Moth-eaten

—Passing Show. There ain't no flies on the sergeant-major, Bill. No, but you can see where the moths 'ave been at 'im!

Illogical Woman He—A woman is always illogical. She—How do you make that out? He—She can always remember her birthday, but never her age.

Mutually Agreeable

—Fit-Bits. Slow-pay—I shall bring you back those dark trousers to be resented, Mr. Snip; you know I sit a good deal. Mr. Snip (taller)—All right; and if you'll bring the bill I sent you six months ago I will be pleased to receipt that also. You know I've stood a good deal.

THE PADDED CELL

Willing to Do His Bit Small Boy (to porter lifting large box)—I say, mister, want me to help yer? Porter (contemptuously)—Bah! What kin you do? "Me? I'll grunt while you lift."—Pearson's Weekly.

The Young Lady Across the Way

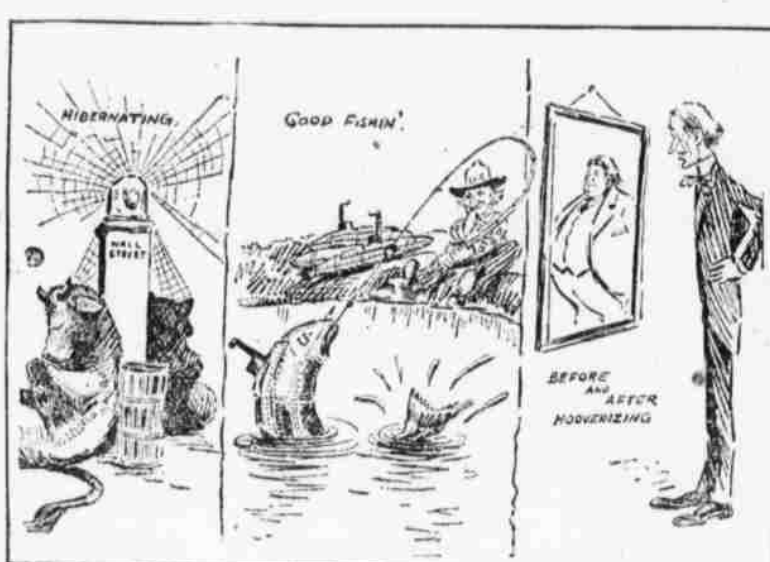

The young lady across the way says if meat and groceries go much higher they may have to take their meals at the hotel.

Before Meat He was awfully wild. In fact, he was most wildly wild. "I tell you once and for all," he roared at his erring offspring. "If you marry Grace I'll cut you off without a penny, and you won't have so much as a piece of beef to boil in the pot!" "Well," said the young man, as he went in search of the parson. "Grace becom' meat!"
