

THE WOMAN IN WARTIME
SERMON TO HOUSEWIVES

Particularly Refutes Argument
Who Has Always Saved and Refuses to Save More

The woman in wartime is a housewife who has always economized, who has always followed Hoover regulations, who has always followed the high cost of hotel... (The rest of the text is repetitive and seems to be a filler or a very short story snippet.)

see what's happening. If one of the cooks wants three pounds of butter he asks what he's going to do with it. If a bit of fat is thrown out he wants to know why. Every once in a while we find him out looking at the potato parings to see if they're thin enough. He supervises all the buying now, because he knows how to buy.

TWO things about my visit to the hotelman impressed me most. One was the fact that no card or circular from the United States food administrator was regarded as idle. Each received as much attention as a contract for a big banquet. I could not help but think of the countless home food cards I had seen on pantry shelves—neglected.

TODAY'S INQUIRIES

- 1. Have women in Ohio the vote?
2. What wartime Christmas gift for the housewife who is Hooverizing suggests itself?
3. What is a "bread-and-butter" letter?

ANSWERS TO SATURDAY'S INQUIRIES

- 1. Authorizing pamphlets about the care and feeding of children can be secured without cost from the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.
2. An evening frock that is not too dressy can be worn to an informal dance by the men of the party are not to wear evening clothes.
3. Imitation white pearl earrings can be given a delicate pink shade by rubbing on them a little of the red polish used on the nails.

More on Kissing

Dear Madam:—I have been reading your column lately, and the letters on the subject of kissing have interested me. I am thirty-five years old and have felt that I should not allow me to kiss my girl. But now I am married I am sorry I was so prim and particular, for I have missed the experience and have never had a girl. Girls don't wait too long to be kissed.

Presents for the Family

Dear Madam—It would be very nice to receive things to wear as Christmas gifts. A pretty crepe de chine shirt waist would be appropriate, since you know the girl so well. There are shops in town where you can get a waist for such a price as the combination of gloves silk or a pretty night gown would be appreciated. I am sure if you would rather give something a little more lasting, why not solid gold lingerie clasps or a silver picture frame?

Previous Vogue of 3-Cent Stamps

To the Editor of Women's Page:—Dear Madam:—What was the three-cent stamp in vogue during the Civil War? I have seen a few of these stamps. I remember that in 1861, but came into wide use in the United States in 1863, when the rate on letters was raised to three cents. A unit charge regardless of distance. From this time, letters were made more expensive.

PATSY KILDARE

By JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS

The Wooden Leg

THIS morning when I woke up I turned over endways a few times and then Rowdy and I had our breakfasts and after that we rambled, Rowdy running sideways like a dog does and running straight like a girl does. Everybody runs different. I saw a fat woman run once.

When we got to the house of the man who is a hundred years old Thomas Aristides Brown was sitting watching him, but not as interested as he was at church. There were tears on his cheeks and he looked like a very lonesome little boy. I said, "You aren't much of a sport, are you?" He said, "I want to see my mother and the baby."

"I want to see my mother, too, but that is nothing doing," he said. "Where is your mother?" When I told him that she was in heaven and that I did not know any baby he said that I was wrong. He said, "I want to see my mother, too, but that is nothing doing."

Rice Bread

Is highly nutritious but somewhat difficult to knead on account of the thickness of the dough. The Government experts have worked out this recipe: One cup lukewarm water, milk or a mixture of the two, one cup uncooked rice, one and one-fourth teaspoonful salt, one tablespoonful sugar, butter one tablespoonful or a less, one-half compressed yeast, two cups of wheat flour. Steam the rice with one-half cupful of liquid until it is soft. This is done better in a steamer than a double boiler.

Thumb Sucking

It is thumb-sucking harmful to a baby? If so, how can it be prevented? NURSE. This practice tends to produce certain deformities of the teeth and jaws and perhaps still more serious injury. Various measures of prevention have been adopted. The hands may be enclosed in mitts.

How to Get Rid of Wrinkles

Facial massage is good for wrinkles, but there is something else better. Wrinkles cannot all be smoothed out. It is a very good thing to apply massage, but wrinkles, you know, are more than skin deep.

Nervousness. A girl ten years old continually moves her nose, winks fast and twitches her shoulders. Kindly suggest a remedy. M. R. D. The child is probably suffering from chorea, or St. Vitus's dance. The difficulty is usually curable. The child's general health should be improved by an outdoor life, an antioxenic diet and special attention to the bowels. Every possible cause for nervous irritation should be sought out and removed. A nerve specialist should be consulted.

There are little muscles around the eyes that shut the eye up. Also, there is a little circular muscle around the mouth, a sphincter muscle, the orbicularis oris muscle, as we call it. These muscles are continually playing upon the face and give expression to the face.
