

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

PICTORIAL
SECTION

PHILADELPHIA NEWS PREDOMINATES IN A PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE DAY'S HAPPENINGS

LIGHTNING AGAIN SPARES OLD GLORY

A second instance of a flagpole being shattered in Saturday's electric storm while the Stars and Stripes thereon remained intact has come to notice. The first was at Fifty-seventh and Baltimore avenue. The picture shows the second flag to escape destruction, that over the headquarters of Tivoli Hose Company, No. 39. H. E. Snyder, president of Tivoli Company, is holding the flag.

GERMANS LABOR FOR DEMOCRACY'S CAUSE

Copyright, Committee on Public Information.
Not willingly, of course, for they are prisoners put to work at the camp of the American troops in France under supervision of one of our own Sammees.

AMONG PHILADELPHIA'S SOLDIER HORSEMEN
Lieutenant R. E. Strawbridge, Jr., who saw service last year on the Mexican border as a member of the First City Troop and is now doing duty at Camp Meade.

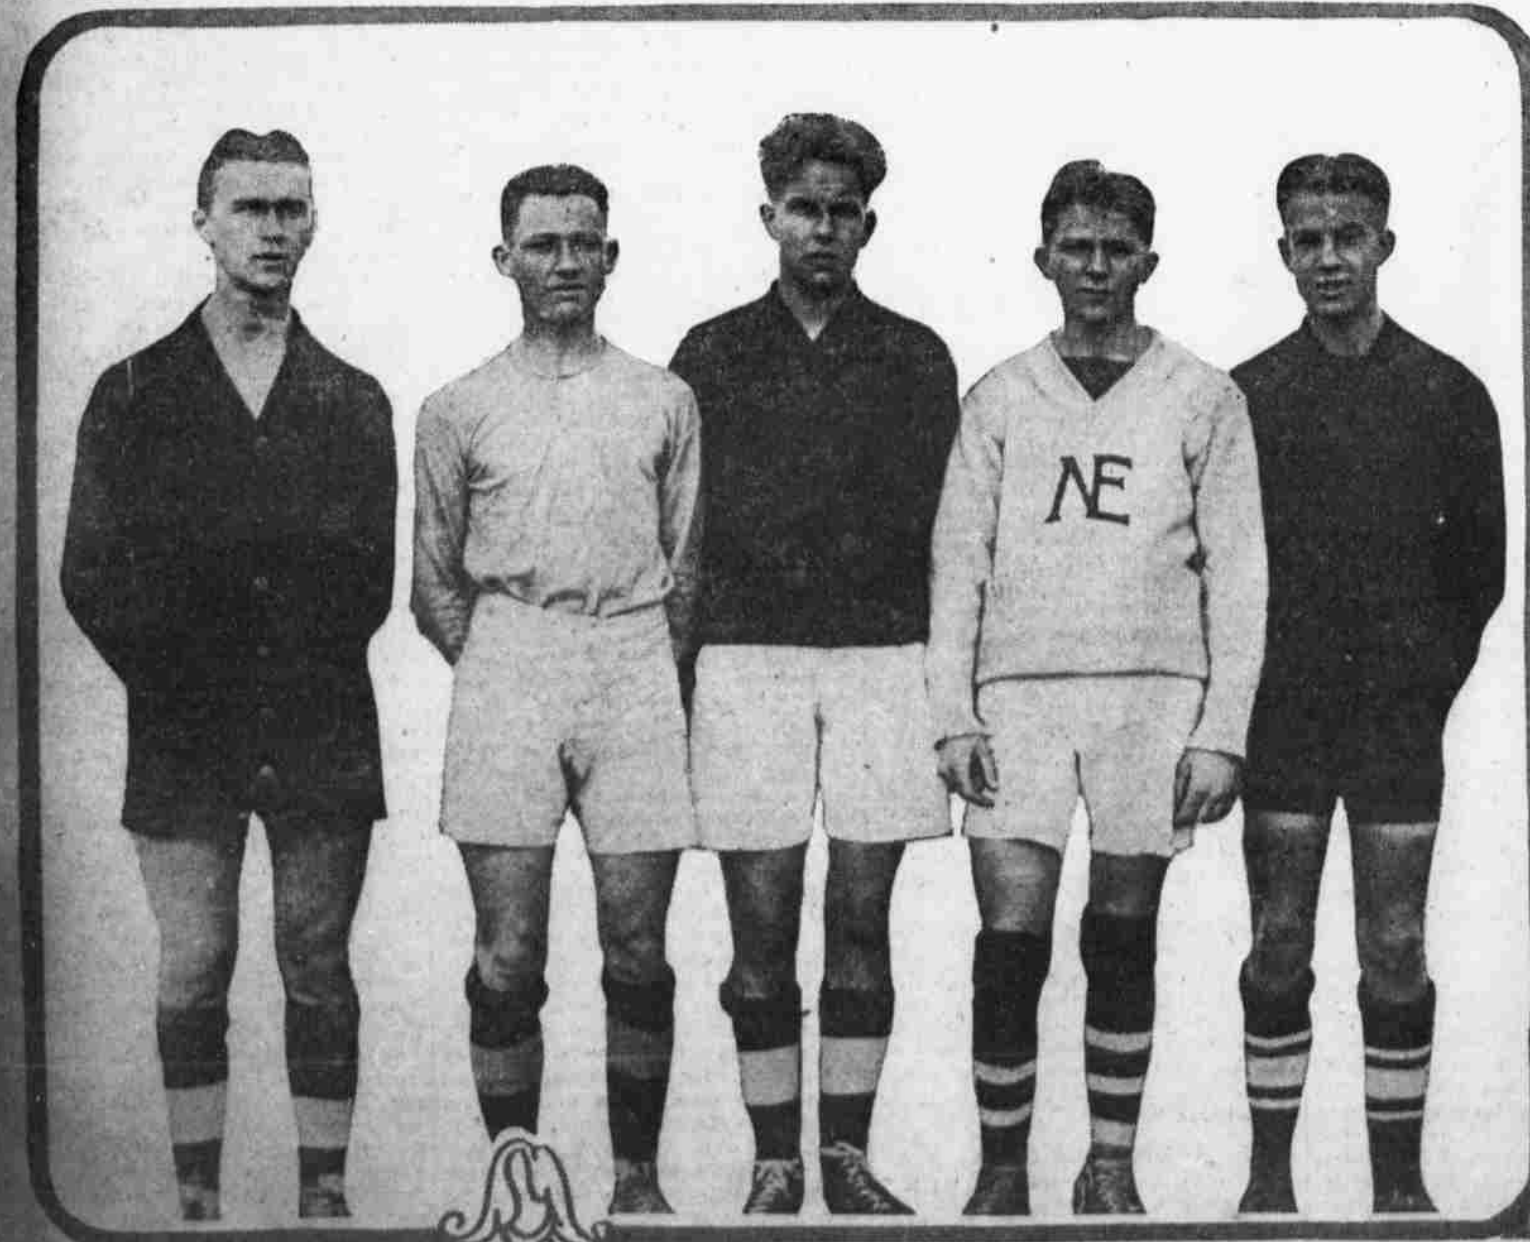

JUVENILE COOKING CLASS MAKES JELLIES FOR THE RED CROSS

All are pupils of the McCall Public School, at Seventh and De Lancey streets, where they performed this patriotic service under supervision of Miss Margaret Henry.

Copyright, Harris & Ewing.
HUGH FRAYNE, LABOR'S REPRESENTATIVE ON THE WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD OF THE COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

MEMBERS OF THE SOCCER TEAM REPRESENTING NORTHEAST HIGH

Last year Northeast won the championship in the Scholastic League. Right to left, A. Beihl, R. Cloak, A. Munch, manager and acting captain; S. R. Payne and J. Calhoun.

MISS NATALIE LUNDELL, WHO WON FIRST PRIZE AT THE CURTIS COUNTRY CLUB'S HALLOWEEN PARTY

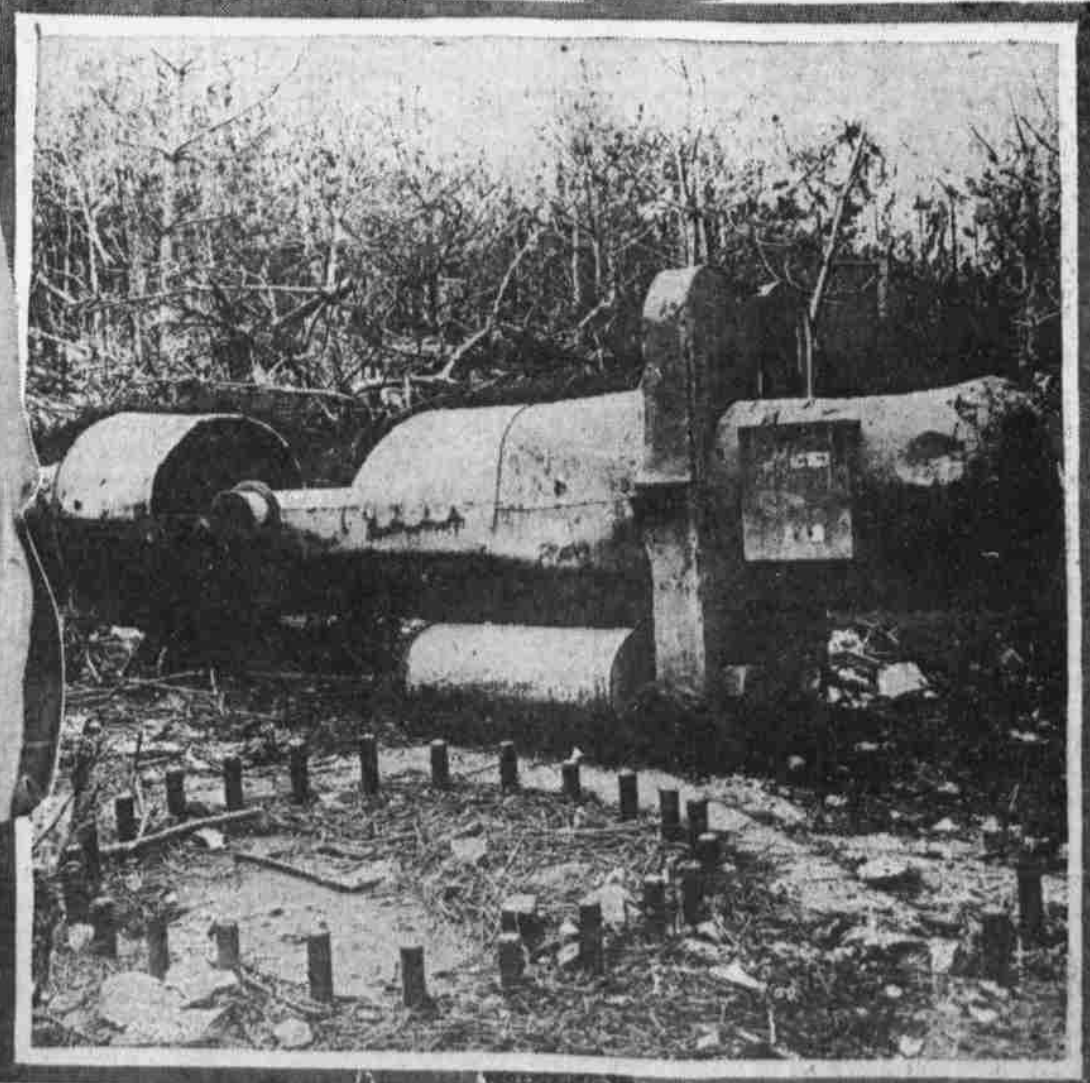

Photo from Underwood & Underwood.
AUSTRIANS BUILD CAMOUFLAGE GUN TO FOOL THE ITALIANS
The Teutons hoped their foes' artillerymen would waste shells on the supposed howitzer, but the trick failed of its purpose.