TOWN MEETING PARTY SUESCITY

Asks Court to Compel Printing of Candidates' Names in Three Wards

"IMPUDENT VARE TRICK"

The Town Meeting party late this afternoon brought mandamus proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas No. 3 before Judge Davis to compel the County Comissioners to print the names of its candidates in the Seventeenth, Twenty-sixth and Thirtieth Wards on the ballot for the official election. The writ will be argued next Monday morning.

The action followed the announcement of the County Commissioners this mern-ing that when double sets of nomination prive the citizens of these wards of an opportunity of voting an honest and independent ticket.

"It is a clear effort to elect the gang ticket in these wards by removing all opposition to it, and it will be fought to the full extent of the legal recourse open to the Town Meeting party."
RULING DENTS VARE ATTACK

Judge Davis made a big dent in the Vare-Smith' case against the Town Meeting party's nomination papers today when he ruled that an affiant vouching for the signers of a nomination petition need not know all of the signers, provided that the five affiants collectively know all of the signers to be qualified electors.
