URGE REPEAL OF NEW ADVERTISING POSTAGE

Representatives Call Tax "Destructive of Greatest Educational Factors"

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—The repeal of the section of the war tax law increasing postal rates on second-class mail matter was urged upon Congress in resolutions adopted at a meeting here of the Representatives Club...

With the throttling of the magazines by the law the industrial benefits of the advertising and selling opportunities will also be disastrously affected.

Low postal rates for periodicals, the speaker added, "grew out of the necessity of the people, and the stand of Congress for low rates had already been founded on a recognition of the educational force of periodicals."
