Germantown put up a le fight but was outclassed.

A crowd of a thousand rooters saw the and among them were a hundred or the and among them were a hundred or ore girls. The fair sex seemed to be more terested in knitting sweaters and wrist-is than in watching the outcome of the me and while the boys viewed every play it the greatest of interest the girls went ead with their work and not even when one Charter boys went over for a touch-well did the girls drup a single stick.

wn did the girls drop a single stitch.

Penn Charter scored its first touchdown thin four minutes after the whistle blow, eming going over the line. Germantown ed hard to stop the Penn Charter onrush, but there was nothing to it. Just before the period ended another touchdown resulted and the goal was kicked. In the second period Brown scored the third touchdown nother goal was kicked

ROSENAU AT QUARTER IN PLACE OF BELL

Folwell to Take No Chance on Injuring Regular Pilot Against Indians

Two Penn regulars will not start the game against the Indians on Franklin Field tomorrow, according to an announcement made by Coach Bob Folwell this afternoon. losenau will be at quarterback in place f Bert Bell, and Cook will replace Thomas

Bell injured his shoulder in the Michigan game and has suffered from it all week. He has taken part in the prac-tice sessions, but Folwell does not wish to e any chances on crippling his star be-the Cornell game. Thomas also has recovered from the bumping received the Wolverine combat and will adorn

The regulars went through a snappy signal drill today. Folwell didn't have the boys out very long, merely enough work being given to keep them in shape. They all seemed ready for the engagement, but the regulars are not likely to remain long in action against the redskins. The secondingers will get their chance

Philadelphia started an attack that soon had the West Philadelphia lads on the defensive.

Three straight first downs soon had the ball on the West Philadelphia 28-yard line, where French intercepted a forward pass, West Philadelphia immediately kicked out of danger.

back against Northeast winning, 24-19; beat Frankford but lost to Coach Lewis' Germantown High team.

The game, which is the only league contest scheduled for today, was witnessed by one of the largest school boy gatherings of the year. The rival coaches, McLaughlin and Johnson, had their men in the best shape-possible for the hal league game for each school, and the spectators were re-warded with a fast game.

Cup this year having scored victories over Frankford High, Germantown High and Central High, losing to Northeast two weeks ago by the score of 3-0. The trio of points resulting from a goal from field by Nick Carter were the only points accred against the "Speed Boys" in this quartet of championship matches.

The South Philadelphia team, champ of last year, have played indifferent foot-ball all season. They opened their season by losing to Central High, staged a come mantown High team.

The league game today was the most important of the season for both teams. If West Philadelphia wins, they will take undisputed possession of first place and can only be tied by a victory for Captain Kinsmon's Red and Black team over Central High tomorrow afternoon on Northeast field. If Captain Bunnin and his men should triumph today, they will enter a three-cornered tie for first place, thus giving Northeast a chance to win the title outright.

HOGAN'S MARINES WORK ON RAIN-SOAKED FIELD

Caked with mud and soaked to the skin. he Marines left the field yesterdey morning

Lee. On only a few occasions during the present season have the Marines had a chance to use a stippery ball and yesterday the registin was good and soggy. Considering the slipperiness of the ball and the treacherous condition of the field every man showed uselended and there were few errors.

Coach Folwell had the backs toos long aerial attacks, while the ends, Avery and Donovan, tore down the field with lightning speed and gobbied them in. Later Mike Wil-son and Bradley, the second-string men, came in for their share of the work as both are virtually certain to get in the content omorrow.

Williams, Scott, Mahan and also Avery ook a long punting drill, providing Mahan a unable to last out the game 'omorrow he brunt of the kicking attack will fall on the shoulders of Johnny Scott.
