WARE AX WIELDED AT THE CITY HALL

Two Town Meeting Heads Fall and Others Slated for Similar Fate

MORE THAN 20 ON LIST

Activity at Recent Election Only Apparent Cause for Dismissal

The Vare-Smith wing of the Repub-Ican Organization has started to discharge City Hall employes who were active on behalf of the Town Meeting Party at the election held on Novem-

The first to go was William Walker, who had been receiving $1100 a year as assistant execution clerk in Sheriff Ransley's office. Walker is a member Ransley's office. Walker is a member of the regular Republican ward execu-tive committee from the sixth division of the Eighteenth Ward. His colleague is William Williams, an independent member of the present Common Council. Williams and Walker returned a ma-jority of forty votes for the Town Meet-ing party ticket in their division, which was the normal Republican majority there.

there. Sheriff Ransley, who is one of the principal Vare lleutenants, asked for Walker's resignation soon after elec-tion. He gave no reasons, according to Walker. The resignation was not forthcoming, and Walker received notice of his discharge from George S. Russell, Sheriff's solicitor, Saturday afternoon.

More than a score of other city em-ployes are slated to go within the next few weeks, because they were active against the Varc organization at the recent election. The ax will fall in the departments of the Sheriff, Receiver of Taxes and Recorder of Deeds. More than a dozen formal requests for esignations were sent out today to employes in these departments. Most of these officeholders are from the Twentyfifth Ward, where Magistrate William F Campbell, who "flopped" from the Vares to the Town Meeting Party the night Campbell, who before election, is leader, and from the Eighteenth Ward, where John Virdin, Vare chief of the Bureau of Weights and Measures, is having a hard tight for ward control.

Fifty girls of the store brought the packages to the Mayors office and turned them over to Mrs. M. L. Wood-ruff, director of the Personal Service Despendent over the disappearance of his pretty nineteen-year-old bride. Will-iam Blewett, of §32 North Thirty-eighth street, has appealed to the police to find her. He said also that he was "doped" and robbed of a considerable sum of money and of his marriage certificate. He accused his brother-in-law, A. Chester Boyd, from Alken, S. C.

According to Blewett, he was married on November 22 and had been on his honeymoon when his brother-in-law appeared on the scene and urged his bride to return South on account of Illness in the family.

Blewett assented, he has told the police, making the stipulation that he be permitted to return with them. This Boyd agreed to, and the three went to the railroad station, where Boyd pur-chased lickets for as far as Washing-ton. They boarded the train, and, ac-ecrding to Blewett, rode as far as Wil-mington when he remarked that he was thirsty. Boyd volunteered to get a glass of water and Blewett deank it. IN ADDITION TO THEIR COLLECTION OF PEARLS, PRECIOUS STONES AND RARE MERCHANDISE OF FOREMOST IMPOR-TANCE, J. E. CALDWELL AND COMPANY OFFER MANY ATTRACTIVE ARTICLES SUITABLE FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS AT

MODERATE PRICES

Starting this Monday Mornin for One Week Only Second, Last and Final Intensified Value Sale of This 1917 Season comprising about 1000 PERRY OVERCOATS 800 PERRY SUITS of Unquestionable and Unqualified $25, $28, $30 and $35 Values at ONE UNIFORM PRICE $20

This Final Intensified Value Sale of the year is in every respect the most remarkable Opportunity that we have ever invited the Philadelphia Public to share in. It is almost unbelievable that we should be able to offer for $20 Overcoats and Suits of $35, $30, $28 and $25 Values today, when woolens are scarce at any price and dearer in price than they have ever been in two generations!"

9 But the answer is-

Come and look at the merchandise!

I Examine the fabrics, look at the Overcoats-at their style, cut, finish; at the Suits in their wide variety of fabric and model! In the light of present-day market values, you will surely say-"This is an opportunity I must take advantage of !"

It would be utterly impossible to hold such a sale and to give Suits and Overcoats of $35. $30, $28 and $25 values for $20 in any other way than the Perry Intensified Value way! It can be done only by the early and opportune purchase of the merchandise! We bought some of the Overcoatings for this sale as far back as one and two years ago, and the balance of them we secured under price!
