U. S. VESSEL ROCHESTER TORPEDOED

Four Killed and Fourteen Missing, States British Report

81 SURVIVORS SAFE FROM SUNKEN SHIP
One of First Two U. S. Steamships to Defy German U-Boats

EVENT OCCURRED FRIDAY

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Torpedoing of the American steamship Rochester was formally announced by the Admiralty today. Four of those aboard were killed and the second mate and thirteen others are missing, it was stated.

Thirty-one survivors have been landed at Buncrana and Rosport. The American vessel was struck on Friday and sunk.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The steamship Rochester, sunk by a German submarine, was the ship that, with the Orleans, previously sunk, first braved the submarine zone after Germany rescinded her promises to the United States, officials of the Kerr Steamship Company asserted here today. The Rochester was owned and operated by this company when she made her trip leaving New York February 11. It will be recalled that the Kaiser offered a reward for any U-boat commander who would sink either of these ships.
