NEW YORK, bec. 5.—Report has it that Francis Ouimet, the well-known golfer, may short y be reheated to full amateur standing by the United States Golf Association. Now that the former national amateur and open champion is serving his country, there is a feeling that the parent organization could, with-out loss of prestige or dignity, restore Ouimet's original status. It would, in the opinion of many, be a fitting recog-nition for devolution to his country. The report also has it that the as-sociation is likely to receive an appli-cation for reinstatement from the Woodland golfer. It is said Ouimet, in making his ap-plication for reinstatement, will outline a future policy that will enable the as-sociation to reverse its decision in his case.
