SWEDE WINS PARK X-COUNTRY TITLE

Mercersburg Runner Easily Annexes Interscholastic Championship

NEW YORK LAD IS SECOND

One of the greatest triumphs ever achieved in scholastic circles was the victory of Allen Swede, of Mercersburg Academy, today in Swede, of Mercersburg Academy, today in Fairmount Park, when the up-State run-per finished first in the American inter-scholastic cross-country championship, held under the auspices of the University of pennsylvania. Swede ran the course of four and a quarter miles in the fast time of 22:30. The record is 21:43. What makes the Mercersburg runner's feat so remarkable is that he tried for three years to cop the title, and today his goal feat so remarkable is that he tried for three years to cop the title, and today his goal was accomplished. In 1915 and 1916 Swede ran second to the winner. If all schoolboy cross-country harriers are made up of the same qualities of Swede, then the whole world must doff their hats to them. Swede is a former Central High and Nor-ristown athlete and his victory today was well liked by the scholastic fraternity of rule city.

this city. Some little praise must be accorded to Some little prime noted Scotch distance pimmy Curran, the noted Scotch distance champion, for Swede was trained by him. Coach Curran's school made a clean sweep, for with six members of the Blue and White for the feature for the feature price.

for with six members of the Blue and White team he came through for the team prize, making Mercersburg a double winner of both the individual and team prize. Joe Nulty, of the St. Benedict School of New York, finished a poor second to the former Philly boy. Fully 28 seconds separ-ated the men at the tape. Taylor, the colored runner of Southern High School, on the third man to cross the finish line. colored runner of Southern High School, was the third man to cross the finish line, followed by Snyder, of Perklomen. The downtown entry was timed in 23.03. Forty-five runners lined up at the starting point at the college boathouse and at 11.02 A. M. Starting Judge Gallagher blew the whistle and off the schoolboys started on their journey. The course was two laps over Brewery

The course was two laps over Brewery Hill, a distance reported to be four and a quarter miles. The first lap around found Swede in the lead, closely followed by Nulty, the Gotham harrier. The Mercers-burg distance chaser hit it up a wee bit faster as the pair climbed the hill, and soon the space between the two leaders became big, and Swede finished ahead fully 159 meth

The weather was ideal for the run. The early sun had melted the snow off the roads and the going was extremely good onsidering the conditions of the last days. A crowd of 2500 persons watched the race.

His Annual Feast Vanishes Into Thin Air When Irate Farmer Interposes

There is one man in Philadelphia today who is far from happy and who is offering Marshul's office today for the purpose of no thanks for the many blessings that he has had during the year. And that man is Policem in "Jimmie" O'Neill, of the Twenty-sixth and York streets station, into whose life has come a shadow that marred his near Cumberland. He planned to give them a big surprise this Thanksgiving with an unu-uni feast. But the high cost of turkey disturbed him greatly, so a few days ago he asked for ; day off. He horrowed a shotgun and yes terday went into the country determined to shoot a wild bird. He shot a bird, but the only thing wild about it was when the farmer who happened to be the owner disovered Jimmie on his land with the dead urkey slung careleasty over his shoulder. Angry sing carelessy over its shoulder. Angry words ensued, and the only way that the sorrowful copper could mellify the son of toil was by presenting him with a $10 bill, in exchange for his premise not to prosecute. Eather than face arrost, he parted with the money, all he had, with the exception of some small change. So being the discussed and because he

So broke, tired, disgusted and hungry, he is spending his Thanksgiving without a bird or the companionship of his friends. He has nothing to be thankful for this year, he says, as Thanksgiving is just an ordinary day to him.

AMERICAN FIELD HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Nov. 29. American soldiers in the trenches this Thanksgiving Day consumed hundreds of thousands of pounds of turkey and sweet ostatoes and quantities of cranberries, nince pies, raisins, nuts, figs and apples Every man, high and low, had a full allowance. There was no work for the day except for the cooks, censors and correapondents

The French inhabitants living in the neighborhood of general headquarters, noting the preparations that were being made, asked the nature of holiday. When'lt was explained to them the mayor said: "This fete today is due to your love of liberty. We desire to take part, but do not wish to We desire to the part, but do not wish to interfere in the festivities. We propage a special entertainment for all Americans femorrow at the town hall." This effer was accepted. When the news reached other towns and villages the people of those places decided to do the same thing. So Friday mucht will be a gala night for the Sammees through French courtesy and friendship. There were many football games played today, both norming and afternoon, the American boys showing their interest in their great autumn sport, as well as their proficiency.
