

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

PICTORIAL SECTION

BRYN MAWR WOMEN HARVEST CORN CROP AS PATRIOTIC DUTY—OTHER NEWS PHOTOGRAPHS

Photo from Food Administration.
MAKE A CAKE OF SOAP AND "HELP WIN THE WAR!"
The Food Administration has extended its campaign of conservation to the utilization of meat drippings in the making of soap, which is being demonstrated by Mrs. O. O. van den Berg, of Washington.

MISS CATHERINE BRYANT (RIGHT), SECRETARY MAIN LINE CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION, WITH A FAIR ASSISTANT, ON THE COLLINS ESTATE

Copyright Harris & Ewing.
GENERAL JOHN PERSHING GODFATHER TO A CHRYSANTHEMUM
The above specimen, one of the most popular exhibits in the botanical garden show at Washington, bears the name of the leader of America's overseas army.

PATRIOTIC BRYN MAWR WOMAN "LEND A HAND" WITH THE HARVEST
Miss Ethel Townsend, who helped garner the golden ears of corn on the Alfred M. Collins estate at Bryn Mawr.

KEITH'S GIRL USHERS IN THEIR "ANNIVERSARY-WEEK" UNIFORMS
The Chestnut street vaudeville house is celebrating its fifteenth anniversary, in honor of which each of the young women ushers has been fitted out with an attractive new garb.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
FRENCHMAN WHO CAPTURED A ZEPPELIN AND ITS CREW
With no other weapon than his shotgun, M. Borteu held the crew of one of the German airships which recently descended in France until a patrol arrived and took them captive.

CHRISTENSON, STURDY CENTER ON THE NORTH-EAST HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN