You might question the delightful, because it is going to be a talk about the French front, and it's bound to have many terrible details, but it certainly will be interesting and a womderful opportunity to hear Aector Mac-Quarrie, B. VESTERDAY came invitations to the Saturday Club, And for the benefit of the American soldiers in France! Naturally I wondered what this Saturday Club is, and so I asked and found out. There are to be eight meetings and they are to take place at the Bellevue-Stratford ballroom after 10 o'clock in the evening. There will be dancing and supper. These dances are not the same as the supper club which Mrs. Hutchinson Scott chaperoned at the Bellevue for the last two years. Those were postponed for war reasons.

But this has a different board of managers and a committee of women, and will start earlier in the evening. The meetings will be held December 1, 8 and 15; January 12, 19 and 26, and February 2

It is to be a subscription affair and J. R. Evans Roberts is treasurer of the club. Members will be allowed to bring guests for supper and dancing. The managers include John Bell, Sam Bell, Jr., Ned Browning, Lyman Biddle, J. John Groome, Guy Heckscher, Sidney Hutchand Evans Roberts.

The committee of womer, includes Mrs. Ned Atherton, Mrs. Archibald Barklie. Mrs. Ned Crozer, Mrs. Horry Disston. Mrs. Dal Dixon, Mrs. Boo 1 Conte. Mrs. Dorr Newton, Mrs. James Reed. Mrs. Sam Reeves and Mrs. Evans Roberts. The proceeds of the club will go to the American soldiers in France, so it's a mighty good object, don't you think?

T HEAR Mrs. Thomas Hunter, of Rittenhouse square, has decided to open her home for a large card party to be given on Tuesday afternoon of next week for the benefit of St. Leonard's House. It appears the Sisters of the Holy Child were told some time ago to purchase the two adjoining bouses to their property at Thirty-ainth and Walfat streets, and a gift of the cost would be made to them. Negotiations were started and the houses purchased and just before the gentleman who wished to make this gift to the Convent had settled for the amount his unexpected and sudden death occurred. No provision had been made in his will, as I have been told, and so the sisters were left with the houses on their hands, and as they really need them they have asked the members of their school alumnue to raise $50,000 for the building fund and mortgages due on the property. This is the first time an appeal for money has been made to the aluminae and there has en a generous response. All sorts of entertainments are being planned and carried out, and the card party which Mrs. Junter will have on Tuesday will be for this cause.

AMONG the women who have taken tables for that afternoon are Mrs. James Newman Carter, Miss Adele Tack. Miss Julia Dooley, Mrs. Joseph Edwards, Mrs. Edward Beecher Finck, Mrs. Ignatius Doban, Mrs. John P. Connelly, Mrs. Anthony A. Hirst, Mrs. Joseph Israel. Mrs. Otis Fielding Lewis, Mrs. M. E. H. has been having some very interesting meetings on Monday afternoon of each week. The one held on November 12 was a business meeting, with the usual reports. After these had been read, three important questions were brought up by different members and discussed very earnestly. The members and discussed very earnestly. The first of these problems was whether the social feature of the club meetings should be eliminated entirely or in part, and it was voted that no tea should be served except on service day. This day, by the way, is one that has been set apart every month for the gathering together of the various organizations in the town, such as the Woman's Club, the Red Cross, the Emergency Ald and the Needlework Guild. The second question that came up for discusgency Aid and the Needlework Guild. The second question that came up for discussion at the ciub meeting was whether war and its problems should be brought on the calendar or are women already working so strenuously and thinking so hard about it that they need some relaxation. The women decided that two meetings every month should be set apart for other things. Shall a club which meets every week reduce the number of its meetings was the third question which arose, and the very wise decision was made that it should not. The people of Ridley Park are always eager and willing to give their drafted men the best sort of send-off.
