JUST TO KEEP HISTORY STRAIGHT

From Minneapolis Journal. KAISER'S HELMET IN RING, TOO

—Tatler.
First Tommy—Ere, Bill, nice sort of "victory." I don't think.
Second Tommy—Yes, same sort as them German ones we've "eared" so much about lately.

Hopelessly Outclassed
"Does your dog ever growl?"
"No. He knows that my husband has him hopelessly outclassed."

Where to Put Them

—Pearson's Weekly.
Cuthbert (at the post office)—Do I put the stamps on myself?
Phoebe—Oh, no; on the parcel, please.

What She Wanted
Chloe—I would only marry a man who has lived and suffered.
George—I suppose what you want is a widower.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says the intensive system employed at the training camps develops good soldiers very rapidly, and many young men who knew nothing at all about military science a few months ago are now regular marines.

Well Protected
First Friend—Do you have good police protection out your way?
Second Friend—Do we? Well, I should say so. We have the prettiest servant girl in the town.

—Rochester (N.Y.) Post-Express.
DOESN'T HE KNOW BETTER?

—Rogers, in Wheeling (W. Va.) Intelligencer.
