MRS. DOUGLAS SOUTHALL BRIGHT

Who before her marriage last week was Miss Josephine C. Shippen Foster, daughter of Mrs. Thomas C. Foster, of 426 South Carlisle street.

landed on the top, where they rose and fell, as one man, with every hump in the road.

The same good luck that usually attends gentlemen under the influence of similar stimulants must have been with them, for the last I heard of them they were seen peering down, from their high perch, on the poor driver, who was frankly begging them to "come down before a cop came along and pinched the whole blooming outfit—car and all!"

HAVE you heard that Mrs. John Converse is studying art in New York under Stern, the famous portrait painter? She spends the week-ends at Chetwood, her home in Rosemont, with her little daughter Sonia. Sonia stays there, as she is attending school this winter, so New York is out of the question for her.

NEW ENGLAND DINNER ON FRIDAY

Wenonah, N. J., Red Cross Gave Sale to Raise Funds for Soldiers' Christmas

The women of the Wenonah Presbyterian Church gave a New England dinner on Friday evening, which was largely attended by the community and many visitors.

Mr. Thomas Westerfield, who is doing such splendid work among the soldiers at Wrightstown, has been spending a few days with Wenonah friends. Surely Mr. Westerfield deserves more praise, for he has relinquished his splendid law practice in New York, a most interesting family and a beautiful home in Montclair to answer the call in this most patriotic manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Guernsey Peddie, of Mantua avenue, entertained a few friends at cards on Friday evening, among whom were the following: Dr. and Mrs. Harry Stout, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Burdall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beets, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burdall and Mrs. Ward Heritage.

Miss Irene Van Meter, who is a student at St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Meter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lincoln Farr entertained at dinner on Friday evening.

Sergeant Meade Lorenz, from Camp Dix, is spending a short furlough at his home on Princeton avenue. The sergeant aroused considerable enthusiasm among his audience on Sunday evening by an address given in the interest of the great Y. M. C. A. movement.

Mrs. Thomas Synnot is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Dicks, who arrived here yesterday from her home in San Francisco.

The local branch of the Red Cross gave a unique sale in its building on Marton avenue yesterday. Fresh fruits and vegetables, jellies and preserves, candies and pastry, as well as many articles of all kinds, were sold.

Miss Alice Farr, who was graduated in June last from St. Mary's Hall, has accepted a position on the faculty of that institution.

Miss Eleanor Brock, daughter of Mrs. J. Spencer Brock, of Hyde park, will return this week after spending a few days in Washington.

Mr. James Bewick Perry, 2d, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Perry, of New York, has received his commission as first lieutenant in the aviation corps, and is at present stationed at Fort Sill, Okla.

Mr. Robert S. Perry, who has been spending a few days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ward T. Perry, of 437 West Brighthelm street, Germantown, returned on Sunday to her home, 194 Riverside drive, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman C. Hoeflich, of 12 North Fifth street, entertained at cards last Thursday evening.

A week-end party was given on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. Louis Foster, of South Philadelphia. The house was tastefully decorated with autumn colorings.

Next Saturday evening 300 soldiers from Wrightstown, N. J., will be entertained by the senior class of the Normal School.

There will be pretty girls galore, recitation, music and plenty of good things to eat, notwithstanding the small number. Miss Mary Peacock is chairman of the reception committee and Miss Amy Walls will have charge of the unusually attractive program.

Blanche F. Hazeburet, of the West Locust Apartments, announces the engagement of her niece, Miss Cornelia Perrine Miller, and Ensign Albert M. Rodgers, Jr., U. S. N., Ensign Rodgers, who is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, is now in active service at Norfolk, Va.

WEDDING IN ROXBOROUGH

Miss Jessie Frame Married to Mr. Richard Wahl, of Brookline, Pa.

Among the interesting weddings of November was that of Dr. Jessie Gray Frame, daughter of Dr. Christian A. Frame, of 5932 Ridge avenue, Roxborough, and Mr. Richard A. Wahl, of Brookline, Pa., which took place on Saturday at noon at the home of the bride's father.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Sanderson, of the Ebenezer Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride wore her traveling suit of tan cloth, with a black velvet hat. She was given in marriage by her father, and was unattended. Following the service there was a breakfast for the two families. Mr. Wahl and his bride left for Philadelphia and will remain South several weeks. Upon their return they will pass the winter in Brookline, and will be at home in Pittsburgh in the spring. The bride, who is widely known in Roxborough, is a graduate of the Girls Normal School and of the Women's Medical College of this city, and has been professor of hygiene and physiology at the South Philadelphia High School for girls since the opening of that institution.
