

CUPID IS UNDISMAYED; 75 LICENSES GRANTED

Not the War, Election Nor High Cost of Coal Deters Flanched

Times must be good. Regardless of the election, the war, the high cost of living, not to mention coal prices, Philadelphia today besieged the wedding license bureau in City Hall. Seventy-five licenses were issued. Some day all around, it would seem.

One suggestion offered relative to the unusual rush was that many wish to marry before the Advent season sets in.
