

SCRAPPLE

Wit and Wisdom of a Busy World

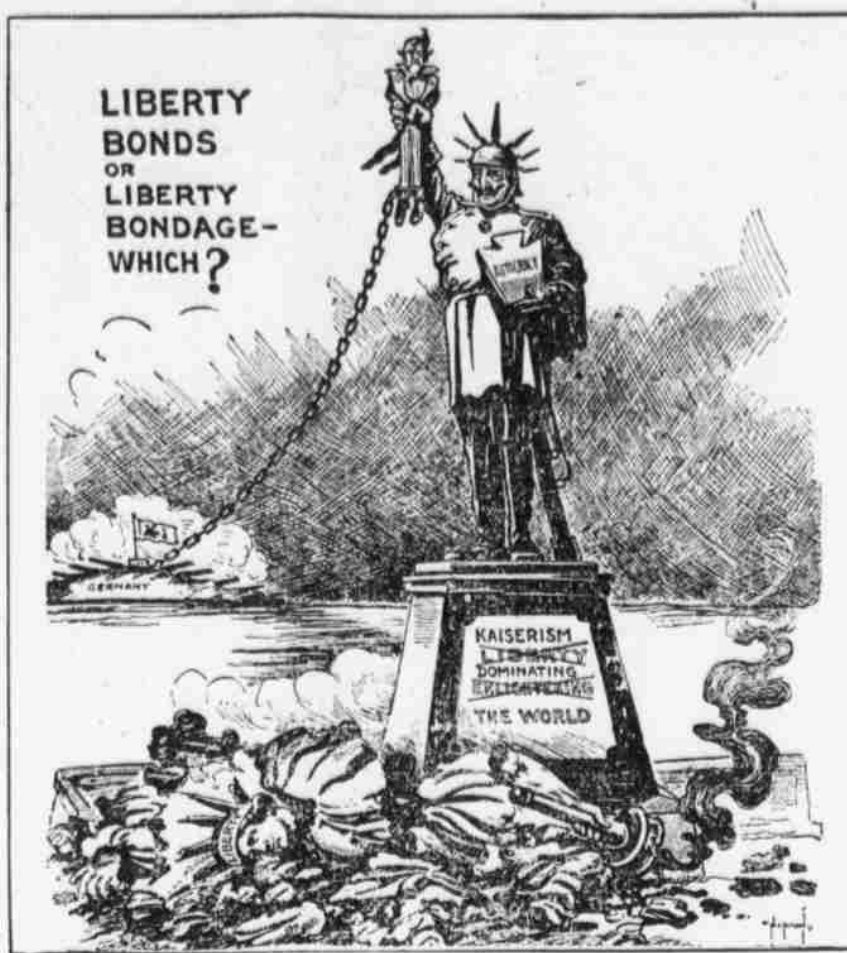

CARTOONS

TOMBOY TAYLOR'S MOTHER GOES TO A REST CURE AT LEAST TWICE A YEAR

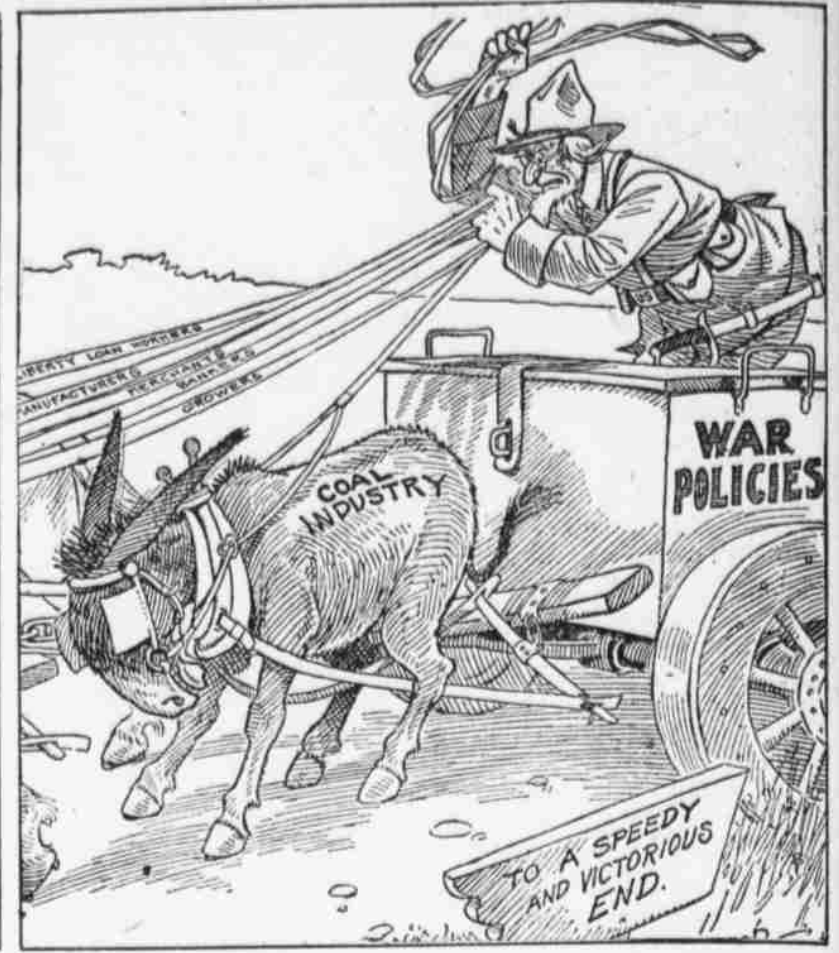

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright.)

TWO KINDS OF LIBERTY

Norman, in Boston Post.

THE ONLY MULE IN THE TEAM

Clubb, in Rochester, N. Y., Herald.

His Forte

Officer—That's smuth up there. He's awfully good at banking. Eve's offspring—Oh, yes! A more thrifty fellow never lived.

War Strategy "Where have you been, John Wombat?" "Ssh, my dear. It's a military secret."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Safety in Flight

Tommy (as his prisoner responds to a demand for increased speed)—That's better, Fritz. Keep that up and then no nasty accidents won't happen.

THE PADDED CELL

IN AGAIN!

OSTRICH PLUMES

BUSTLE

HAYWARD

Well Covered "Oh, Myrtle. Weren't you frightened to death when that burglar broke into your room?" "Frightened's no name for it; I was dressing." "Mercy, how terribly embarrassing! Whatever did you do?" "Oh, he was very considerate, he covered me with his revolver."—Ideal Power.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says that one or the other of the old parties usually wins an election, but she sees by the papers that the confusion movement in New York city promises very well this year.

Worth the Risk

For three successive nights the new and proud father had walked the floor with the baby. On the fourth night he became desperate, and on arriving home from the office unwrapped a bottle of soothing syrup. "Oh, James," exclaimed his wife, when she saw the label, "what did you buy that for? Don't you know it is very dangerous to give a child anything like that?" "Don't worry," was the husband's tired reply. "I'm going to take it myself."—The Bits.

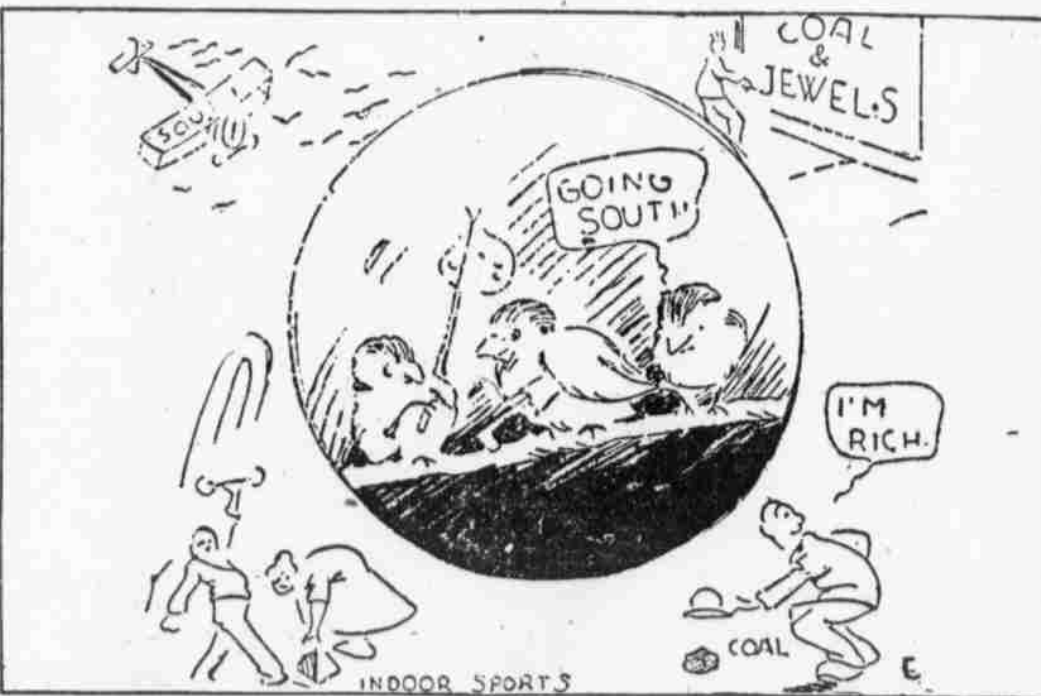

NO CAUSE FOR WORRY

Ambrose, in Rochester, N. Y., Post-Express.

CREEPING OUT

Halladay, in Providence, R. I., Journal.

SOME COAL FAMINE SUGGESTIONS

From Akron, O., Journal.

PROTECTING THE HOME

Coffman, in Washington, D. C., Times.

November first

THE BOND OF UNITY

Howell, in Woman's Wear, New York.

THE WILD BOAR AT BAY

Naughton, in Duluth, Minn., Herald.