

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

PICTORIAL SECTION

A PAGE OF PHOTOGRAPHS PORTRAYING THE BIG NEWS HAPPENINGS AT HOME AND ABROAD

"STRAFING" A MAKE-BELIEVE HUN AT THE MARINE CORPS'S GREAT TRAINING CAMP AT QUANTICO, VA.

EDWIN WOLF, NAMED PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION AFTER SIXTEEN YEARS AS A MEMBER

BRITISH FORCES, PUSHING THEIR CAMPAIGN IN MESOPOTAMIA, CROSS THE HISTORIC TIGRIS ABOVE BAGDAD BY MEANS OF A PONTOON BRIDGE

BRITISH MINES ROUT TURKS ON THE SHORES OF PALESTINE. The insufferable heat of the summer months now a thing of the past, General Allenby's men once more are driving the Ottomans before them and are within striking distance of the Holy City itself.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL AMERMAN, OF THE BOY SCOUTS, DECORATES MISS PAULINE HENKEL, A TWELVE-YEAR-OLD NEW YORK GIRL, FOR PARTICIPATING IN MANY PATRIOTIC ENTERPRISES

FIRST WOMAN M. P. REPRESENTS SOLDIERS. Nursing Sister R. C. MacAdams chosen to act for the overseas soldiers from Alberta, Canada, in their legislative assembly.

PATRIOTIC PUPILS OF THE JOSEPH LFIDY SCHOOL, WHO, UNDER THE GENERALSHIP OF THEIR PRINCIPAL, MISS MARGARET ROBINSON, SUBSCRIBED TO $100,950 WORTH OF THE SECOND LIBERTY LOAN IN THE NAME OF THEMSELVES AND THEIR RELATIVES