

Philadelphia Members of the New National Army Undergoing Intensive Instruction in the Use of the Bayonet at the Camp Meade Cantonment, Near Admiral, Md. General Photo Service

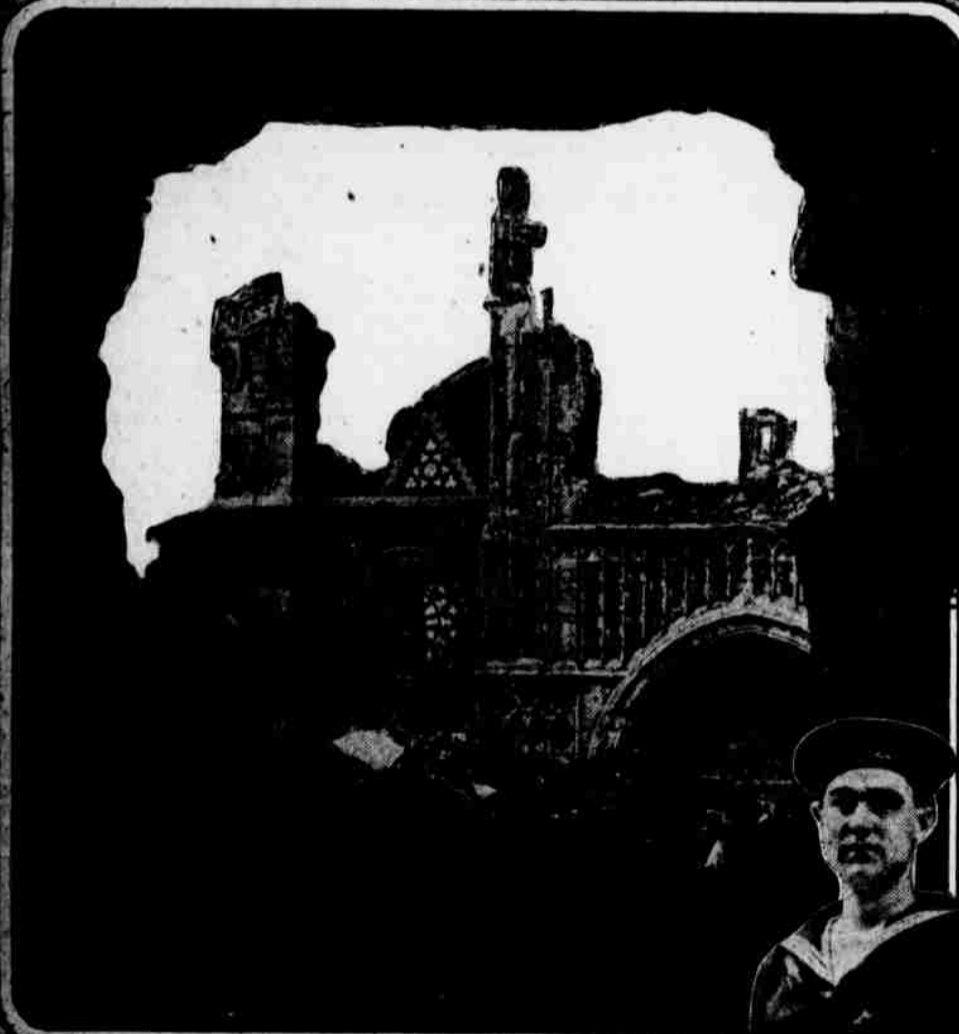

An Airplane Hovers Over One of the Holy Pools in the Ancient City of Jerusalem, Whose Fall to the Encircling British Armies is Daily Anticipated. Underwood & Underwood

The Camera Visualizes the Day's Varied News Happenings

A Famous Fresco Painting, That of the Assunta, Formerly One of the Most Admired Art Treasures of Venice, is Landed "Somewhere on the Adriatic Coast" for Safe Keeping.

Ruins of the Famous Cathedral of Ypres as They Appear Through the Hole Made by a German Shell in Cloth Hall. Western Newspaper Union

Victorious Boy Scouts Give Vent to a Cheer as Dr. Charles D. Harte Pulls a Rope Bringing Their Broad Street Campaign Indicator to the $125,000 Mark, Goal of Their Drive

The Oldest Enlisted Man at Camp Meade is Sergeant Francis A. Wedding, with a Record of Twenty-nine Years' Service in the Army. General Photo Service

Former Princeton University Men Enrolled in the 315th Regiment at Camp Meade. Left to Right, Major Francis V. Dogal, Lieutenant Coleman F. Brown, Lieutenant Benjamin Bullock, 3d, Lieutenant Logan B. Gill, Lieutenant John N. McDowell, Captain Samuel Fleming, Lieutenant Bruce Harlow and Lieutenant Leslie I. Laughlin. General Photo Service

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Who Was Among the Guests of Honor at a War Luncheon Here Yesterday.

Ernie Shore, Famous Red Sox Pitcher, in His Naval Uniform. International Film Service

ALIEN ENEMY STOP!

YOU MUST GO NO FARTHER IN THE DIRECTION OF THE ARROW

Poster Issued by the Federal Government as a Warning to Enemy Aliens to Avoid River Fronts and Other Forbidden Areas, Which is Being Tacked Up by Hundreds in Philadelphia Under the Direction of United States Marshal Frank J. Noonan.

Chevalier Van Reppard, Dutch Minister to the United States, Who Has Been Recalled From Washington for Some Reason Touching the Dutch-American Export Negotiations. Harris & Ewing