

THE VARE AND MOYER ON "BARBER RULE"

Eye of Biggest Municipal Decision Since the Big Upheaval of 1905

DURHAM'S PROPHECY

A Voice from the Grave

ONCE in every twelve years there will be a political uprising in Philadelphia and the gang will be overthrown...

The citizens of Philadelphia tomorrow will go to the polls and record their votes for or against "government by murder"...

An unprecedented campaign has been waged for the last six weeks against the ward leaders who follow the standard of the late Mayor Smith...

The coalition thus formed has attempted a compromise between the two camps of the entire country, and upon the result of the balloting tomorrow depends...

The ousting of William H. Wilson, Vare followers as Director of Public Safety, and the removal of the police from politics...

The complete overthrow of the Vare-Smith city administration

The whirlwind campaign that has been waged to accomplish this end will close with rallies tonight. Both sides are confidently claiming victory...

In that year the late Israel W. Durham, who was leader of the Republican Organization, predicted by a strange coincidence...

"Once in every twelve years," Durham told his close friends and followers at a meeting held after the election that year...

That was just twelve years ago. In 1911, just six years after he said this, Rudolph Blankenburg was elected Mayor of Philadelphia...

The election of a Council dominated by the Vare and the city administration, they said, would result in the "whitewashing" of the Mayor...

In addition to Councils, four county offices, those of Receiver of Taxes, District Attorney, City Treasurer and Register of Wills...

For District Attorney, the Town Meeting party committee selected Samuel P. Rotan, who won the Republican nomination...

The fight over the "row" offices has been waged on the issue of the fee system, with Mr. Nicholson, who is president of the Land Title and Trust Company...

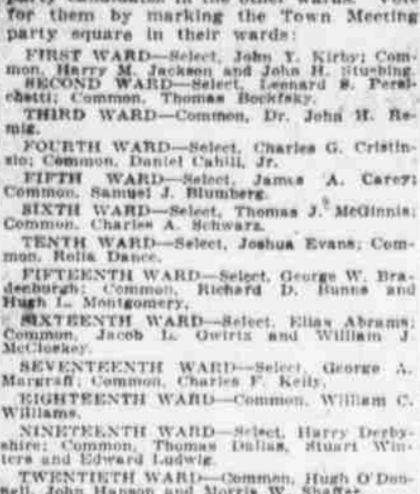

The fight has been so bitter that both sides expect the result to be close, and both the Independents and the Vare-Smith organization are making every effort to secure a majority of the vote...

SOLDIER AND DEMOCRATIC VOTE There are approximately 20,000 Philadelphians who are at Camp Hancock...

LOUIS HUTT DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

Injuries Received by Assistant City Solicitor in Collision Prove Fatal

FIVE OTHERS INJURED

LOUIS HUTT Assistant City Solicitor, who was fatally injured this morning in an automobile accident.

Louis Hutt, Assistant City Solicitor and former Select Councilman from the Twenty-ninth Ward, was fatally injured in an automobile crash at midnight, dying early today at the Lenoxton Hospital...

The high-powered car, driven by Mr. Tideman, who reports the car had been going west on Oxford street...

The injured were taken to the Lenoxton Hospital, where Mr. Hutt died. The others were sent to their homes later...

Mr. Hutt, who lived at 224 Oxford street, was a prominent leader in the McNicol wing of the Republican party...

His law offices were in the Bulletin Building. Mr. Hutt was a native Philadelphian, having been born on the 6th of November, 1865...

The family, when Mr. Louis Hutt was an infant, moved to St. John's and Wood streets, where he was fostered and successfully pursued for many years...

When he was permitted to attend the old Northern Liberties School, Third above Butler, until he was fourteen years old, when he secured employment in the law office of Sharp & Allen...

Mr. Hutt was a member of the bar, and took an immediate interest in Hutt, and recognizing that he lacked the opportunities for acquiring an education, generally took this task upon himself...

His law offices were in the Bulletin Building. Mr. Hutt was a native Philadelphian, having been born on the 6th of November, 1865, his birthplace being on New street, east of Third in the old city proper...

The family, when Mr. Louis Hutt was an infant, moved to St. John's and Wood streets, where he was fostered and successfully pursued for many years...

When he was permitted to attend the old Northern Liberties School, Third above Butler, until he was fourteen years old, when he secured employment in the law office of Sharp & Allen...

Mr. Hutt was a member of the bar, and took an immediate interest in Hutt, and recognizing that he lacked the opportunities for acquiring an education, generally took this task upon himself...

LOUIS HUTT DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

Injuries Received by Assistant City Solicitor in Collision Prove Fatal

FIVE OTHERS INJURED

LOUIS HUTT Assistant City Solicitor, who was fatally injured this morning in an automobile accident.

Louis Hutt, Assistant City Solicitor and former Select Councilman from the Twenty-ninth Ward, was fatally injured in an automobile crash at midnight, dying early today at the Lenoxton Hospital...

The high-powered car, driven by Mr. Tideman, who reports the car had been going west on Oxford street...

The injured were taken to the Lenoxton Hospital, where Mr. Hutt died. The others were sent to their homes later...

Mr. Hutt, who lived at 224 Oxford street, was a prominent leader in the McNicol wing of the Republican party...

His law offices were in the Bulletin Building. Mr. Hutt was a native Philadelphian, having been born on the 6th of November, 1865...

The family, when Mr. Louis Hutt was an infant, moved to St. John's and Wood streets, where he was fostered and successfully pursued for many years...

When he was permitted to attend the old Northern Liberties School, Third above Butler, until he was fourteen years old, when he secured employment in the law office of Sharp & Allen...

Mr. Hutt was a member of the bar, and took an immediate interest in Hutt, and recognizing that he lacked the opportunities for acquiring an education, generally took this task upon himself...

His law offices were in the Bulletin Building. Mr. Hutt was a native Philadelphian, having been born on the 6th of November, 1865...

The family, when Mr. Louis Hutt was an infant, moved to St. John's and Wood streets, where he was fostered and successfully pursued for many years...

When he was permitted to attend the old Northern Liberties School, Third above Butler, until he was fourteen years old, when he secured employment in the law office of Sharp & Allen...

Mr. Hutt was a member of the bar, and took an immediate interest in Hutt, and recognizing that he lacked the opportunities for acquiring an education, generally took this task upon himself...

TAYLOR MADE MAJOR IN WAR WITH SPAIN

Answers Attack of Captain Vare by Quoting Adjutant General's Records

Former Director of Transit A. Merritt Taylor today answered the attack made upon his military record last Saturday night by Congressman Willam S. Vare by issuing a public statement...

The former Director also answered the statement issued on Saturday by the present transit director, William S. Twining, in which Twining said that if Mr. Taylor's amendments to the Smith-Mitten lease have been submitted to the P. R. T., as Mr. Taylor announced last week, they must have been submitted by Mr. Taylor himself...

"It appears that Director Twining has not been told by Major Smith what is going on," said Mr. Taylor. His statement follows: "Captain" William S. Vare's criticism of my military record during the Spanish War is most interesting to me...

As it will be remembered that Captain Vare obtained no military medals and no title of "captain" as commander of the Thomas Clements New Year's Association, which was for years the champion bluffers' association...

It is interesting to me to see him dancing up Broad street dressed as a clown, carrying a parasol to protect him from the sun...

The Philadelphia National Guardsmen assembled at Mount Gretna on April 28, 1898, and military operations against Spain were brought to a close on August 13, 1898. The adjutant general's report follows:

Appointed first lieutenant and quartermaster Third Infantry January 4, 1898. Appointed major and commissary for First Brigade June 14, 1898. Appointed assistant adjutant general First Brigade August 10, 1898...

When the Philadelphia troops assembled at Mount Gretna on April 28, 1898, I was in command of the 100th Infantry, and I was assigned to recruiting duty in Philadelphia...

Director Twining's statement contained this misleading paragraph: "This contract that need clarification for the discovery of which Mr. Taylor claims credit" were pointed out in the opinion rendered by Ford, Bacon & Davis, which was submitted to the committee by me at the second meeting...

The Smith-Mitten lease was published and presented to Councils on August 17. My analysis of its famous provisions was published on August 28, although the report of Ford, Bacon & Davis, which Director Twining refers to, was dated September 1 and was not published and presented to the committee of Councils until September 6...

These facts and dates are all matters of record in the newspaper files. Mr. Twining's statement that he had no recollection of the matter is, therefore, a lie. Mr. Twining said that he had no recollection of the matter...

Mr. Twining was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

Mr. Taylor was a caller on District Attorney Rotan this afternoon. After he left, Mr. Rotan said that the visit was without political significance and that Mr. Taylor had called merely to make arrangements for the donation of certain features of the Smith-Mitten lease...

DR. MUCK TO PLAY OUR ANTHEM HERE

'Star Spangled Banner' Will Close Boston Symphony's Concert Tonight

LETTER FROM HIGGINSON

The Boston Symphony Orchestra will play here tonight in the Academy of Music. Dr. Karl Muck, its $18,000-a-year conductor, will conduct, and at the close of the concert the "Star Spangled Banner" which Doctor Muck was accused of refusing to play in Providence last Friday, will be played...

Owen Winter has a letter from Major Henry L. Higginson of Boston, who maintains the Boston Symphony Orchestra, in which Major Higginson says the anthem will be played, and declares emphatically that Doctor Muck and the orchestra have never refused to play it—all accusations to the contrary notwithstanding...

An excerpt from Major Higginson's letter is included in the following statement issued by Mr. Winter today: "Surely none of us in Philadelphia who has enjoyed listening to the Boston Symphony Orchestra during the long succession of years it has been our visitor wants to quarrel with this old friend if we can possibly avoid it. The report of the Providence concert disturbed me very much. Therefore, feeling much concerned about our orchestra here tonight, and also believing that there might be a chance of avoiding trouble, I telegraphed Major Higginson last Friday afternoon, begging him that the 'Star Spangled Banner' be played, and that I would not put the matter strongly enough in my first telegram, I sent him a second, also on Friday...

"Meanwhile, before my telegram had reached him, the orchestra had played the 'Star Spangled Banner' at its afternoon concert. This led me to hope that the attitude of the orchestra in this matter had not been understood by the public, and that the strong feeling of our community might have led to conclusions that were not based on full knowledge of facts. This morning a letter has come to me from Major Higginson in which I take liberty of quoting without his permission...

"Thank you very much for the two telegrams. You will have seen by the papers that at my request Doctor Muck and the orchestra played the 'Star Spangled Banner' at the close of our concert yesterday (Friday) afternoon. Doctor Muck and the orchestra were not asked to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' at Providence and therefore could not have refused. They knew nothing of the request until after the concert...

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

Mr. Higginson probably will be on hand with the orchestra tonight.

Dr. Muck's attitude has not been antagonistic and that we shall hear our national anthem played by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, which has never objected to playing it anywhere.

The statement of Mr. Higginson to Mr. Winter is in line with a statement previously made by Mr. Higginson, in which he took upon himself all the blame for the orchestra's failure to play the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Providence.

REQUIEM OF GANG SUNG AT MEETINGS

Town Party Workers Get Rousing Receptions on Round-Up Tour

LIKE FRENCH SOLDIERS

Enthusiastic greetings and promises of support at the polls tomorrow were given Town Meeting party workers today at a dozen noonday meetings held at industrial plants and clubs throughout the city.

At every meeting the speakers declared that the new party would sweep the city by a large majority, and, as one of the speakers expressed it, "It is all over for the Gang."

One of the largest of the meetings was at the Hill & Rogers plant, Kensington and Allegheny avenues. Before the speakers finished more than 200 men gathered and pledged their support to the reformers.

Robert F. Bonner, candidate for Judge of the Orphan's Court, was the principal speaker. He declared that it was the hope of the new party to keep the judiciary out of politics. As a solution he urged that all judges be elected for a term of one year only. He blamed the Town Meeting party for the failure of the French Republic, saying that as they fought to make democracy safe for the world, so is the new party fighting to make democracy safe for Philadelphia.

Several hundred workmen applauded speakers of the Town Meeting party who addressed a noonday gathering at Bobbitt's Mills, Falls of Schuylkill.

Frederick S. Drake, candidate of Court of Common Pleas, No. 5, urged those who gathered to support the new party. He urged the voters to vote for the independent candidates. He called considerable attention when he declared that Congressman John St. K. Scott and Harry Mackey had secured seven members of the judiciary a jury box and told them that the city committee was so well pleased with their decisions that it had decided to reappoint them.

"When Scott and Mackey are placed with any one," said Mr. Drake, "that is a reason why we should not be." Robert E. Morrison, another speaker, predicted that 90 per cent of the Trade Unionists would support the Town Meeting candidates.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

REQUIEM OF GANG SUNG AT MEETINGS

Town Party Workers Get Rousing Receptions on Round-Up Tour

LIKE FRENCH SOLDIERS

Enthusiastic greetings and promises of support at the polls tomorrow were given Town Meeting party workers today at a dozen noonday meetings held at industrial plants and clubs throughout the city.

At every meeting the speakers declared that the new party would sweep the city by a large majority, and, as one of the speakers expressed it, "It is all over for the Gang."

One of the largest of the meetings was at the Hill & Rogers plant, Kensington and Allegheny avenues. Before the speakers finished more than 200 men gathered and pledged their support to the reformers.

Robert F. Bonner, candidate for Judge of the Orphan's Court, was the principal speaker. He declared that it was the hope of the new party to keep the judiciary out of politics. As a solution he urged that all judges be elected for a term of one year only. He blamed the Town Meeting party for the failure of the French Republic, saying that as they fought to make democracy safe for the world, so is the new party fighting to make democracy safe for Philadelphia.

Several hundred workmen applauded speakers of the Town Meeting party who addressed a noonday gathering at Bobbitt's Mills, Falls of Schuylkill.

Frederick S. Drake, candidate of Court of Common Pleas, No. 5, urged those who gathered to support the new party. He urged the voters to vote for the independent candidates. He called considerable attention when he declared that Congressman John St. K. Scott and Harry Mackey had secured seven members of the judiciary a jury box and told them that the city committee was so well pleased with their decisions that it had decided to reappoint them.

"When Scott and Mackey are placed with any one," said Mr. Drake, "that is a reason why we should not be." Robert E. Morrison, another speaker, predicted that 90 per cent of the Trade Unionists would support the Town Meeting candidates.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

Young England observes the day by dressing up an effigy to represent Guy Fawkes, and a nightfall burning it with great solemnity.

The Town Meeting party has placed its candidates in the field in thirty-six wards. In these wards a cross after the party name in the first column of the ballot only issue a vote for Receiver of Taxes, Register of Wills and City Treasurer, and in the second column a vote for Mayor.