

NEW BOOKS OF AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION SPECIALLY WRITTEN FOR THE YOUNG

NOBB'S Fontaine Fox in a Book. To those who respect a grin, chuckle and hearty laugh is recommended "F. Fox's Funny Folk," a collection of the cartoons by Fontaine Fox...

MISTRESS ANNE Temple Bailey. Twenty-fifth Thousand. The kind of book you finish with a sigh, and buy it once for a dear friend...

JACOBS FOR BOOKS 1628 CHESTNUT STREET STATIONERY AND ENGRAVING. "MEET ME AT JACOBS"

The Mexican Problem. The Author says: "The beginnings of markets, the beginnings of transportation, the beginnings of incentive, the beginnings of accumulation, are in the uncovering of large natural or planetary wealth..."

These Many Years By BRANDER MATTHEWS. It should furnish an unending source of interest and pleasure to the young and after-dinner speakers in the years to come...

THE MORTE D'ARTHUR OF SIR THOMAS MALORY AND ITS SOURCES. An Introductory Study. By VIDA D. SCUDDER. Net $3.50. From Professor Scudder's Introduction: "Its fascination for all classes of readers has increased ever since the romantic revival of the early nineteenth century..."

THE HILL-TOWNS OF FRANCE. By EUGENIE M. FRYER. Fully Illustrated. Net $2.50. The first complete account ever written of the hill-towns of France, whose influence over French history, picturesque situation, fascinating stories and present-day importance...

THE BARREN GROUND OF NORTHERN CANADA. By WARBURTON RYKE. Fully Illustrated. Net $2.00. Penetrating the wilds of Northern America in search of the muskox, the first white man to enter that frozen waste...

CHRISTMAS BOOKS FOR THE YOUNG Handsomely Illustrated Editions of Folk Tales, Stories of American History and a Life of Jesus for the Holiday Season

THE number of handsomely illustrated books for young people, especially prepared for the holiday season, is smaller this year than usual. There are three, however, that deserve particular attention. One of the most beautifully illustrated gift books that has appeared this season or any other season...

An Unwitting Heroine. Peggy Callahan did not know that she was a heroine while she was performing the duties that devolved on her when her mother had to go to a hospital and she had to take charge of the household...

History of the Holidays. If one wished a few months ago to know the history of the legal holidays in the United States, he would have had to consult several books. One is now able to find the history of these holidays in a single volume...

Beekeeping Adventures. What Frank Lillie Pollock does not know about bees would be a poor equipment for a beekeeper. Mr. Pollock maintains a bee army on the Alabama River in the spring and when it has extracted all the honey from the Southern flowers he sends it to Canada to resume work there...

Fighting For Peace. By Henry Van Dyke. "We could wish that this little volume might be read by every American citizen, and not only read but written in the hearts of every person concerned in the determination of the conditions of peace at the end of the war..."

A Maid of Colonial New York. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Knipe have gone back to the days when New York was New Amsterdam for the material for their latest story for young people. It is the story of a girl who has been separated from her people and is brought up first by the Indians and then by a Scotch Irish woman...

An American Robinson Crusoe. One might think that the Robinson Crusoe theme had been exhausted by the late Daniel Defoe, to say nothing of the late Pastor Wyan, who wrote "The Swiss Family Robinson," the late M. W. Ballantyne, who wrote "The Mysterious Island," and...

A New Trail-Blazer Story. Boys who have read the preceding volume in the Trail-Blazer Series, most of which are by Edwin L. Sabin, will welcome Mr. Sabin's latest story in the series. It deals with the Lewis and Clark expedition into the unexplored and unexplored West...

Delightful Fairy Stories. "The Enchanted Bird" will please all loyal lovers of fairy tales. In addition to this story, which gives her book its title, Antonette De Coursey Patterson includes a number of other delightful fairy tales...

The City That Toby Built. Tobytown is a little city named after Toby, a dog, who built it. All the other dogs obey him and he has a lot of foxes that he has trained as horses. When he drives he has a sleepy opossum for a coachman...

The Mill of Fortune. James Baldwin never did a better piece of work than when he retold for English readers the famous Finnish story of the sampo, or the mill of fortune, which men had sought to invent from the beginning of time...

Mystery of a Portrait. Those young people who enjoyed "Joan of Juniper Inn," by Caroline E. Jacobs, will welcome "Joan's Jolly Vacation," which the same author has written along with some new ones. It is a mystery story centering around the discovery of a portrait of a boy in the attic of a southern summer home...

Nature's Charm for Youngsters. Clarence Hawkes, the blind naturalist, has written mainly for boys in his new book, "Wood and Water Friends," which he believes many girls will enjoy. The stories, even though the other sex figures as hero constantly...

Boy Scouts' Year Book. The 8,000,000 boys of scout age now within the borders of the United States cannot help but be interested in the year book of the Boy Scouts of America. This publication is just recently off the press...

Front in a Flivver" stood sixth. Here is the complete list in the order of popularity: "On the Edge of the War Zone," Mildred Aldrich...

Best Sellers. Of the twelve best-selling books of nonfiction the Bookman finds that in October W. Yorkie Stevenson's "At the Front in a Flivver" stood sixth.

Buy Books for Christmas. Gift Books. Old Seaport Towns of the South. An author's and an artist's amusing experiences in the most picturesque seaport towns on our South Atlantic coast...

Woman as Decoration. On woman decorative, her place in art, and rules for the art of good dressing and correct stage costume. Illustrated in duotone.

How to Study Architecture. How to know and appreciate the best in architecture by a noted art critic. With over 200 illustrations.

The High Cost of Living. By Frederic C. Howe. Commissioner of Immigration at the Port of New York. This book aims to present the root causes of the food crisis in this country and to show how it may be so overcome as to make it possible fully to meet the needs of ourselves and our allies.

IRON BOOKS FOR AN IRON AGE. Select Your Wartime Gifts From This List. ALL IN IT. By Major Ian Hay Beith. "More than any other writer of the war, Ian Hay shows us the human side of it..."

A TREASURY OF WAR POETRY. Edited by George Herbert Clarke. "The best book of war poems so far published..." THE NEXT OF KIN. By Nellie L. McClung. Stories of the folks back home and of how in Canada they are doing their bit for the boys overseas.