POLICEMAN ACCUSED BY MAN AND WIFE

Restaurant Proprietor, Held for Assault, Says Vice Squad Man Hit Him

Samuel Amy, of 1227 Stiles street, who keeps a restaurant at 1111 Poplar street, was arraigned in Central Station police court this morning on a charge of assault, and in defense to the charge alleged that and in defense to the charts alreged that he was the person who had been beaten up and his wife insulted by Jacob Greenwald, a member of the police vice squad, and that the attack on him was wholly improvoked His testimony was corroborated by his wife, Mary Amy, but was denied by Greenwald.

According to Amy's testimony, it is his clock every night and to walk home with his wife, who helps him at his place of business, carrying the day's receipts with For his protection against possible ateks by footpads he carries a blackjack. Last night. Amy testified, it was neces-sary for him to go back to the restaurant after he had left, and his wife walked ahead slowly, so that he might overtake her. As he left the restaurant the second time he heard his wife calling to him, and when be reached her side she told him that when be reached her side she told him that a man had just insulted her. He tried to quiet her fears, and they were walking on basether in the direction of their home, when Greenwald came up behind him, tripped him and pushed in between him and

PLAN TO DO MEN'S WORK

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 16.
America's third line of defense is standing at attention. It is the women.
Plans are taking form in several cities for mobilization of an army one million strong, under the name of the "Woman's National Home Guard."
"We are not a 'Legion of Death'—yet."
Mrs. Anita Calvert Le Bourgois, lawyer and founder of the movement, said today, "We are the generals behind the lines, but we will get into the actual fighting later if the will get into the actual fighting later if the Government will take us. The women wan to fight."

In their oath of membership the we pledge to Uncle Sam not only their lives, but their homes and fortunes.

They will seek Pederal recognition, carry guns and wear trousers—regulation army knee trousers—tucked into leather putters. Their uniforms are to be of brown cordured patterned after those worn by aviators.

As a neucleus of the million enrollment 1000 Missouri women, mostly recruited from fashionable St. Louis homes, are organized nd partially equipped, according to Mrs.

Le Bourgois.

"While many of our members will begu raining for the aviation corps and home guard work at once, we expect to center our energies in teaching women men's trades, so that the men may be released for fighting service," she said. "We have appiled to Washington for an army officer to drill us. From our one thousand we ex-pect to get our instructors for training schools to be established in Detroft. "The attack in the Giudicaria, although delivered with great violence in mass formation and preceded by intense artiflery fire, have been successfully repulsed," the cables stated. "The conduct of the enemy reveals his ambitious scheme for communication between the Brenta River and the Piave through the Sette Comuni and Val-sugana, which are being frustrated by elaborate maneuvers of the Italian troop conformity with the Italians' general stra-tegic situation."

The enemy is continuing a campaign of disintegration against the Italian army and the Italian people by trying to give to the world the impression that Italy is militarily and politically incapable of resisting the Austro-German pressure, the dispatches add. To such insinuations Italy opposes an ad-

Wool Made From Basalt

An American firm operating in Australia has started works near Melbourne for turning the local basalt into "mineral weel" for use as an insulator in packing machinery and ice chests and as a substitute for as-bestos. The basalt is melted down with a proportion of freestone and limestone and then steam, at an immensa pressure, is forced through the fluid.

TWO KILLED BY BLAST WHEN ROCHESTER SANK

Admiral Sims Reports Twenty-two Rescued Five Days After Steamship Is Torpedoed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The German torpedo which sank the American steamship Rochester killed Second Engineer Sondau and an oller named Anderson, Vice Admiral Sims cabled the Navy Department the first complete story of the sinking. The Navy Department issued this state-

A dispatch from Admiral Sims states when the steamship Rochester was torpedoed and sunk November 2 forty-seven of the crew and armed guard escaped in three boats. Second Engineer Sondau and Oiler Anderson were killed by the explosion. Five days later a British patrol versel rescued one boat containing Captain Fric Kokeritz, sixteen of his crew and five members of the naval gun crew —Chief Boatswain's Mate Edward My-Causland, W. B. Thompson, Thuddens Fellows and William Eisenbardt, seamen, second class, and William Foulia, sunner's mate, second class, Two other boats, Admiral Sims is informed, reached shore safely.

Educator Says No Changes Have Beer Made in German System

MILFORD. Del., Nov. 16.—"Germany is the only country in Europe concerned in the present war which is educating its children along the same lines as before the war," according to Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, who spoke before the Kent and Sussex County Teachers' Institute in Milford. He urged the public schools to maintain their work in full vigor.

He described an attempt in Nebraska to stop school and let the children help in the fields, an experiment which is proving unsuccessful and which is allowing the children to run the streets instead of keeping them in schools. The speaker of the afternoon was Professor Smith Burnham, of the West Chester State Normal School, Pa.
