MERION BOY SCOUTS CHALLENGE ALL RIVALS

'Match Us if You Can," Their Slogan in Y. M. C. A. War Fund and Liberty Bond Campaigns

The Boy Scouts of Merion, inspired by the confidence that their remarkable work has given them, have issued a defi to any like organization in the country in the form of the slogan, "Match Us If You Can."

Their broad challenge is based upon the fact that, single-handed, they raised $196,-200 in subscriptions for the second Liberty Loan solely through their individual efforts, and that since the campaign began to raise money for the Y. M. C. A. they have so far raised $20,000, which, according to the enthustastic comments of the youngsters themselves, is "going some."

Residents of Merion, men big in finance and business, are squarely back of their and business, are squarely back of their Boy Scouts, who, they declare, are "doing their bit" with a vengeance, and the chal-lenge which the hoys have issued to other Boy Scouts meets wholly with the approval of every grown-up in that suburb.

What they have accomplished has been done in Merion alone and it has been brought about through the result of perfect organization and co-operative work under the direction of their outmaster, Thomas Dunn Belfield. Every morning the boys, who range from twelve to fifteen years of age, gather at Merion station before school to meet Mr. Reifield, where together they plan their work for the day. The boys composing the Merion unit are Joseph's Hospital. He was sixty-one years R Lineaweaver, William Dohan, E. C. Dear-don, Jr., Donald Darby, Carey Bok, Wil-liam Brooks, James McAbee, Albert Mcold. He was the only Democratic member
