

PLOT TO RESTORE RUSSIAN DESPOTS

Grand Duke Nicholas Made Chief of Cossacks, Paris Hears

MOSCOW IS MOB RIDDEN

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The Grand Duke Nicholas... The Grand Duke Nicholas... The Grand Duke Nicholas...

BRITISH ARMY ALMOST IN SIGHT OF JERUSALEM

Palestine Drive Reaches Beitur-el-Tahta, Only 12 Miles From Holy City

LONDON, Nov. 20.—British troops are now within twelve miles of Jerusalem... official dispatches today from the Palestine expedition reported the occupation by mounted troops on Sunday of Beitur-el-Tahta, twelve miles northwest of Jerusalem.

HIGH SCHOOL GERMAN TEACHER REINSTATED

West Chester Board Finds Charges of Disloyalty to U. S. Not Substantiated

WEST CHESTER, Nov. 20.—Miss Leona Birkhead, the young woman teacher of German in the High School of this place whose resignation was demanded by the board of directors on November 13, because of her alleged disloyalty to the United States, has been reinstated by the board of directors today.

U.S. HEADQUARTERS STRUCK BY SHELL

Staff Unhurt When German Missile Bursts in Old Chateau

SHRAPNEL KILLS SOLDIER

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS, FRANCE, Nov. 20.—A German shell struck American regimental headquarters today. The staff has been killed in an ancient chateau. There were no casualties.

REPUBLICANS CHOOSE ASSEMBLY LEADERS

Pick Wolverton, of Camden, for Speaker—Pierson Named as Whip

TRENTON, Nov. 20.—At the caucus of Republican Assemblymen here today Charles A. Wolverton, of Camden, was made caucus choice for Speaker of the House; Arthur N. Pierson, leader of the House, and Captain James Parker, Pascale, assistant clerk. A steering committee to arrange for the caucus was organized.

CHARLES A. WOLVERTON, Camden County lawmaker who is the choice of the Republican caucus for Speaker of the next session of the New Jersey House of Assembly.

ARMY TRANSPORT AFIRE AT HOBOKEN

Flames Discovered on Pasters Soon After Arrest of 200 Germans

SHIP SLIGHTLY DAMAGED

HOBOKEN, N. J., Nov. 20.—Fire was discovered on the army transport Pasteros, tied up at the former North German Lloyd dock here, early today. The blaze was brought under control several hours later, after the entire Hoboken fire department and two fire tugs from Manhattan had been called to fight the blaze.

FORMER CZAR MAY LOSE $3,000,000 IN NEW YORK

Transportation Company Attaches Funds Nicholas Left in U. S. Banks

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Three million dollars belonging to Nicholas Romanoff, former Czar of Russia, said to be deposited in his name in several New York city banks, were attached today by Attorney Bernard Naumberg on behalf of the Marine Transportation Company of New York City.

EXEMPT MARRIED MEN, APPEAL BOARD URGES

Recommendations Sent to Crowder for Submission to Congress

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The board of military appeals today recommended that the United States War Department exempt married men from military service.

ITALIANS RETREAT ON PIAVE; VENICE TREMBLES

Continued from Page One

ITALIAN ATTACK WINS GROUND NEAR MELETTE

FIRE NEAR CITY HALL

DR. VON'S HEALTH BISCUIT

SUGAR HITS NEW TOP PRICE

FUEL ADMINISTRATION MAKES SAME PRICE FOR BEE HIVE TO ENCOURAGE PRODUCTION

ANNOUNCE FIXED RATES FOR BY-PRODUCT COKE

INTERN 200 GERMANS IN N. Y.

SOLDIERS RAID HOBOKEN WATERFRONT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The United States fuel administration today announced fixed prices for by-product coke.

ANTHRACITE OPERATORS MUST SUBMIT FIGURES

Pennsylvanians Invited by Garfield to Show Basis for Advance Request

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Anthracite coal operators of Pennsylvania today were invited by Fuel Administrator Garfield to submit facts and figures to substantiate their claim that the Government should advance the price of anthracite coal.

ALLENTOWN RAISES $66,500

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 20.—Allentown closed its campaign to raise $66,500 for the Y. M. C. A. war work fund by making $66,500 in two years. All town has contributed to the fund.

FOLWELL BROTHERS & CO'S BUILDING AFIRE

Engines, Blocked by Automobiles on Chestnut Street, Arrive After Flames Are Subdued

THIEVES GET GROCERIES

Failed in Attempt to Open Safe, They Take Bacon

FIRE NEAR CITY HALL

Office Building of Keystone State Construction Company Is Damaged

The newly erected two-story frame office building of the Keystone State Construction Company, McNichols street, that is building the subway, on the southwest corner of Broad and Filbert streets, was damaged by fire shortly before 7 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by City Hall Guard Koch, who turned in an alarm. Firemen subdued the blaze, which is believed to be caused by crossed electric wires, in a short time. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Nov. 20.—(Going, gone.) Two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

That's what happened here today when two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

INTERN 200 GERMANS IN N. Y. Soldiers raid Hoboken waterfront following President's proclamation

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The first results of President Wilson's proclamation issued in Washington prohibiting enemy aliens from the waterfront and other places of military importance came last night when more than 200 soldiers of the United States army raided saloons and boarding houses in River street, Hoboken, and arrested 200 Germans who were found there.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The first results of President Wilson's proclamation issued in Washington prohibiting enemy aliens from the waterfront and other places of military importance came last night when more than 200 soldiers of the United States army raided saloons and boarding houses in River street, Hoboken, and arrested 200 Germans who were found there.

MARY HURST IN PINEHURST

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 20.—There are more than fifty entries in the quality tournament today over the No. 2 course, the prominent winner of recent Carolina tournaments, Clarence Hobart, Bellairs, who won the low handicap in a 9-hole match.

DOCTOR DIES OF EXCITEMENT

Anticipation of Fishing Trip Too Much Strain for Weak Heart

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 20.—Excessive strain upon weakened heart action, due to his anticipation of a fishing trip, physicians decided today, caused the sudden death of Dr. Hiram R. Stout, fifty-four years old, a prominent practitioner of Charlottesville, Va.

Dr. Stout was in an Atlantic avenue store buying tackle with his wife and excitedly discussing his first deep-sea fishing trip in years, when he slipped his hand to his breast and sank to the floor without a word.

Allentown Raises $66,500

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 20.—Allentown closed its campaign to raise $66,500 for the Y. M. C. A. war work fund by making $66,500 in two years.

FOLWELL BROTHERS & CO'S BUILDING AFIRE

Engines, Blocked by Automobiles on Chestnut Street, Arrive After Flames Are Subdued

THIEVES GET GROCERIES

Failed in Attempt to Open Safe, They Take Bacon

FIRE NEAR CITY HALL

Office Building of Keystone State Construction Company Is Damaged

The newly erected two-story frame office building of the Keystone State Construction Company, McNichols street, that is building the subway, on the southwest corner of Broad and Filbert streets, was damaged by fire shortly before 7 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by City Hall Guard Koch, who turned in an alarm. Firemen subdued the blaze, which is believed to be caused by crossed electric wires, in a short time. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Nov. 20.—(Going, gone.) Two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

That's what happened here today when two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

INTERN 200 GERMANS IN N. Y. Soldiers raid Hoboken waterfront following President's proclamation

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The first results of President Wilson's proclamation issued in Washington prohibiting enemy aliens from the waterfront and other places of military importance came last night when more than 200 soldiers of the United States army raided saloons and boarding houses in River street, Hoboken, and arrested 200 Germans who were found there.

MARY HURST IN PINEHURST

1000 PERSONS VICTIMIZED IN LIBERTY BOND FRAUD

Dwiggins' Activities Thought to Represent $170,000 With But $75,000 Assets

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Four thousand persons, most of them in moderate or poor circumstances, were victims of Elmer Dwiggins, agency manager of the Bankers' Life Insurance Company of Des Moines, according to testimony offered here today in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against Dwiggins.

Dwiggins is charged with the larceny of thousands of dollars from Liberty Loan bond buyers. The total amount stolen, it was said, will reach $170,000, but Dwiggins' assets will not exceed $75,000.

Allentown Raises $66,500

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 20.—Allentown closed its campaign to raise $66,500 for the Y. M. C. A. war work fund by making $66,500 in two years.

FOLWELL BROTHERS & CO'S BUILDING AFIRE

Engines, Blocked by Automobiles on Chestnut Street, Arrive After Flames Are Subdued

THIEVES GET GROCERIES

Failed in Attempt to Open Safe, They Take Bacon

FIRE NEAR CITY HALL

Office Building of Keystone State Construction Company Is Damaged

The newly erected two-story frame office building of the Keystone State Construction Company, McNichols street, that is building the subway, on the southwest corner of Broad and Filbert streets, was damaged by fire shortly before 7 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by City Hall Guard Koch, who turned in an alarm. Firemen subdued the blaze, which is believed to be caused by crossed electric wires, in a short time. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Nov. 20.—(Going, gone.) Two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

That's what happened here today when two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

INTERN 200 GERMANS IN N. Y. Soldiers raid Hoboken waterfront following President's proclamation

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The first results of President Wilson's proclamation issued in Washington prohibiting enemy aliens from the waterfront and other places of military importance came last night when more than 200 soldiers of the United States army raided saloons and boarding houses in River street, Hoboken, and arrested 200 Germans who were found there.

MARY HURST IN PINEHURST

1000 PERSONS VICTIMIZED IN LIBERTY BOND FRAUD

Dwiggins' Activities Thought to Represent $170,000 With But $75,000 Assets

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Four thousand persons, most of them in moderate or poor circumstances, were victims of Elmer Dwiggins, agency manager of the Bankers' Life Insurance Company of Des Moines, according to testimony offered here today in the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against Dwiggins.

Dwiggins is charged with the larceny of thousands of dollars from Liberty Loan bond buyers. The total amount stolen, it was said, will reach $170,000, but Dwiggins' assets will not exceed $75,000.

Allentown Raises $66,500

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 20.—Allentown closed its campaign to raise $66,500 for the Y. M. C. A. war work fund by making $66,500 in two years.

FOLWELL BROTHERS & CO'S BUILDING AFIRE

Engines, Blocked by Automobiles on Chestnut Street, Arrive After Flames Are Subdued

THIEVES GET GROCERIES

Failed in Attempt to Open Safe, They Take Bacon

FIRE NEAR CITY HALL

Office Building of Keystone State Construction Company Is Damaged

The newly erected two-story frame office building of the Keystone State Construction Company, McNichols street, that is building the subway, on the southwest corner of Broad and Filbert streets, was damaged by fire shortly before 7 o'clock this morning.

The fire was discovered by City Hall Guard Koch, who turned in an alarm. Firemen subdued the blaze, which is believed to be caused by crossed electric wires, in a short time. The damage amounted to several hundred dollars.

LAWRENCE, MASS., Nov. 20.—(Going, gone.) Two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

That's what happened here today when two pounds of sugar sold to the gentleman in the back row for $27.25.

INTERN 200 GERMANS IN N. Y. Soldiers raid Hoboken waterfront following President's proclamation

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The first results of President Wilson's proclamation issued in Washington prohibiting enemy aliens from the waterfront and other places of military importance came last night when more than 200 soldiers of the United States army raided saloons and boarding houses in River street, Hoboken, and arrested 200 Germans who were found there.

MARY HURST IN PINEHURST

Advertisement for $1.25 Will Give You a Beautiful Garden Next Spring. Includes list of plants like Tulips, Narcissus, etc.

Large advertisement for Columbia Records featuring 'Laugh, laugh, Pagliaccio!', 'Stracciaris song of love and hate', 'Holy Night' enshrined in Gerhardt's voice, and 'Barrientos, crystal clear in Lakme's Bell Song'. Includes images of record covers and a gramophone.