RECRUITING STATION 'COME IN'

Declaring there is opportunity for every man of high ideals to lead America's boyhood through the Boy Scout movement, members of that organization, as shown above, are appealing to Philadelphians at various places about the city to volunteer their services.

LAUNCH MOVE TO CUT WAR-PRODUCT PRICES

Co-operation Between Field and Factory Is Urged at Buffalo

FARM CHIEF IN APPEAL

President Townley Pleads for United Fight on Middlemen and Profiteers

BUFFALO, Nov. 16. The Farmers' Nonpartisan League today invited organized labor, in convention here, to join it in putting field and factory war products on the market at lower prices and in greater quantities.

The invitation was extended in a snatching speech by President A. C. Townley, of the league, to whom the 400 Federation of Labor delegates listened pending completion of their detailed war program in committee.

President Townley also pointed out the political advantages of such a coalition. "Let the two great classes of producers join hands behind the Government in this war," he pleaded.

"Let us wipe out the middlemen. Let us put down the profiteer. We would find it a surprisingly short time that our people at home will be better and more economically fed, our forces at the front better and more economically equipped."

Turning to the political aspect he said: "Remember that this would be no mean coalition. The farmers of this country represent 37 per cent. labor 55 per cent. of the nation's voting strength."

The speech inaugurated a whirlwind tour of the east by Townley, who comes to Philadelphia as the league's headquarters in St. Paul to boost his politico-agricultural organization.

Committees now in conference have more than 110 resolutions before them. Several bitterly denounced the postal censorship on newspapers. Not one refers to conscription of wealth.

One which promises to end a fight on the floor the convention proposes that no worker be accepted in the Federation who is not a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention.

Sponsors say it is directed against alien enemies, however, assert it is directed against 1,000,000 non-citizen Mexican metal miners. There are a number of these mines in use before the convention, but its general policy "to stand solidly behind the Government in the war" is cut and dried. Pacifists and anti-war Socialists have disappeared.

The convention has resolved itself into a committee on ways and means to help to win the war. Combined with this is a broad, forwarding policy, aimed to give labor its full share in the world's peace plans.

The biggest development is the proposition now being threshed out of sending an American labor commission to Europe to "Colon House" the situation from an industrial and political standpoint. That this may result in an international coalition cabinet of world labor leaders is believed possible.

MEXICO TO ADJUST REBELLION CLAIMS

Preparing Plan for Commission to Act on Foreign Losses of 1910

PROVIDE FOR AN UMPIRE

Records of American Bills in 1866 Leave Poor Hope of Collection

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. Mexico is preparing to adjudicate the claims of citizens of other countries against the Mexican Government growing out of the revolution of 1910 and during the time of the Huerta regime. The Secretary of the Treasury of Mexico has prepared a plan to establish a claims commission to consider such claims and will present it to the Council of Ministers and then to President Carranza for approval, it was learned today.

It is proposed that all international claims shall be submitted to this commission and if claimants are dissatisfied with its findings the matter shall be laid before an arbitration commission of two persons—one to represent the Government and one the claimant. In case they fail to agree, a third member is to be selected from some country having no claim against Mexico, and his decision shall be final.

The record of a similar commission appointed in 1866 to adjust claims does not hold much encouragement for injured Americans or citizens of other countries. The British minister to Washington was the umpire then. Americans filed 1017 claims, aggregating $170,126,613, 831 being rejected. The total award to Americans was $4,125,622, or less than one per cent. Subsequently the Mexican Government, after paying one installment, presented proof that two of the largest claims awarded, amounting to $1,168,851, were fraudulent and had been supported by false statements. The Secretary of the Treasury of Mexico has issued a statement showing that the entire bonded and interest indebtedness of Mexico is $423,400,000, or $211,823,303 American money, a ratio of $15 per capita, which is below the average of the other nations.

MASKED BANDITS SHOOT MAN AND HIS DAUGHTER

Four Lads Charged With Crime in Attempting to Rob Altona Store

ALTONA, Pa., Nov. 16. George Conrad, eighteen, and George Moorehouse, seventeen, were arrested early today charged with being the masked bandits who last night entered the grocery store of David Parish, seventy-two, and were caught in the act of robbery, shot Parish above the left eye and his daughter Nellie, twenty-four, through the left hand. Willis Fisher, eighteen, and John Cree, seventeen, were arrested as accessories before the fact. Fisher stood guard outside. Cree gave the boy bandits his revolver. All four have signed confessions. Conrad and Moorehouse, with handkerchiefs tied over their faces, entered the Parish store in a quiet residential section, at 5 o'clock last night, when Nellie Parish was in charge. She screamed and fled to the living apartments in the rear. A shot passed through the palm of her left hand. Her father came to the rescue, and as he stepped into the store, the other robber fired, the bullet laying open the flesh above his left eye. Then the bandits proceeded to beat their victims into unconsciousness with the butts of their revolvers. Meanwhile the shooting had attracted attention, and the neighbors were hurrying to the store. The boys fled, missing several hundred dollars in the cash register, which they did not have time to get. Chief of Police Tillard put every available policeman on the case. With a brown cap lost in the scuffle in the store as a clue, he finally arrested Conrad, finding the lad in bed with a revolver under his pillow. Conrad "squealed." Moorehouse was also found in bed with a revolver under his pillow. The other two were apprehended at their homes.

The fur situation is indeed acute—prices are continually going higher and skins are getting more scarce every day.

The value of our stock today is constantly increasing—still we are underselling the lowest prices of our competitors. This is due to our immense purchases of last Spring and the manufacturing of our own skins when labor costs were very low during the summer.
