

SCOUT FUND PASSES GOAL; GETS $137,589

Boys Go "Over the Top" in Final Day of $125,000 Campaign

PARADE IN CELEBRATION Workers Bring in $30,000 Today. Many Big Donations Are Made

The Boy Scouts "went over the top" in a final charge which brought their total pledges for subscriptions to the fund for work in this city during the next three years to $137,589. They had aimed for only $125,000.

Up to noon yesterday the teams had collected $25,722. Today they reported an additional $24,127 in hands, making the campaign executive committee brought in $51,110, making a grand total of $125,839 already in hand.

Among the individual gifts reported at the luncheon was one for $1 from a former Philadelphia Boy Scout now serving in the Army Field Hospital at Annapolis, Md.

Among the larger gifts reported was one of $5000 from E. T. Stotesbury, treasurer of the local Boy Scout Council.

After the regiment marches into the Y. M. C. A. "hut," which will be specially decorated for the occasion, the formal entertainment is to be staged, with the men themselves supplying the musical and theatrical talent.
