

NEW YORK GIVES TAMMANY CONTROL

Hylan Wins Mayoralty by Biggest Plurality in History of City's Politics

MITCHELL IS FAR BEHIND

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Tammany is back in power in New York today after the greatest show of strength in its history. John F. Hylan was elected Mayor yesterday by a plurality of more than 147,000. In addition Tammany captured every borough presidency, the office of controller, the presidency of the board of aldermen, the presidency of the district attorney and made it a clean sweep.

The vote totals, with twenty-two districts missing out of 5048 early today, were: Hylan, 147,000; Mitchell, 142,178; McSorley, 140,207; Bennett, 137,678. Tammany leaders ascribed the defeat of Mitchell to the fact that Bennett was also in the contest.

Hylan's plurality is the biggest in the history of New York politics. Mitchell's plurality when he was elected four years ago was 121,209, a record-breaker at that time. The Socialists fell far short of what the anti-war leaders had confidently predicted. They expected 250,000. Hillquit, however, proclaimed the result "epoch-making because of the result of the election of ten aldermen, four in a merry spot today. Many Tammany enthusiasts were up all night celebrating and they were still on the job at daybreak.

Information received by Socialists in this city from the New York Socialist campaign committee shortly before noon stated that seven State Assemblymen had been elected in New York city, two from the Bronx, two from Kings, two from Manhattan and one from Queens, that at least five members of the Board of Aldermen were swept into office by the Hillquit vote, and that Jacob Panken, counsel for the East Side women in their protest against the "high cost of living" last spring, was elected a municipal judge. Shipoff and Whitehorn were re-elected to the Assembly from New York city, and reports give the Socialists two more Assemblymen from the State.

OHIO SOCIALISTS FAIL TO ELECT ONE MAYOR

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Socialists failed to elect a Mayor in Ohio on their anti-war platform. Incomplete returns today from the seven cities where they ran showed that where they made extravagant projections claims showed big increases at some points and losses at others, but in no city was there a showing indicating anything near an even division on the vote.

Soldiers' Votes Are Kept Under Cover

Continued from Page One. Ballot voted by the soldiers did not have the names of any candidates printed on it. The soldiers wrote them in when they voted. In all of the ballots were columns for the councilman candidates. The voting books given the commissioners were for the purpose of recording the unofficial vote, according to the instruction given by the commissioners by Attorney General Brown. That little effort was made to announce the unofficial returns in evident, the Town Meeting party leaders, pointed out today, from a tabulation of all the returns in from the various camps.

record of the vote and none of them are able to give accurate figures today. At Camp Meade it is estimated that 7500 votes were cast, and that sixty per cent of these were against the Vares. Word from Camp Hancock, Ga., where the National Guard is in training, indicates a substantial majority for the Town Meeting party ticket.

Estimates give the Town Meeting party candidates a majority of 700 votes in the 109th and 11th infantry. Unofficial figures given by Town Meeting representatives give the 109th field artillery to the Vares-Smith ticket by 228 votes and the 110th infantry and 1093 engineers to the Town Meeting party by 190 and 150 majority, respectively. Town Meeting men say they will carry the camp by 500 votes.

At Fort Oglethorpe 115 Philadelphia voters were cast at the two voting places. Camp Warden McLean, the reserve officers' training camp, and Camp Greenleaf. There were no polls in the regular army camps and the vote was high because R. O. T. C. men were not notified in time, but 100 out of 420 voted there. Fifteen Philadelphia voters were cast at Greenleaf.

No votes for Council were allowed. There was much interest in the mayoralty fight in Pittsburgh, sixty-three going for Babcock and twenty-five for Magee. The vote was as follows: Common Pleas Court No. 1—Breyer, 192; Court No. 2—McMichael, 21; Ferguson, 18; Beyer, 25; Mitchell, 28; Court No. 4—Audenreid, 98; Court No. 5—Stanke, 83; Monaghan, 44; Bonnell, 52; Drake, 34.

Orphan's Court—Lamorelle, 74; Anderson, 59; Bonner, 44; Lynch, 18; Magee, 6; Register of Wills—Sheehan, 48; Smith, 51; Detweiler, 8. Receiver of Taxes—Kendrick, 61; Armstrong, 4. Treasurer—Shoyer, 41; Nicholson, 54. District Attorney—Rotan, 81; McSorley, 13; Houston, 9. Magistrates—Campbell, 27; Costello, 37; Neff, 34; Rooney, 27; Eisenbrown, 38; Armstrong, 31; Boyle, 25; Allen, 11; Limeburner, 5; Littleton, 6; Gill, 3; Connor, 4.

NEW PARTY SWEEPS CAMP MEADE. That the Town Meeting candidates made a clean sweep at Camp Meade is apparent from the returns in the 215th Infantry and 216th Infantry. In the latter there are 132 Philadelphia and 105 voted as follows: Register of Wills—Sheehan, 26; Smith, 50; Armstrong, 44; Treasurer—Nicholson, 53; Shoyer, 20; District Attorney—Rotan, 72; Hopston, 15, and McSorley, 6. Company D, 215th Infantry, which is a Philadelphia unit, did better than the 216th, for it gave the "row" candidates an overwhelming majority. The vote of this company for the row offices is as follows: Receiver of Taxes—Kendrick, 20; Armstrong, 96. Register of Wills—Sheehan, 21; Smith, 55; City Treasurer—Shoyer, 16; Nicholson, 93. District Attorney—Rotan, 21; McSorley, 9.

Company F, 215th Infantry, in its vote for the Vares Magistrates, Campbell, Costello, Neff and Rooney, gave each man 30 votes and 51 each to Eisenbrown, Grella, Borie and Boyle. This is how the company voted for the row offices: Register of Wills—Sheehan, 30; Smith, 51. Treasurer—Shoyer, 30; Nicholson, 51. Receiver of Taxes—Kendrick, 30; Armstrong, 91. District Attorney—Rotan, 30; McSorley, 11, and Nelson, 11.

HELP OUT REFORM TICKET. Company L, also of the 215th, did its bit for the reform ticket. It gave Kendrick 20 votes and his Town Meeting party rival 44. Sheehan received but 20 votes while Smith obtained 42. Nicholson, the Town Meeting candidate for the treasurership, received 40 votes and Shoyer but 14. Although it was impossible to get returns from other units in the olive drab who operated the election machinery assert that the Town Meeting candidates made a clean sweep in the 215th Field Artillery, 214th Infantry, 204th Ammunition Train and other organizations in which the Philadelphians figured.

The election was conducted in true army fashion and was devoid of disturbances. The only protest made at the polls was registered by a young Italian. He attempted to vote against the Vares, but was challenged on the ground that he had not obtained citizenship. He protested. That is right. I am not a citizen, but I am fighting for America. If I am good enough to draft, I am good enough to vote. He was not permitted to vote.

Men in the 215th Infantry, who are interested in the campaign centered, added a little spice to the election by exhibiting a placard over the door of a barracks which read: "We are going to Mayor Smith what we will do to the Kaiser." Some of the figures from Camp Hancock follow: One Hundred and Ninth Infantry (formerly First Infantry)—Register of Wills—Smith, 502; Sheehan, 219. Receiver of Taxes—Armstrong, 528; Kendrick, 239. City Treasurer—Nicholson, 498; Shoyer, 182. Judges—Bonnwell, 55; Monaghan, 221; Stahle, 174. Magistrate—Neff, 180; Rooney, 188; Borie, 453; Boyle, 500; Eisenbrown, 629; Grella, 578.

One Hundred and Eleventh Infantry (Philadelphians of the Philadelphia battalion of the old Sixth Infantry)—District Attorney—Rotan, 225. Register of Wills—Smith, 279; Sheehan, 10. Receiver of Taxes—Armstrong, 221; Kendrick, 10. City Treasurer—Nicholson, 221; Shoyer, 6. Magistrates—Borie, 220; Boyle, 225; Eisenbrown, 222; Grella, 219.

The Camp Meade vote may be tabulated today by the county commissioners. No records were kept by the election judges in the various barracks and it may be several days before complete returns are available. As fast as the election judges counted the vote the result was posted in a record book, and this, together with the ballots, was handed over to the commissioners. The latter made no effort to aid the newspaper men in their work of gathering returns, but hurried out of camp.

As matters stand today, the only records of the election are in the hands of the election commissioners appointed by Governor Brumbaugh. According to the law under which the soldier vote was taken, these commissioners must make their returns to election officials of counties which figures in the election. The commissioner who handled the vote of the 215th Infantry, a Philadelphia unit, left the camp last night and a half hour before his departure said that he would make his returns to the Philadelphia County Commissioners today. Unfortunately the soldiers who acted as election judges failed to keep a duplicate

BOTH DRY AND WETS CLAIM VICTORY IN OHIO

Result in Doubt, but Incomplete Official Figures Show Liquor Forces in Lead

ERROR IN CINCINNATI

Prohibition Total Will Be Reduced by 9000, Giving Opponents 20,000 Margin. COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Both sides are claiming victory in the vote on the prohibition amendment. L. H. Gibson, "wet" campaign manager, claimed the State by a majority of 15,000 to 25,000. J. A. Fry, "dry" manager, insisted that the State would go "dry" by a "safe majority."

With fewer than 500 precincts missing late this afternoon, the wets have an apparent majority of less than 12,000. Returns from the larger rural counties cut into the wet margin very rapidly, and the drys declared they had a good chance to overcome the adverse vote in the cities. There was consternation in the dry camp, however, when a dispatch came from Cincinnati this afternoon announcing a mistake in the vote of Hamilton County. The dispatch asserted that the dry vote in the county would be reduced by 9000. The corrected vote in Hamilton, with twelve precincts missing, is given as: For prohibition, 26,250; against, 80,420.

This change in the Hamilton County total would put the wets ahead by more than 20,000 and would probably decide the election. Unofficial figures given out by the Anti-Saloon League show a dry majority of 4000, with 416 precincts missing, all in rural counties. The Ohio soldier vote may figure prominently in the final counting. If complete returns show a majority on either side to be less than the Sammees' vote, a contest may ensue—either side attacking the legality of the soldier vote.

Complete prohibition returns from Hamilton County (Cincinnati) give the wets a majority of 45,180—23,664 less than the wet majority of 1915. In Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) the wet majority is estimated at 21,000, as compared to 28,274 in 1915. Franklin County (Columbus), third largest in the State, dropped into the dry column for the first time.

WILMINGTON STAYS WET, BUT COUNTY GOES DRY

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—As a result of the special election in this city and rural New Castle County yesterday, Wilmington becomes a dry suburb. The license forces carried the city by a majority of 2371, the total vote being, for license, 12,252; against license, 9881. The total vote polled in the city was 22,133, which shows that many entitled to vote did not do so, as the total number qualified was approximately 28,000. With detailed figures from a few scattered rural districts missing, but with the majorities in each hundred known, the drys won that subdivision by a majority of 517, the total vote being, for license, 199, against license, 756.

May Hold Mayor for Grand Jury

Heard this month by the Grand Jury and that they will either be indicted or exonerated. It is presumed that the cases of Mayor Smith and Pinley will be taken before the Grand Jury at the same time, unless the court dismisses the case against them on the grounds of insufficient testimony. The seven defendants whose cases were before the court today were Common Councilman Isaac Deutsch, Police Lieutenant David Bennett and Policemen John Wirtschauer, Michael Murphy, Lewis Feldman, Emanuel Uram and Clarence Hayden, a negro.

CONNOR'S PLEA, COURT RULING. Asking the court for a review of the case, which had been postponed twice, Mr. Connor said: "The testimony in this case is voluminous, and I have not had time to go over it. Great indulgence has been shown me by the court, with acquiescence of the District Attorney, because I have been pressed with other business, but I am still unable to prepare a brief of argument. I am not asking for a continuance of this case, but I am willing to rest upon the evidence of the Commonwealth, and agree to have your Honor give a decision upon the testimony alone."

Judge Martin declared that in such a situation he was compelled to assume that the evidence taken before Judge Brown made out a prima facie case, and that the defendants should be held for the Grand Jury. "Of course," said Judge Martin, "I realize that it is the testimony of the Commonwealth alone. If the evidence in these proceedings is absolutely true, and I must assume that it is, for the purpose of these proceedings, recognizing, of course, that the defendants have had no opportunity to contradict it, or present their side, they must be sent to the Grand Jury."

In making this decision, Judge Martin declared that the present bail of the defendants had expired, and that he would require them to enter new bonds. This requirement surprised Mr. Connor, who said he understood that the surety would hold good until the termination of the case. When Judge Martin held otherwise, Assistant District Attorney Taulane asked that the defendants be remanded to prison until they furnished bail. Judge Martin declined to take these drastic measures.

SUSPENDED UNTIL FRIDAY

Mr. Taulane would not assume the responsibility of allowing the defendants their liberty without the proper security until Friday and at his request Judge

MARTIN SUSPENDED HEARING UNTIL FRIDAY

Deutch suspended his chief, District Attorney Rotan.

Deutch appeared in court a few minutes before the proceedings started. He wore a button of the American party, whose candidate for Council in the Fifth Ward went down to defeat yesterday. Each of the defendants is accused of conspiracy in connection with the murder of Acting Detective George A. Eppley by imported New York gunmen in the primary election of September 19 in the "Bloody Fifth." In addition to the murder conspiracy charges there are further charges of conspiracy to commit election fraud, assault and battery, etc. Added to this, the Mayor is accused of contempt of court and misbehavior in office.

GIRL ARRESTED, CHARGED WITH BOOTLEGGING BOOZE

Mystery of Drinking Among Soldiers at Allentown Thought to Be Solved. ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—On a charge of being a girl bootlegger, May Moyer, aged nineteen, was today arrested by City Detective Nixon and committed to jail. She is alleged to have made a business of buying liquor and giving it to soldiers of the United States Ambulance Camp on the Allentown fair grounds.

GREECE AND ITALY AGREE

Venizelos and Orlando Come to a Complete Understanding. ATHENS, Nov. 7.—The Greek Foreign Office has received a telegram from the Greek Minister in Rome announcing the result of Premier Venizelos' meeting with Premier Orlando.

An entirely satisfactory understanding was established on all questions hitherto in dispute between Greece and Italy. Lansdowne Elects McEwen. William A. McEwen was elected Burgess of Lansdowne yesterday over Prof. D. M. Melchior, the Democratic candidate, by a majority in excess of 150 votes. Four Republican councilmen, County Treasurer Richardson Shoemaker, Clarence H. Burt, Frank Bostick and William H. Munch were elected. Mr. Munch was out very heavily as the result of strong opposition on the part of the Prohibition party.

NEIGHBORS RESCUE THREE CHILDREN FROM BLAZE

Break in Door After Fourth Gives Alarm of Fire—Mother Makes Escape

Neighbors rescued three of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosner when fire broke out in the Rosner home at 615 Porter street early today. The fire was discovered by the other child, who escaped from the house with her mother. Rosner, a baker, was baking bread in the basement of the house at the time. His wife, Mrs. Molly Rosner, was asleep in a front bedroom on the second floor, while the four children, Samuel, eleven years old; Sylvia, nine; Benjamin, six, and Francis, one, were sleeping in a room at the rear of the second floor. Shortly after 1 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Rosner was awakened by the screams of her daughter Sylvia, who cried, "Mother, there's smoke in our room and I can't get back to the others."

Mrs. Rosner was also unable to enter the children's bedroom on account of the smoke, and opening the window screamed for help. Neighbors who were passing the house broke in the door and carried out the three children, while Mrs. Rosner and Sylvia got to the street unaided. Rosner ran upstairs from the basement when he heard his wife's screams, but the neighbors had already rescued the family. Fire engines put out the blaze quickly. The damage was said to be $300.
