

Evening Illustrated Ledger

PICTORIAL SECTION

THE DAY'S INTERESTING NEWS HAPPENINGS VIVIDLY PORTRAYED IN A PAGE OF PHOTOGRAPHS

"SPIRIT OF '76" LEADS DRAFTERS TO CAMP MEADE
William Mitler, drummer, and Michael Powers, fifer, marched at the head of the contingent from the twenty-sixth Philadelphia district. William Abrahams, chairman, and Dr. Charles Bricker, of the draft board, are shown in the foreground. Mr. Abrahams furnished uniforms to the draftees.

PHILADELPHIA HORSE LOVERS AT THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN SHOW. LEFT TO RIGHT, MRS. SIDNEY HOLLOWAY, MR. SIDNEY HOLLOWAY, MR. HENRY D. HOLLOWAY AND MRS. HARRY RENWICK

SCHOOL CHILDREN BRING CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR SAMMEES
Mrs. Marie L. Woodruff, head of the Personal Service Bureau at City Hall, is shown receiving the nice things presented by pupils of the Dunlap School.

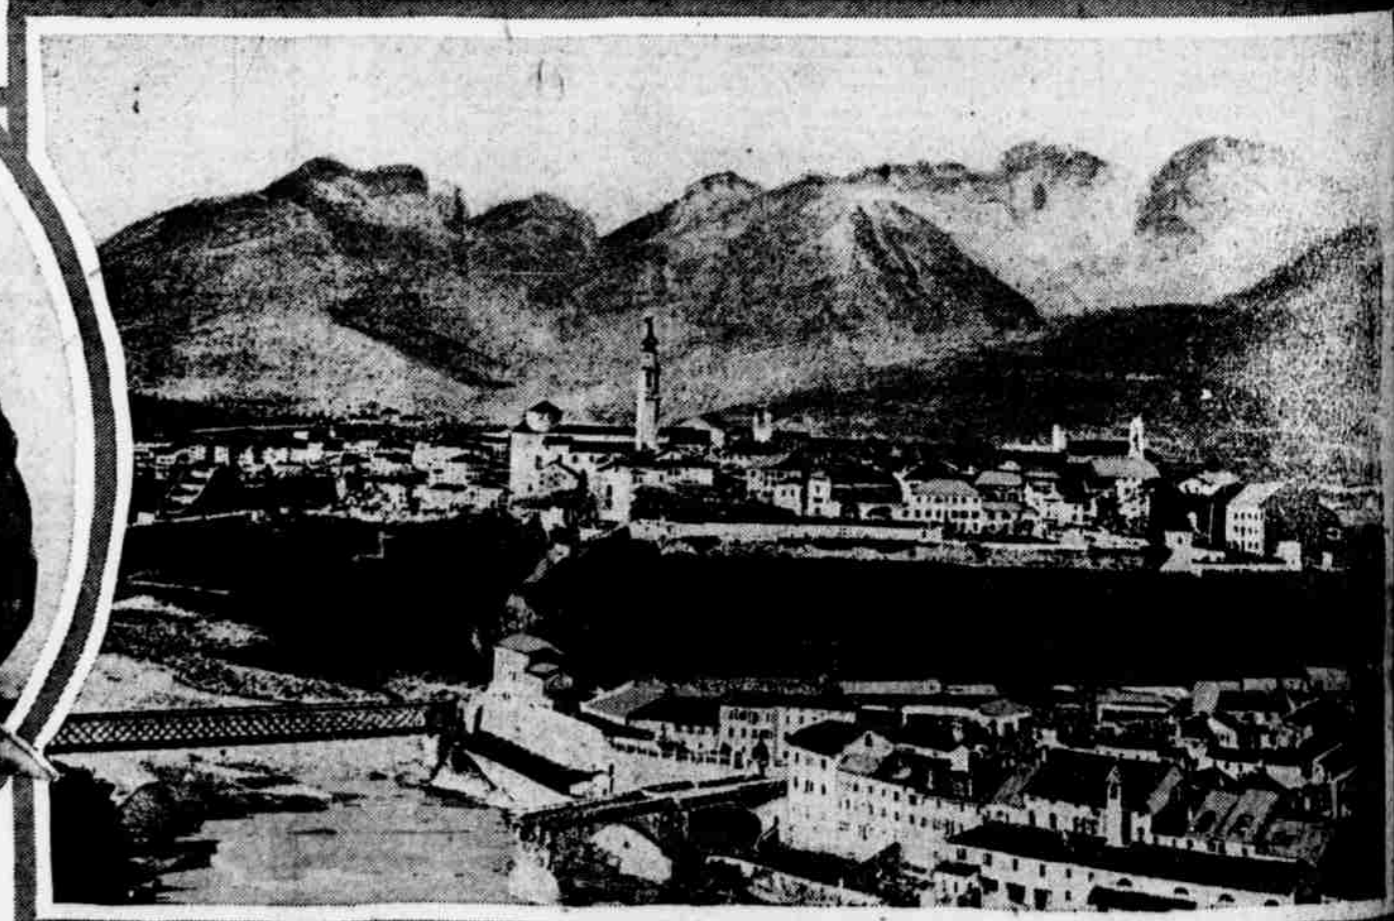

RED CROSS CHRISTMAS KIT FOR A SAMMEE. THOUSANDS OF THESE ARE BEING ASSEMBLED AND PACKED AT THE INDEPENDENCE SQUARE AUXILIARY, AT 608 CHESTNUT STREET

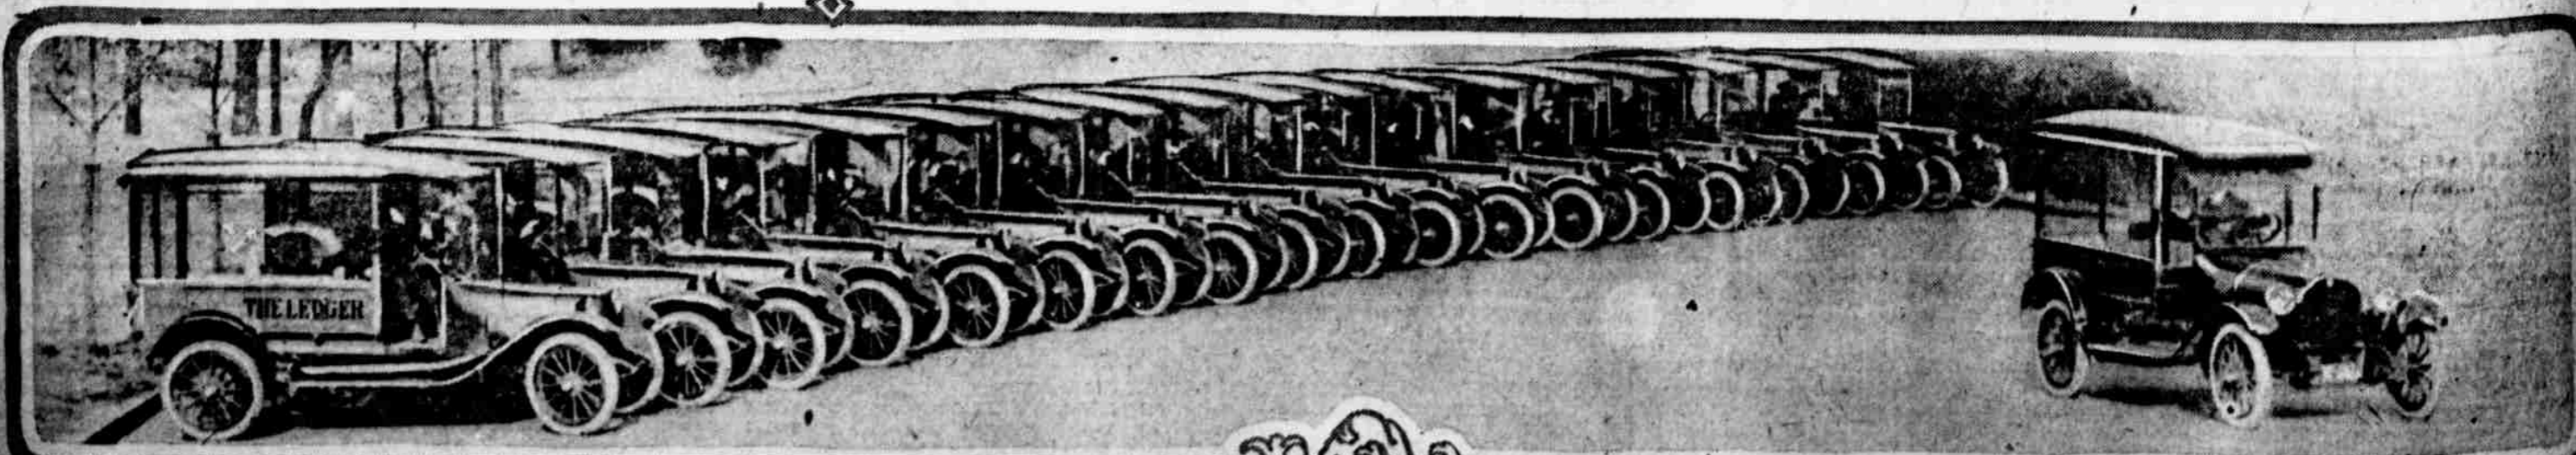

KINGDON GOULD, NOW A CORPORAL IN THE NEW NATIONAL ARMY, AS HE APPEARS ON THE RIFLE RANGE AT CAMP DIX

NEWLY ORGANIZED "CAMOUFLAGE CORPS" DRILLS FOR FIRST TIME
Nearly one-third of this newest unit for the United States army is comprised of Los Angeles moving-picture actors. They are shown with one of the "fake" guns which will be used to draw the Germans' fire.

GENERAL VIEW OF BELLUNO, ITALY, NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE AUSTRO-GERMANS
The quaint little city on the upper Piave fell before the Teuton advance on the Asiago plateau. In the left foreground of the picture are two bridges, one an ancient structure and the other a modern steel viaduct, both of them blown up by the Italians in their retreat.

LATEST ADDITION TO THE LEDGER MOTORTRUCK DELIVERY SERVICE INDICATES THE PASSING OF THE HORSE IN NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION WORK