All of the eight sitting judges were re-elected yesterday, but Eugene C. Bonniwell had a close race with Judge John Mona-ghan for one of the seats in Common Pleas Court No. 5. The showing made by Bonniwell was the surprise of the nonpartisan election. He ran only 18,835 votes behind Judge Mona-ghan, Bonniwell polled $0,806 votes to Judge Monaghan's 99,641. Judge William H. Staake was easily re-elected in the same court, polling 193,251 votes. Frederick S. Drake, the fourth candidate for this court, polled only 45,440 votes.

The Penrose-McNichel wards cut Mona ghan and Staake heavily in favor of Bonni-well, but Monaghan was knifed consider-ably more than Judge Staake. hird Ward where Sel in the Inited Water, which was the Penrose-denical Harry J. Receptacle in First Division Once More Vanishes as on Primary Election Day

The ballot box of the first division of the Pitth Ward was taken on a mysterious pligrimage again last night. A short time after it was learned that the division would return a substantial majority for the Town eting party candidates, it was suddenly whisked out of sight. No one knew where it had gone. No one knew who was re-

The affair is a repetition of the stealing the box in the same division of the Fifth ard on primary election day, following the murder of acting Detective Georg

RAILROADS MUST BUILD SUBWAY AT HARRISBURG

HARRISBURG, Nov. 7.-In an opinio handed down today by the Public Service Commission the New York Central, New York, Chicago and St. Louis and the East Erie Commercial Railroad Companies must construct a subway at Water street, Wesleyville, Erie County, where the tracks of the three companies cross. The grade crossing now existing was con-sidered dangerous by the Association of Business Men of Wesleyville and they filed a complaint with the commission. The new subway must be completed by January 1, 1918. Between now and the time of the completion of the subway the companies must station a watchman at the crossing.

An Invisible Army

A muster of the Bell forces of the country would bring together two hundred thousand men and women.

Little is seen of this army! An installer now and then, or a group of cablemen and linemen! Yet all, from the regiments of workers in the large cities, to the platoons and squads in the little farming and mining towns over the horizon, are devoting an undivided energy to their part in the work of preparing our armies for battle and our industries for the production of war munitions.

Well over a hundred thousand comprise the operating force alone—a force now handling an intricate telephone traffic amounting to over thirty million calls a day.

These young women are playing a particularly important part in the war-time activity of the nation and are tackling each task with a spirit that merita on the part of the public a courteous appreciation of their earnest effort at all times.
