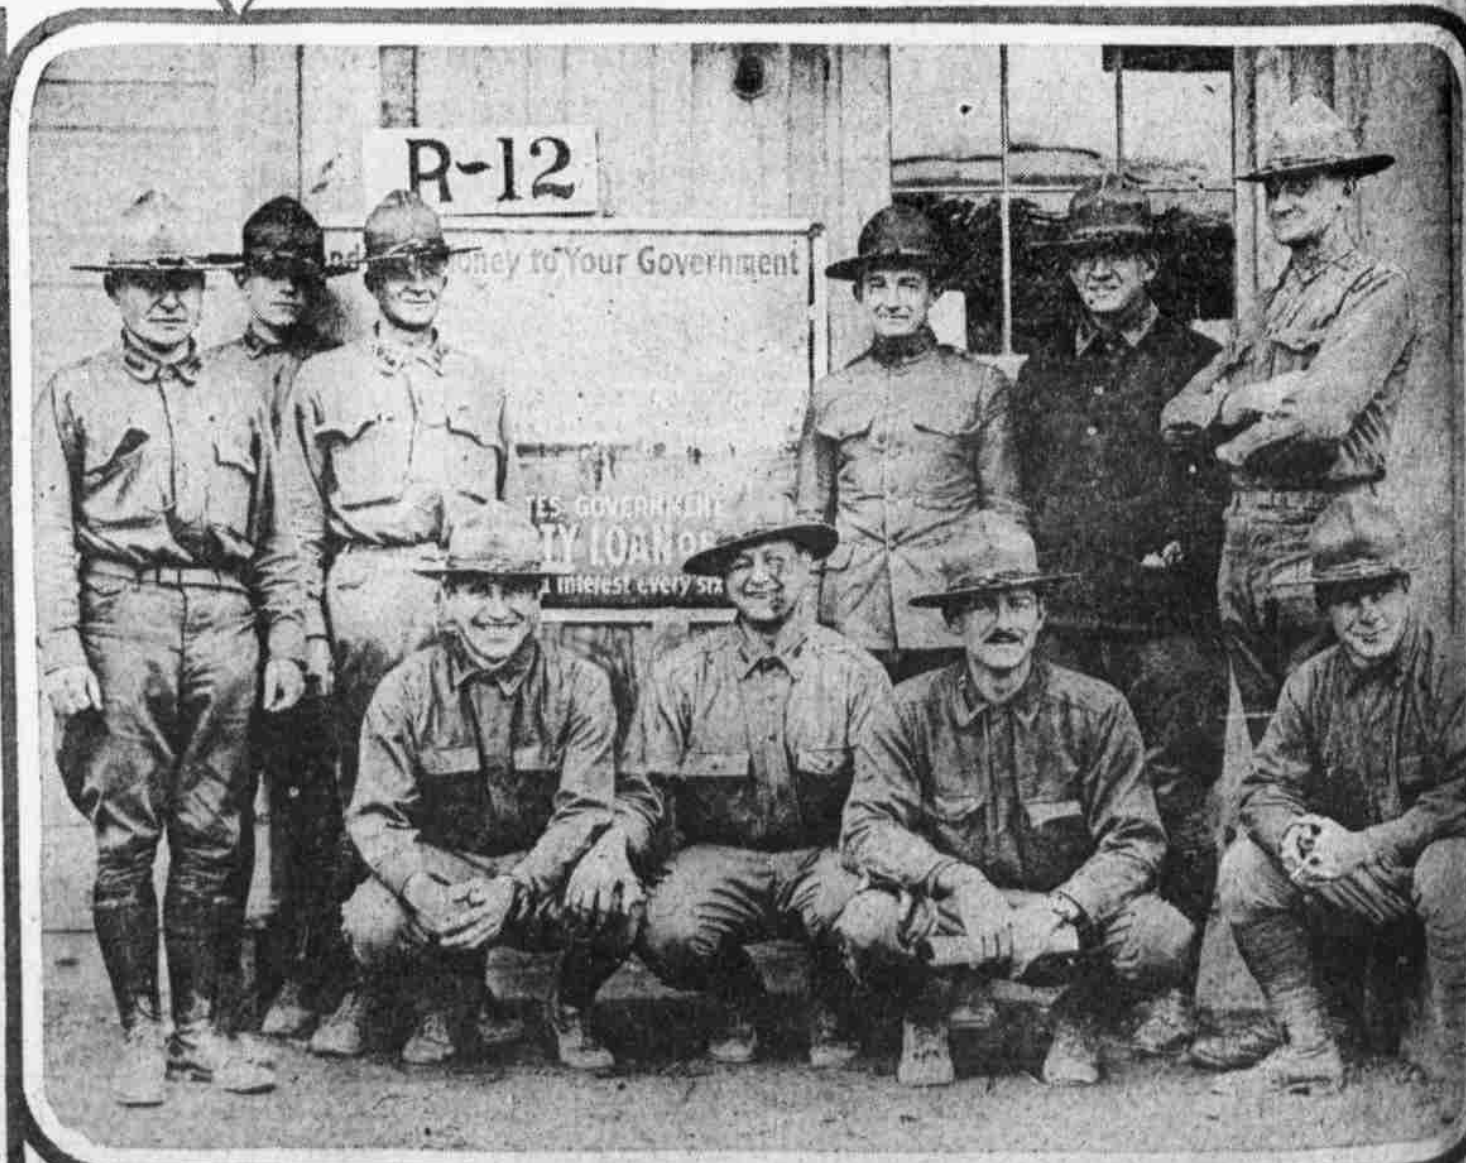

FORMER CONGRESSMAN J. WASHINGTON LOGUE ADDRESSING THE BUSY THROG AT BROAD AND CHESTNUT STREETS IN BEHALF OF THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN

BUGLERS FROM THE PHILADELPHIA NAVY YARD PRECEDE VERBAL APPEALS FOR LIBERTY LOAN BY CLARION CALLS TO BASSERS-BY

"SAFETY" GATES IN THE HEART OF PHILADELPHIA WARN LIBERTY LOAN SLACKERS
The device erected yesterday and guarded by a corps of young society women is shown at the extreme left of the photograph. The gates, constructed and painted in imitation of the gates at railroad crossings, indicate to pedestrians that it is dangerous to pass without subscribing to the loan.

OFFICERS PUSH SALE OF BONDS AT CAMP MEADE
If their wishes are fulfilled, the 315th Regiment of Infantry will present the highest number of subscriptions obtained by the various regiments. Standing, left to right—Captain S. W. Fleming, Jr., Lieutenant N. S. Barratt, Jr., Captain D. E. Williams, Lieutenant E. Prostedink, Lieutenant B. Bullock and Captain W. W. Pierson. Sitting—Lieutenant C. A. Graham, Lieutenant C. P. Brown, Captain Charles H. Tilgham and Lieutenant E. V. Becker.