Two Debutantes Who Would Have Been Give Time to Red Cross and Other Good Causes. Liberty Bonds Sold on Main Line

Among the girls who were to have made their debut this fall, but who, ewing to the war, have changed their plans, are Margaretta Dixon and Jane Maule. Margaretta is the youngest daughter of the Tom Dixons, of Chestnut Hill and a first crusin of Molly Thayer. Dorothy Newbold, Frances Allison and gumerous other children of the numerous Dixon brothers and sisters. Jane Maries the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles price Maule, of Rittenhouse street in test here. town here.

Instead of dancing into the wee sma" bours, after the custom of former dahuantes, they have decided to take an active part in the ever-necessary Red Cross Main Line Girl Will Not Make work and have already been seen as nides at many of the fetes which have taken place this fall. One day you gee them and their fellow would-be debbies as fair theco venders, begging you to conribute to the "smokes for our boys over here," and the next they are appealing you to "buy a Liberty Bond."

It's no wonder, a it, with the help. such able and patriotic assistants, that large sums of money have been and are being raised on all sides?

MALKING of the bonds, it's really remarkable how every one is buying them, isn't it? Out on the Main Line. they tell me, they are working like beavers. You know they have a Main Line committee for this series. The Boy and Girl Scouts are doing their bit becanvassing from house to house and meeting all trains at the stations.

one of the early morning trains was stalled at Fifty-second street on Liberty hay for some time. After a while Herbert Lloyd stood up suddenly and said, Come on, fellows, let's sell Liberty Bonds!" And, would you believe me, right then and there they sold $5000 worth in the smoking car.

The committee of women under Mrs. Charles O'Donnell Lee, at St. Katherine's HALLOWEEN PARTY Church in Wayne, has been working very hard on the loan and has already mid $27,650 worth of bonds. NATALIE WALTON, that indefatigable little worker, is again about to do something for her countrymen. It's another dance at the Torresdale Golf Club, and it's goling to be given on November 1 instead of Halloween, for goodness knows.

Instead of Halloween, for goodness knows. nstead of Halloween, for goodness knows Bryan Whitehead.

The dance to be given will be the first of a series of subscription ones which will be given to provide Christmas presents for the boys in camp in America. You know Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter and Joe Jennings are giving one in Chestnut Hill at the Philadelphia Cricket Club on October 31 for the Chestnut Hill boys of Camp Meade. Well, Torresdale's party will be for Camp Dix. Next one will probably be for Meade, and I'm sure with Camp Hancock and the troops from Philidelphia there, there'll be a party for them later. You know two of the Walton boys are in the Troop, and Dick Bullitt, too, from that part of the country. Naturally their families will see to their Christwhenever possible, and that is Miss Walton's idea. She is chairman of the club's entertainment committee out there and quite fills the bill, I should say.

It has become such a usual thing to speak of our men as individuals, and to discuss the one particular family or girl that has been left behind, that we are apt ose sight of the great voids that have seen made in the heretofore very active clob life of the city. Scarcely an organizacial or otherwise, has escaped the le'i of the draft, and among the younger tubs it seems those who have gone have been is many cases the most active members. Imagine losing 107 men out of a hembership of fewer than 300! Yet this is what happened to the Victrix Club, of West Philadelphia. Sr. Bite's Club, or South Philadelphia. St. Rita's Club, on South Broad street, has also suffered in like man-ner, and now we learn that the Coriey Cob, at Fleventh and Wolf streets, has missed its enlisted members so much that it has started a Christmas fund to try make the soldiers believe they can spend Christmas in spirit, at least, in the clubrooms, with their old companions. Smokes and tank will constitute the big part of each box which is to go to every member of andy will constitute the big part of each box which is to go to every member of the club enlisted, and it will also have tucked away at the bottom a warm sweater wristlets, socks, etc. Most of the Corley members, socks, etc. mbers have been assigned to Camp Gor-in Georgia, and Mr. Jam's Fryer, whose station in amateur boxing circles is an one, is turning his talents to good Pint for Uncle Sam by giving demon-dions and exhibitions to the men in ning. A sudden call to the colors by the Presbytery was answered this week when the Rev. W. While the Reverend Jordan voluntees were appropriate to the country some unteered his services to the country some mases, however, but it's well for us all to time ago, the summons came so quickly remember there are others besides our own and to provide pleasure for them whenever together and that it was all to time ago, the summons came so quickly that the people of the church scarcely had time to bid him good-by. The Boys' Club of the church presented him with a black seal traveling bag fitted out in ebon but the time was so short it was impossit to hold the reception planned by the church in his honor. Doctor Jordan has been con-nected with Bethany Church since last Feb-ruary and has many freinds among the parishioners.

HE WAS just a kid with curly locks who had blackened his face from a stove-Down at the corner notion store they're selling funny masks galore, of ghouts and goblins, witches, spooks, bankers, greers, cops and crooks. What can all this business mean? The kids are planning for Hal-longer now their duties shirk; they've bought cornstalks and autumn leaves and trimmed the eld home to the caves; plainly the reason may be seen, a party's on for

Halloween. Stored in a box on the garret stairs are
