

Town Meeting Ticket Wins in Courts : Seeks City's Coal Needs : Tax Talk Barred Until After Election : Other News of the City

THIRTY-THREE HOUR DASH ON REFORMERS MADE BY FOES

Vare-Smith Attorneys Re-argue Town Meeting Case Before Commissioners

FOLLOW DAVIS'S RULING

Decision is Made After Conference Between Jurists—New Vare Attack Fails

Using every conceivable "event-hour" device to prevent the Town Meeting ticket from going on the general ballot, attorneys of the Vare-Smith machine this afternoon...

FORMER FIFTH WARD COP ACCUSED OF HOLD-UP

Bankbook, Two $100 Liberty Bonds and $19.50 Stolen From Man Who Makes Charge

A dismissed policeman of the Third police district, in the "Bloody Fifth" Ward, was held in $1000 bail for court on an indictment...

FARMER IS CHARGED WITH KILLING HIS NEIGHBOR

Police Say Quarrel Between Two Men Resulted in Fatal Shooting

Luke De France, farmer, Warrington, Bucks County, was charged with the murder of his neighbor...

AMERICANISM UPPERMOST IN NEW YORK CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Americanism league today held a meeting in the hotel...

W. H. ODENATT DEAD

Mechanical Engineer Was Pioneer in Manual Training in Schools

William Henry Odenatt, a widely known mechanical engineer and instructor of engineering at the Southern High School...

AVIATION FIELD AT LANCASTER

U. S. to Take Over Fair Grounds and Adjoining Farm

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 30.—In financial circles it was learned this afternoon that plans are almost completed by the Lancaster County fair grounds...

For City Treasurer WILLIAM R. NICHOLSON

For Receiver of Taxes THOMAS F. ARMSTRONG

For Register of Wills WALTER GEORGE SMITH

Judge Davis's lengthy decision sustaining the Town Meeting party declared that "the honesty and sincerity of these citizens desiring to form a party and nominate candidates of their own choice should not be defeated by the unscrupulous or reckless acts of those who, from motives of revenge...

FINANCE IS TABOO IN COUNCILS NOW

Administration Fears Discussion of Tax Rate for 1918 Before Election

LOAN TALK IS BARRED, TOO Open Discussion Would Prove Valuable Campaign Matter for Town Meeting Party

Every effort is being made by Mayor Smith's Administration to stave off a seemingly inevitable second increase in the tax rate and to prevent this week at least...

FRANKFORD 'L' STATION BIDS AGAIN TOO COSTLY

Re-advertising Brings Estimates Higher Than City's Engineers' Calculation

For the second time Transit Director Twining was forced to reject bids for the construction of the station platforms and the steel superstructure work on the Frankford 'L' at Orthodox, Margaret, Church and Ritten streets...

Service for H. H. Cummings

Memorial Meeting Pays Tribute to Temple Student Lost on Antilles

Memorial services of an impressive nature were held yesterday afternoon at Temple University in honor of Henry H. Cummings, a member of the freshman class of that institution...

LAUDER LUNCHEON SPEAKER

An alliance between all the English-speaking peoples is the only hope for civilization, according to Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian...

Canton Company's Business Grows

TOWANDA, Oct. 30.—The Canton Mercantile Company held its annual meeting and elected the following officers: President R. G. Landen; secretary and manager J. W. Herritt; treasurer H. C. Gates...

ENGINE KILLS BRIDGE OFFICIAL

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30.—E. J. Gordon, superintendent of construction for the Lackawanna Bridge Company, was killed here when the ambulance in which he was riding was demolished by a Lehigh Valley locomotive...

D. I. WARD COMPANY

28 South 6th St. Philadelphia

MUST ACT QUICKLY TO GET COAL HERE

Trigg Warns That Other Places May Profit at City's Expense

IN QUEST OF DATA Letter and Questionnaire Sent Out to All Big Consumers, Asking Facts

To obtain information as to the coal shortage in the Philadelphia district, so that concerted action may be taken immediately to relieve this situation, the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, through its president, Ernest T. Trigg, has sent out a circular letter with an attached questionnaire to consumers of coal in quantities in Philadelphia...

LOOK TO FUEL COMMITTEE

The letter states that the fuel administration committee is the only source to which "we can look for relief and co-operation in this crisis of our industrial situation."

RESERVE 56TH ST. LINE RULING

Superior Court Withholds Decision in Crosstown Transit

Decision was reserved today by the Superior Court in the matter of the appeal of the Allied Associations of West Philadelphia from the decision of the Public Service Commission in refusing to order the building of a new trolley line by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company on Fifty-sixth street, West Philadelphia...

FRANCIS A. LEWIS

Chairman Federal Fuel Committee of Philadelphia

There will be no fuel wasted in bonfire on election night if the Federal fuel board for the city can prevent it. All very well ordinary years for the youth of the city to set free its surplus of vitality in this rather extravagant manner, but to waste even a spark of precious fuel at this national crisis would be a reproach to the city...

Carlton E. Steelman's Will Probated

The will of Carlton E. Steelman, 5823 Chestnut street, admitted to probate today, disposes of property valued at $13,500 in private bequests.

EXPORTERS ASK PROBE TO CLEAR SUSPICIONS

Government Saves Losses by Giving Clean Bill to Firms, Including Germans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—It became known today that many large exporting concerns in the United States, among which there were a few scattered German stockholders, had, at their own instigation, been subjected to a rigid investigation by agents of the State Department in order that all suspicion could be removed and their exportations be expedited...

B. AND O.—BRAKEMAN KILLED

Found Crushed and Unconscious on Track When Train Stops

Shortly after a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio stopped at Twenty-eighth and Jackson streets early today Robert Bachelor, 711 Ford street, Baltimore, Md., a brakeman on the train, was found lying unconscious and badly crushed on the tracks...

NEARLY STRIPPED OF CLOTHES

Thieves Beset Man at 23d and Chestnut Streets and Partly Disrobe Him

Charles Brien, of 3610 Sansom street, was nearly stripped of his clothing by three highwaymen at Twenty-third and Chestnut streets early today. The men held him upon him tore off his coat and shirt and were pulling at his trousers when his cries attracted Police Officer...

Boards Certify 74 Army Men

District Appeal Board No. 1 today certified fifty-five men for military service. The following boards, with the numbers certified, were announced: No. 3—15; No. 11—3; No. 17—2; No. 22—1; No. 23—1; No. 41—3; and No. 42—7.

EILBER WINS SHOOT

Local Gunner Grasses 20 Straight in Port Side Event

George Eilber, of this city, won the weekly white flyer shoot of the Port Side Inn Gun Club at St. Thomas, Pa., today with a straight score in the twenty-eight shot event. Eilber's marksmanship was remarkable for he faced a storm of rain, sleet and snow in making a perfect card.

Cape

Gloves are more than smart—they're durable.

Unlike Suedes, they are dressed right-side-out and retain the vigor of the original skin. Fownes Capes are also washable,—kept fresh and sanitary with ordinary soap and water.

FOWNES

that's all you need to know about a GLOVE

THREE AUTOISTS EXONERATED

Coroner's Juries Free Drivers Whose Machines Killed Two Boys and a Man

Three men whose automobiles ran down and killed three persons were exonerated today by a coroner's jury. The three inquests were held before Coroner Knight, John Lynch, 3327 South Boswell street, who on October 26 ran down and killed Albert Wynne, ten years old, and killed three streets, was the first to be discharged. James McQuade, 2337 North Grays Charles Warman, ten years old, 202 North Fifty-seventh street, at Germantown avenue and Venango street, October 26, was also acquitted.

ELMER L. SCHAFER

He is chief pharmacist's mate in the Naval Base Hospital, No. 5, stationed "somewhere in France." In his last letter to his home at 2137 North Sixth street, he writes: "Safe, happy and well. Don't worry about me—am having a good time and plenty of interesting experiences."

FRANKFORD 'L' STATION BIDS AGAIN TOO COSTLY

Re-advertising Brings Estimates Higher Than City's Engineers' Calculation

For the second time Transit Director Twining was forced to reject bids for the construction of the station platforms and the steel superstructure work on the Frankford 'L' at Orthodox, Margaret, Church and Ritten streets in the near future.

SERVICE FOR H. H. CUMMINGS

Memorial Meeting Pays Tribute to Temple Student Lost on Antilles

Memorial services of an impressive nature were held yesterday afternoon at Temple University in honor of Henry H. Cummings, a member of the freshman class of that institution, who lost his life when the United States transport Antilles was sent to the bottom by a German submarine.

LAUDER LUNCHEON SPEAKER

An alliance between all the English-speaking peoples is the only hope for civilization, according to Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian who spoke at a luncheon of the Poor Richard Club.

Canton Company's Business Grows

TOWANDA, Oct. 30.—The Canton Mercantile Company held its annual meeting and elected the following officers: President R. G. Landen; secretary and manager J. W. Herritt; treasurer H. C. Gates.

ENGINE KILLS BRIDGE OFFICIAL

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 30.—E. J. Gordon, superintendent of construction for the Lackawanna Bridge Company, was killed here when the ambulance in which he was riding was demolished by a Lehigh Valley locomotive.

D. I. WARD COMPANY

28 South 6th St. Philadelphia

EXPORTERS ASK PROBE TO CLEAR SUSPICIONS

Government Saves Losses by Giving Clean Bill to Firms, Including Germans

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—It became known today that many large exporting concerns in the United States, among which there were a few scattered German stockholders, had, at their own instigation, been subjected to a rigid investigation by agents of the State Department in order that all suspicion could be removed and their exportations be expedited...

B. AND O.—BRAKEMAN KILLED

Found Crushed and Unconscious on Track When Train Stops

Shortly after a freight train on the Baltimore and Ohio stopped at Twenty-eighth and Jackson streets early today Robert Bachelor, 711 Ford street, Baltimore, Md., a brakeman on the train, was found lying unconscious and badly crushed on the tracks...

NEARLY STRIPPED OF CLOTHES

Thieves Beset Man at 23d and Chestnut Streets and Partly Disrobe Him

Charles Brien, of 3610 Sansom street, was nearly stripped of his clothing by three highwaymen at Twenty-third and Chestnut streets early today. The men held him upon him tore off his coat and shirt and were pulling at his trousers when his cries attracted Police Officer...

Boards Certify 74 Army Men

District Appeal Board No. 1 today certified fifty-five men for military service. The following boards, with the numbers certified, were announced: No. 3—15; No. 11—3; No. 17—2; No. 22—1; No. 23—1; No. 41—3; and No. 42—7.

EILBER WINS SHOOT

Local Gunner Grasses 20 Straight in Port Side Event

George Eilber, of this city, won the weekly white flyer shoot of the Port Side Inn Gun Club at St. Thomas, Pa., today with a straight score in the twenty-eight shot event. Eilber's marksmanship was remarkable for he faced a storm of rain, sleet and snow in making a perfect card.

Cape

Gloves are more than smart—they're durable.

Unlike Suedes, they are dressed right-side-out and retain the vigor of the original skin. Fownes Capes are also washable,—kept fresh and sanitary with ordinary soap and water.

FOWNES

that's all you need to know about a GLOVE

PHONE RESERVATION CLERK, SPRUCE 5800

The "Five Minutes From Anywhere"

The HOTEL COLONNADE

CHESTNUT AT 15TH STREET

The Colonnade Hostess

MOST cordially and heartily

thanks Philadelphia for its wonderful response to the opening dinner-dance given at the Colonnade Hotel on Monday evening.

SHE NOW RENEWS HER BROAD INVITATION TO EXCLUSIVE PHILADELPHIA TO BE PRESENT

This Evening

and on Hallowe'en

Dinner-Dance begins promptly at 6.30

You may telephone your table reservations to 5800 Spruce in the certain knowledge that tonight, as well as Hallowe'en, at the Colonnade will linger in your memory as a most happy occasion.

I hope you will come, if only to hear Coleman's famous organization "jazz the fox trot," or Brown's splendid orchestra "rag the one-step."

Cordially,

The Colonnade Hostess

P. S.—Scores of delighted "After-the-Theater" Parties were present last evening, and special preparations have been made to welcome them again tonight.

Hirsch's advertisement for fur coats and suits, featuring 'New Fine Fur-Trimmed COATS & SUITS' and 'SILK & DRESSES' with prices ranging from $15 to $25. Includes 'BARCAIN BASEMENT' and 'WOMEN'S & MISSES' SUITS.