PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1917

COPTRIGHT, 1917, BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY

PRICE TWO CENTS

TEUTONS HURLED BACK AFTER CROSSING PIAVE

MICHIGAN'S HEAVY LINE CHECKS BERRY'S EFFORT TO SCORE

The superior weight of the Maize and Blue linesmen over their adversaries was demonstrated in today's game on Franklin Field when Howard Berry, carrying the ball for Penn, was downed in an attempt to buck the Michigan defense. Although outweighed, the Red and Blue team early in the game showed it was not outmatched by its western antagonists. Berry amply atoned later for his early failure to reach the Michigan goal line. He kicked two from the field for Penn's first points.

FIRM STAND AS FOE ATTACKS

Severe Losses Inflicted Upon Austro-German Troops

FOE FAILS TO HOLD PASSAGE AT RIVER

BERLIN, Nov. 17. "In spite of the cold and snow, the Austrians indefatigably climbed Monte Prasolano, overcame a stubborn Italian regarding the fighting on the northern end of the Italian line.

ROME, Nov. 17. After forcing passage of the Piave River between Salettuolo and Sante Andrea di Barbarano, enemy troops were driven back across the stream, suffering heavy losses, it was officially announced today.

The Teuton attack and repulse by Italian troops occurred last evening. During the Italian retreat preceding the stand now being made Italian naval forces greatly retarded Teuton progress in the defenders' right wing, the statement said. Shore batteries and Italian seaplanes pulsed five enemy destroyers before

With both their land and sea forces, the itish are lending aid to Italy in its hour of need. Along the Playe battle front British artillery is now in action, while British light-draft monitors are operating against the German-Austrian troops in the marshes of Vecchia, striving to hold back the Teu-tonic invaders from Venice. Manning their guns with machinelike pre-cision, the British soldiers have caused cision, the British soldiers have have to the enemy's plan for an advance.

Observers reported great gaps torn in the Austro-German lines by the deadly rain of the shalls. shells. At many points the British fire has paralyzed the enemy's offensive scheme. The Teutonic artillery is outranged by these British guns. A wilderness of mud along the front, coupled with lack of adequate bridges across the Livenza and Tarliamento, has forced the enemy for the most part to rely on five-inch field guns. Most part to rely on five-inch field guns. Many of these have been silenced by the British batteries batteries.

announcement of British co-opera-The announcement of British co-operation came from the front today, with the additional encouraging news that everywhere the Italian line was holding strongly.
A flerce artillery duel is sweeping along the whole fifty-mile front of the Plave and the northern fringe of the Alps.
In the mountainous land the Italians are boiding desnerately. Dispatches reported solding desperately. Dispatches reported this army literally battling inch by inch with the Austrians and holding them sufficiently to give every evidence of ulti-mate defeat of the enemy's attempt at mate defeat of the enemy's attempt at turning the Plave River line.

It is declared if the present front can be maintained for a few days more the worst danger to the line will have been passed. By that time, it was estimated, the full strength of the British and French troops and guns will be felt.

Only the Allies' artillery has so far been entered in the Plave line battle. The Allied infantry forces are arriving hourly by train and foot. Large units of French troops, too impatient to await steam transportation, marched across the Alpine passes, which are deep in snow. Touchdown for Penn—Cleary, Goal after touchdown for Penn—Berry, Goals frum field for Penn—Berry, S. Substitutions for Penn— Rosenau for Stranss; Oulcies for Bell, For Michl-can—Genebach for Weston; Sparks for Gene-bach; Cruse for Cohn.

17.—Howard Berry went wild this after-noon. That tells the story of Pennsyl-vania's magnificent 16-to-0 victory over the high-toned Michigan eleven on Frank-lin Field. It was the seventh win for the Red and Blue in thirteen games. The westerners have won four contests and two have hear ited.

ortation, marched across the Alpine passes, thich are deep in snow.

The British and French troops, arriving a the best of spirits, brought large numbers of field and siege guns with them.

Overtopping the sentimental fear for femice were the cold military facts of the Italian at the other end of the Italian lies. The desperation of the Italian defense has made the battle a costly one for Austrians. They have only succeeded francing four miles into Italian terri-In Field. It was the seventh win for the Red and Blue in thirteen games. The westerners have won four contests and two have been tied.

Three field goals, two of which were from seemingly impossible angles, and a goal from touchdown was the harvest that leader's baton decorated with a bunch of red and blue ribbons, brought rounds of applause as it paraded around the field before the game. Penn's four cheer leaders all in the white uniforms of naval residences the scoring that was credited to the patriotic flavor of the scene.

Old Wolvarine "grads" cheered, lustily in the north shorts, giving back the cheere

ITALIANS MAKE BRITISH SHIPS SAVAGE BLOWS ARMY DESERTS FORCE GERMAN CRAFT TO FLEE

German Flotilla Engaged by Light Forces in Helgoland Bight

FOE QUICKLY RETIRES RAIDS ON FRENCH FRONT

LONDON, Nov. 17. British light naval forces met and forced German light forces in Helgoland Bight to flee, the Admiralty announced today. The British ships engaged the enemy fense and captured 800 of the en- early this morning. The Germans reemy," said today's official statement tired. They were closely and speedily chased by the British.

> Helgoland Bight is the waters around the island of Helgoland, Germany's strong fortress in the North Sea. The bight was the scene of the first naval engagement of the war, when a British cruiser squadron defeated a German flotilla.

GERMAN SUSPECT CAUGHT

York Employe Accused of Making Seditious Remarks

YORK, Pa., Nov. 17.-Rudolph Kroschmitz, twenty years old, believed to be an escaped interned German sailor, was arrested by the police here today for making seditious remarks. He was employed at the Eiseniour factory and is alleged to have threatened to blow up the York postoffice.

Kroschmitz admits being a German Socialist. The papers found on him included a German code. The Federal Department of Justice will conduct an investigation.

Spite German artillery preparation.

Southeast of St. Quentin a successful French raid was reported.

In the Champagne, Wocvre and Upper Alsace the War Office reported artillerying.

Kicks Three Goals

From Field in

Fine Game

left end left tackle left mard center right mard right tackle right end quarterback left halfback right balfback fullback

Referee Tufts, Brown, Umnirs - Fultz, trown, Field Judge Okeson, Lehigh, Head mesman-Councy, Vale, Time of periods-Fif-

FRANKLIN FIELD, Philadelphia, Nov.

BERRY'S BRILLIANT PLAYING HELPS

Red and Blue Fullback Open Play Features En-

STRAUS ORDERED OUT 20,000 WITNESS GAME

ON RIDGE LINE

British Strike Once More in Neighborhood of Passchendaele

LONDON, Nov. 17. Field Marshal Haig struck savagely and successfully again late yesterday around Passchendaele, he announced today. "In the neighborhood of Passchendaele a successful operation was carried out late yesterday," Haig reported.

"Further portions of the enemy defenses on the main ridge north of the village, including a strongly fortified farm adjoining, were captured. A number were made prisoners." Further progress for the French north of the Aisne, where the enemy retired recently from a considerable stretch of coun-

A German official statement admits the Allette River has been crossed. This indi-cates the French may be nearer to a drive toward Laon than had generally been be-

Von Ludendorff says the crossing of the Allette was accomplished by the French ir an early morning fog. The French as saulted the German advanced positions, but were driven off, he declares.

PARIS, Nov. 17. Artillerying and increased raiding activity was all the fighting reported in to-day's official signment. A German raid was repulsed at Cortron, on the Alsne, degagement Between

Quakers and Wolverines

FRANKLIN FIELD, Nov. 17.
For the first two quarters of the game, the Penn and Michigan teams battled today with neither scoring and with neither team showing what could be called a marked shade

Nothing in the first two periods gave in dication of the Woverines' supposed edge over the Quakers but, if anything, the Penn team showed more flashes of individual britllance. Berry's three runs for 10 and 11 yards each were more spectacular than any-thing developed by the westerners.

Toward the end of the half a punting duel took place between Berry and Weiman, and, although the whistle blew with the ball on Penn's 20-yard line, its location was only due to the fact that the Wolverines had punted last.

The Pennsylvania stands were mightily cheered by the standard of the work of the pennsylvania stands were mightily cheered by the standard of the standard of

The Pennsylvania stands were mightily cheered by their team's stubborn resistance to Michigan's heavier and supposedly stronger team. Play by play. Penn gained as much through the line as Michigan. The yellow chrysanthemum of the Michof superiority over the other.

FRANKLIN FIELD, Nov. 17.

DEALT BY HAIG KERENSKY; REDS IN FULL POWER

Russian Premier Deposed by His Own Officers

PETROGRAD QUIET; STREET FIGHTS END

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.

Delayed Petrograd messages to the State Department this afternoon said the Socialist faction had agreed on a compromise Ministry, composed exclusively of Socialists, including some Bolsheviki. The Bolsheviki were still in control of Petrograd. Another message added that no Americans had been injured and that the only armed resistance offered to the Bolsheviki was by the students and the women's battalion.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 16 (delayed). With Premier Kerensky deserted and deosed by his officers, a fugitive, bloody fighting was succeeded by negotiation for a compromise government today. Kerensky's whereabouts is unknown.

Negotiations are in progress between the Maximalists and the moderate Socialist leaders. Three days ago the plan for a coalition was broached. The Bolsheviki or Maximalists have so far produced a deadlock in the situation by demanding the most liberal representation of all political factions in the ministry of the proposed gov ernment.

The new congress called by the Bolsheviki is due to meet next Tuesday.

KERENSKY'S FATE SEALED Kerensky's 'fate was sealed when his principal officers virtually ordered him to PENN CRUSH MICHIGAN BY 16 TO 0 surrender to the Bolsheviki, after the provisional Government force had been driven back from Petrograd. .

Kerensky, when told that his officers were against him and that his men were on the point of deserting, agreed to come to Petro-grad, but while a guard was being arranged he dropped out of sight.

"At 3 o'clock on the afternoon of November 14 called the quarters of the commander-in-chief." said General Krasnoff. who was Kerensky's chief lieutenant, "He appeared nervous and excited.
"General, said he, you have betrayed Your Cossacks say they will arrest me and give me up to the sailors."

"Yes,' I answered, 'such a discussion is now going on. There appears' to be little sympathy for you."
"Do the officers feel the same way?" he asked.

"What shall I do? Will I have to com nit syicide?"
"'If you are an honest man you will go Continued on Page Eleven, Column Five

BRITISH TRAP TURKS: WIPE OUT NEARLY 800 Allenby Seizes Ridge South of Ramleh

in Advance on Jerusalem LONDON, Nov. 17.—A trapped Turkish force of nearly 800 men was nearly wiped out by the British approaching Jerusalem Thursday, it was officially announced today. The British seized Abushusheh ridge, five miles southeast of Ramleh. In the attack 431 Turks were killed and 260 surrendered.

nany of them wounded. Auto Hits Telegraph Pole
An automobile driven by George S. Lutz. of 3947 Ridge avenue, coll'ded with a telegraph pole on Woodland avenue just east of Fifty-seventh street, at 2:45 o'clock this morning and was wrecked. According to Lutz, the accident was due to the giving way of the steering unuckle, which was a Auto Hits Telegraph Pole

LATEST SPORTS

FOOTB	ALL SCOR	ES
0	0	6	10-16
0	0	0	0 0
0	o	0	6- 6
0	6	7	14-27
12	7	0	0 - 19
0	0	0	7-17
. 7	0	13	7-27
7	0	C	0-7
	0 0 0 0 12 0	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

WEST VA.	. 0	7	0	0-7	LEHIGH 6	7	14	7-34	Ł
W. AND J	. 0	0	0	0- 0	P. M. C 0	6	0	0- 6	ì
PITTSB'GH.	. 7	7	6	7-27	COLUMBIA 0	0	0	0	0
CARNEGIET	. 0	0	0	0-0	WESLEYAN. 0	0	0	6 6	3
ARMY	16	13	7	14-50	SWARTHM'E 0	0	0	-
LEB'ON VAI	. 0	0	0	0- 0	DELAWARE 0	0	13	-
NAVY	14	19	28	14-80	HAVERFO'D. 0	0	0	0- (0
VIL'ANOVA	. 3	0	0	0- 3	JNO. HOPK 0	0	0	0- 0	0
STATE	. 7	15	7	-	N. Y. UNIV 0	0	6	0- 0	6
MD. STATE	. 0	0	0	1,	STEVENS 0	6	0	0- (6
LAFAYET'E	. 7	6	13	9-42	GETTYSB'G. 6	0	0	0 (G
ALBRIGHT.	. 0	0	0	0-0	BUCKNELL. 0	0	6	0-	C
MARINES	. 0	0	0	0 0	HOLY CROS 20	13	0	7-40	0
RUTGERS	. 7	6	7	7-27	T. R. I 13	0	0	0-1	2

ı	AMBL. COR. 0		_1	244	F. AND M	0	0		-
	SP'GF'D T. S. 0		•	-	URSINUS	7	3
	AMHERST			-	CP. MEADE	0	0	0	-
	WILLIAMS	+			CONCH. A. C.	0	0	0	-
	TUFTS 13	7	7	0 27	O. STATE	3	0		-
1	DART'M'TH. 0				ILLINOIS	0	0		-
	ANDOVER 0			-	NORWES'N.	0			-
	EXETER 0	× 1		7	10WA	0			-
į	INDIANS 0				HARVARD F	0	0	0	0-0
	GEORGIA T28			-	YALE FR'SH	7	0	0	7-14
	ST. JOSEPH. 0	0	0	0 0	CHICAGO	0	0		-2
	LA SALLE 6	0	0	0 - 6	MIN'ESOTA.	7	7		-
	RADNOR H., 0	7	0	7-14	CAMDEN H.	0	13		-
	L. MERION., 6	0	0	0- 6	ATL, CITY H.	0	0		_

AGREE ON WAGE INCREASE FOR MINERS

. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 .- The joint anthracite conference this afternoon reached an agreement on a wage increase for miners and submitted it to Fuel Administrator Garfield. Besides providing for an advance of 25 to 30 per cent over the scale of April 1, 1916, the settlement asked Garfield for a "compensatory increase" in the operators' mine price of anthracite. Garfield took the settlement under

BABY KILLED BY TROLLEY

As she attempted to cross the street in front of her home Catharine Fenney, two years old, of 1004 South Second street, was struck by a trolley car and instantly killed.

GRANTS WRIT TO RELEASE SUFFRAGISTS

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 17 .- Judge Waddell, of the United States District Court this afternoon granted the writ of habeas corpus in the case of the thirty White House pickets now in prison because of failure to pay fines. The writ is returnable in Alexandria November 27.

BOY CRUSHED TO DEATH BY AUTOTRUCK

John Brinces, twelve years old, of 633 De Lancey street, was struck by an automobile truck at Fifth and Ludlow streets this afternoon and died while being rushed to the Jefferson Hospital. According to witnesses, the boy darted directly in the path of the truck. The driver, Thomas Clancey, twenty-two years old, 1642 Olive street, was arrested and taken to City Hall. He will have a hearing later in the day

FATALLY SQUEEZED BY FREIGHT CARS

Roland Coot, twenty-five years old, 2931 Ruth street, an employe of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company, was crushed to death at Delaware avenue and Callowhill street today. According to the police, Coot went between two freight cars to couple an airbrake hose and the cars came together, crushing him to death.

RUN THROUGH TRAIN, ST. LOUIS TO BOSTON

For the first time in the history of the country there will be direct train co nection with New England by an all-rail route through New York from St. Louis Soston beginning next Saturday. Announcement to this effect was made today by the Pennsylvania Railroad which, with the New York, New Haven and Hartford. will inaugurate the through-train service. These systems will use the Hell Gate bridge route through New York city. One train will be operated daily in each

PLEASURE AUTO OUTPUT TO BE CUT 40 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 .- Manufacture of pleasure automobiles will be cut lown 40 per cent in sixty days, officials estimated today. If possible to find immediate war uses for numerous plants, the transition of the factories into producers of munitions and materials will be even more rapid. The auto industry committee, headed by Hugh Chalmers, is advising manufacturers to be prepared to go entirely out of the pleasure car business if the war lasts another year or two. Well-known automobile heads are soon to take Government war jobs.

FINDS CURBING PACKERS' PROFITS SLOW JOB

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Slow progress was reported by Joseph P. Cotton, head of

"JIM" M'NICHOL BORNE TO TOMB IN SOLEMN POMP

Impressive Scene in Cathedral Marks Last Rites for Political Leader

WIDOW FAINTS AT GRAVE

Six Sons, Three in Uniform, Act as Pallbearers-Priests Tender Eulogy

By M'LISS

James P. McNichol, State Senator, litical leader and the friend of a hundred thousand men, was put to rest today. With all the ceremony and pomp that the Cathohe Church has at its command, the man, the essential characteristic of whose greatness was his very simplicity, was mourned and culogized.

nees was his very simplicity, was mourned and eulogized.

Because even great cathedrals are not built to hold cityfuls of people, there was a limitation to the numbers who jammed the pews, the aisles, the sacristy the chancel and the veatibules of the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul, but surveying that vast edifice with its motley throng it seemed that the very cream and scum of the city had gathered together to pay this last tribute to "Sunny Jim."

Men who are accredited with holding the destiny of the Commonwealth in their fands knelt with laborers in hobnailed boots and toil-grimed clothes. Women in sables bowed with their more lowly sisters.

As the unadorned casket bearing the body of McNichol was carried up the aisle by his six sons a poignant hush fell over the assemblage, that was piercing in its intensity. Then the great organ let loose a flood of solemn music, the tension broke and the murmur of a thousand whispers swept over murmur of a thousand whispers swept over

FAMILY PRIVACIES UNREGARDED "See the three sons in uniform on the

"The two little boys in front of the coffin? They are his young sons. Yes, there "Watch how Senator Penrose takes it."
"There's Bill Vare."

"There's Bill Vare."
"Hero come the two daughters by his first wife. They're with his widow. They say she's all in."
The family of a man whose life has been as public as Jim McNichol's can expect to maintain few privacles.
The heautiful young widow of the dead.

been as public as Jim McNichol's can expect to maintain few privacies.

The beautiful young widow of the dead man, who before her marriage to him was the head nurse at the Philadelphia General Hospital, was led to the family pew by Miss Helen and Miss Agnes McNichol, her young stepdaughters.

Behind impenetrable vells they hid their grief. Mrs. McNichol, however, was not successful in shielding her sorrow entirely from the public eye. It showed itself in the stoop of her shoulders, which was that of an old and grief-stricken wornan; is showed itself in her convulsive twitchings when Monsignor Kieran, reviewing the public and private life of her head husband, paid him impressive tribute.

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course. I have kept the faith," the Monsignor took as his text.

PENROSE'S QUIET GRIEF

PENROSE'S QUIET GRIEF

Throughout the eulogy Boles Penro Nichol's in the history of the factions of Nichol's in the history of the factions of the city and State, kept his eyes glued to the spot where the last that was physical of "Sunny Jim" lay. Others turned in their seats to gaze at the speaker in the pulpit, which is at the right side of the cathedral. Not Pearose. From the moment of his ar-rival, some time before the opening of the doors for the funeral procession, he seemed sunk in meditation. Absently, almost sulently, it appeared, he took an aisle seat in a pew not a hand's reach away from the place where the casket was to be placed. Absently, almost sullently, he let men of high degree crawl over his huge bulk. He spoke to no one, greeted no one, but followed the various ceremonies, genuficated, knelt, stood and sat, mechanically following the movements of those around hime. Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congressman Congressman Front of Senator Penerotal Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congressman William S. Vare sat in the pew immediately in front of Senator Penerotal Congress and Co oors for the funeral procession, he seemed pew immediately in front of Senator Pen-rose, and to the left of the former were Judges Rogers and Patterson, who arrived by way of the chancel long before the great bronze doors were thrown wide for he public.

Behind them sat the whole hierarchy of Pennsylvania's political world. Pew after pew of distinguished men, State Senators and Representatives, men of wealth, men of brains and achievement.

brains and achievement.

The organ rolled out the "Ave Maria"; hundreds of tapers burned to heaven; the rich purple of the bishopry mingled with the black and white of the many priesta and the innumerable little altar boys; various orders of nuns. in their picturesque garbs, prayed quietly over their beads; the garos, prayed quiety over their beam of the proletariat filling the remainder of the great building wept and whispered and prayed. And over all the sunlight, strained into colorful ribbons, through the stained-glass windows threw its magic light. BORNE TO LAST RESTING PLACE

It was thus that Sunny Jim received the last earthly rites and ceremonies before being borne away to the mausoleum that had been prepared for him at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

The casket was borne on foot from the home of his eldest son William, at 1627 Race street where the political leader died, to the Cathedral.

It was placed in the hearse by the six eldest sons of the late Senator, who acted

Continued on Page Twelve, Column Two

THE WEATHER

FORECAST

For Philadelphia and vicinity: Fair tonight and Sunday: not much change to temperature; gentle westerly winds.

LENGTH OF DAY

FIRST. 6:47 a. in. | Sun sels. 4:42 a. m.

DELAWARE RIVER TIDE CHANGES

CHESTNUT STREET High water, 3.07 a. m. High water, 4:23 p. m. Low water, 10:22 a. m. Low water, 11:07 p. TEMPERATURE AT EACH HOUS 8 9 10 11 12 1 2 3 4 42 45 46 48 51 56 54 85 88

"THE AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF A PENNSYLVANIAN

The Life Story of

Goternor Pennypack Appearing in daily installment begins on Page 13 of