AUTUMN ACTIVITIES OF THE PUBLISHERS AND AUTHORS

Know Your Own State The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

By Thomas Kilby Smith of the Philadelphia Bar

Preface by WALTER GEORGE SMITH
Prest of the American Bar Association History of the Keystone State, with an up-to-date account of every interest of every clissen in the great Commonwealth, Political, Military, Financial, Commercial, Religious, Domestic,
Educational, Professional, Literary, Sociological.

The best short history and handiness of any Commonwealth ever issued. Philadelphia lequirer, Oct. 19, 1917.

512 Pages. Cloth. $1,00 - Map. Illustration. Judge.

At Your Bookstore, or The Encyclopedia Press, Inc. 23 East 41st St., New York

Good New Books JAY COOKE, Financier of the Civil War By Ellis P. Oberholtzer

The most complete and antennic biography of the man whose energy enabled the North to finance the war. New, cheaper edition. Ilius. 2 volumes. $3.00 net. WITH CAVALRY IN THE GREAT WAR By Frederic Coleman The answer to "What has the cavalry done in the European war?" A particularly timely book. Illus. $1.50 net.

By Ridgwell Cullum

THE FORFEIT

The story of a ranchman who, after swearing revenge upon the person responsible for the death of his brother, finds that his own wife is guilty. Hus. $1.35 net. THE FLAG

How a boy who had insulted the flag redeems blunelf by his thrilling patriotism in the pres-ent war. Blus. $1.25 net.

By Homer Greene

GEORGE W. JACOBS & CO.

Publishers, Philadelphia, Pa.

A remarkable novel presenting with staggering force the picture of a world given over to cold blooded materialism untempered by Christian ideals.

The Minister or the Society Belle

Which should rule the gay little town that loved them both? THE

HEART'S

KINGDOM

s a book of fun and indercurrent.

same author.

Illustrated, $1.35

Reilly & Britton, Publishe

The Messiah Cylinder Victor Rousseau

rannous socialism, without either religion or freedom.

ALL BOOK STORES A. C. McClurg & Co. Publishers

GOSSIP ABOUT BOOKS AND WRITERS Bibliophilism Caricatured

Harry Franck Is Getting Fat in France-Reprintings of Many New Works Made Necessary by Their Popularity

collectors understand of the reasons for the value of some of the books for which

He begins with the disappointment of one Robert Epoker at his failure to secure one of the only two extant copies of Baau Brunmel's unpublishable memoirs. Hookes was closing the bargain with the dealer, a Chicago millionaire enters the store, and on threat to withdraw all patronage in the future unless he can get the volume, he secures to the book went to press. This remarks able collection of the famous cartoonist's constituted from the famous physicist makes a judicial, scientific examination of the evidence from all sources of the survival of personnic that is neeting with such widespread interest that E. P. Dutton & Wonder Woman, threatens for many work is daily meeting with wider approach to take her lover from her.

David Dale, the "fixing man," is a six American edition. Hooker, who is not rich enough to preciation, and as the United States gets an American edition, mpete in the open market with the deeper into the war Racmackers's unformillionaires, thereusen resolves to prey ipon them in secret and get what he vants by indirection. Mr. Rosenbach not only tells how he secured the unsublishable memoirs, but how he get essentially of many other treasures, in-wants by Indirection. Mr. Rosenbach not only tells have he secured the upoblicable memotrs, but how he get pressession of many other treasures, the building pressession of many other treasures, the treasures of the pressession of many other treasures, the treasures of the pressession of many other treasures, the treasures of the pressession of many other treasures, the treasures of the pressession of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown, and when he confesses as much to her also consents. The final cross of the rown and the pression of the rown of the pression of the rown of the pression of the rown and the pression of the rown of the pression of the rown of the pression of the rown of Aftered about by the perverse winds of the fortune. his rane r ever decoming this he feels the noble influence of a friend he according his arrival on the alerie, who shares in the household unangement of the presbytery where is in playing the part of the newly of a playing the part of the newly of the playing the part of the part of the newly of the playing the part of the p the habit of eating daily, and the every large in the habit of eating daily, and the every large in mistable genius for weary line seemingly inextensible estimation, and the seeming of the next day sailed for a port which are included by the work and an awakening port in France. There they increase of duty to God and his brother man.

It is a finely proportioned tale of eating daily perfectly the finely proportioned tale of eating daily perfectly the post of a mader's love that unconsciously perfectly and the professional and the proposition of the man beneath the artificial mask of his assumed took.

THE SIN THAT WAS IIS, By Frank Posks and, the professional and the profe e is playing the part of the newly increasing countrived priest, with daily increasing difficulty.

The labit of eating daily, and the every countries of the habit of eating daily, and the every countries of the habit of eating daily, and the every countries of the habit of eating daily, and the every countries of the fifteenth time. Lieutemant Dawson completed the writings of his new of "lan Hay," and the English equiva-lent of the Scotch "lan" is, of course, "John." As a consequence, a most amusing mistake has been made by an over-zealous clipping bureau, which confinues to send Major Belth reviews and climpings referring to "The Life and Letters of John Hay" and "The Com-plete Poems of John Hay," just published by Houghton Mifflin Company. While Major Belth's admiration for John Hay, and for his biography, written by Wil-liam Roscoe Thayer, is unbounded, he finds it rather embarrassing to be folowed around the country by compli-nentary notices, which do not belong d

George Edward Barton, author of "Re-Education, recently gave out a most interesting interview in Washington, where he had gone to see the Secretary of War, the French ambassador and of War, the French ambassager and the heads of several departments of the Surgeon General's office on the subject of the re-education of maimed and crippled soldiers. Mr. Barton, who is head of Consolation House, in New York, said in part: 'The needs of the re-education of cripples are not made by war, but are only intensified by it; we draft a whole army of industrial cripples every year. The Federal Commission on industrial Relations gives The annual list of accidents, approximately 25,000 fatalities and 700,000 injuries involving discounts for the remance of a young nation rising to defend its own. spectacular to lose one's arm or leg in the din and turmoil of battle than it is to lose the same member in that of a mill, factory or foundry, the results—so of the Forty-third Cameron Highlanders far as the individual is concerned—are virtually the same, and the needs of society for the re-education of that man are idengal." Mr. Barton's little book, which has been called "the book of the hour." formulates a plan whereby disabled soldiers may be made almost, or the battle line. wholly, self-supporting, thus lifting what may become an almost unbearable bur-den from the shoulders alike of the tax-

When True Lovers Meet The danger of dreaming of an imaginative, ideal lady-love, lest we fasten our blind worship upon a human counmoment, and neglect the sterling worth of character that waits on our attention quial, with some boys and girls. It is colloof character that waits on our attention quial, with some boys and girls. It is collodealing with athletics, snobbery and the like, are equally good. The following remarkable tribute writting country. Mr. Marconson has seen beauty, but to which we have grown activated by common acquaintance, is customed by common acquaintance, is customed by common acquaintance, is seen to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wir than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other American to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other american to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other american to Walt Whitman by Benoy Kumar more of the wire than any other whitman with the wire than any other american to walt with the wire than any other whitman with the wire than any other whitman whitman with the wire than any other whitman whitman with the wire than any other whitman whitm the value of same of the books for which they pay fabulous prices. Out of the wealth of his information he has produced a little volume of spisodes in book collecting which will entertain all bibliosis. No human being indeed is Wait Whitman.

No human being indeed is Wait Whitman. pointed out by Mae Van Norman Long No human being indeed is Walf Whitman. Yankeesstan's Niegara Fails is he:
Impetuosity of cataracts
And numuit catarlysmal fill his being.

Rebirth of Russia," has been translated into French and will be brought out in Paris.

Paris.

Wanks is a child of the woods, with an open heart, a queenly grace of purity and withal a wisdom that handles a most baffling and critical situation in > craftsman seeking to shed the burdens of an unpleasant early life in the soll deeper into the war Raemackers's unforget what he Rosenbach and stronger appeal to the American public.

>
> Two condemned cannon will mark the place where James R. McConnell fell in battle "somewhere in France." By large in a cabin with an adopted boy unanimous consent, the Senate passed the union who we get the unanimous consent, the Senate passed the unanimous consent of the unanimous consent of stateen years old. If, however, the book could be put where the young girls could get at it without any one knowing anything about it, and if the parents made no comment on it in their presence, the girls would be certain to absorb a lot of useful advice and would be likely to clear that there is no escaping it. The first letter gives some inside facts about moonlight in response to a complaint our blind worship upon a human coun-terpart, appearing at a psychological fused to let her go walking one evening

LOG OF THE AR

A. J. FRUEH AND SMILE, SMILE, SMILE $1.00 for the funniest book in yes DUTTON'S

> 681 FIFTH AVENUE Opposite St. Thomas's Church

Nothing Better to Give than a Book IT COSTS A TRIFLE; AND LASTS

4 FINE NOVELS

The White Ladies of Worcester By the Author of "THE ROSARY"

"Told with the purity of style of which Mrs. Barclay is master, and a fidelity to the finest emotions which is remarkable. Seldom do we find such characters in fiction, and few are the writers that can

"It is a splendid work, full of dramatic power and true to nature, yet reverent with things that are sacred, and altogether one of the finest books that have seen the light for many a day."—San Francisco

Unconquered

By the Author of "CAPTAIN DESMOND, V. C." "Maud Diver has departed in this novel from the Indian background against which her earlier work is set, but she has by no means for saken her powerfully dramatic method of dealing with an emotional theme."—N. Y. Times.

"There is a new depth, a new power in Mrs. Diver's latest story."
. . . There is more spontaneity in it; a surer realization of the facts of life; a truer sense of human values, and her increased simplicity of phrasing adds force to her tale."—Melbourne Australian.

The Heart of Her Highness By the Author of "EVERYBODY'S LONESOME"

"A finely woven romance of the old days of chivalry and brutality; a diverting and persuasively accurate picture of old Flanders, of Ghent and Bruges and Louvain; a story of Mary of Burgundy, unhappy daughter of Charles the Bold, of her troubles, and final happy marriage; a story brightly gemmed with descriptive excellence by Clara E. Laughlin.

"Not for years has so delightful a tale of olden times appeared, for more meritorious than anything Stanley Weyman ever did."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Safety Curtain

By the Author of "THE WAY OF AN EAGLE"

"In extraordinary power Ethel M. Dell's novels, as well as her short stories, challenge comparison with any writings of our time. Here it is splendidly apparent, combined with marvelously tender witchery and gentle charm quite irresistible. The intenseet primal passions rage through these tales, but never get beyond the equal sway of sweet womanliness and loyal manhood. Tales which nobody with heart and red blood can read without a quickening of the pulse, or can lay down without a wish to take them up and read them again."—N. Y. Tribune.

AT ALL BOOKSELLERS

G. P. Putnam's Sons

Christmas Cheer for Camp & Home

This Is the Book for Your Soldier Boy

HOW TO LIVE AT THE FRONT

Second Lieutenant, Royal Field Artiflery

"Second Lieutenant MacQuarrie . . . tells you all about it with open mind and open heart and an honesty and fervor that represent the finest kind of message that any one from 'over there' who has been in it can bring . . . And the young soldier will like the information, the manliness and the brotherliness that inspire these pages and make the volume a true vade mecum in these days of trial and tribulation."— Philadelphia Public Ledger. "Every American must read this remarkable book if he wishes to know the truth about war conditions." 12 illuswith a wealth of pointed anecdote and clever allusion. The humor is delightful and the buginess wisdom which it contains is of the practical

By HORACE MATHER LIPPINCOTT Boxed, $6.00 net.

America

By JOHN T. FARIS

117 Blustrations and a map. Demi octavo. Decorated cloth. $4:00 net. The old roads out of Philadelphia are the most historic in America. Profuse illustrations and suggestive text mark the book as a prize for the automobilist, walker and historian. Such names as the Battle of Brandywine, Vailey Forge and Militia Hill suggest the fascination of the subject. The author presents the past and the present of ten of the

CHRISTMAS BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

Water Babies, by Charles Kingsley. Every nursery library should contain a copy of this classic story.
It would be difficult to find a more beautifully iflustrated edition than this new one in the Stories All
this new one in the Stories All Children Love Series. The colored mctures are bewitching. $1.35 net.

Opening the West with Lewis

Opening the West with Lewis

Teld by Vera Nyce. Pictured by Helers Nyce. 50 cents net.

and Chark, by Edwin L. Sabin.

This new Trail Bfazer contains adveature and plenty of it. true history and fazeinating romance. It tells or a box's journey upon the Origion Tenti with Lewis and Clark.

Illustrated $1.25 net.

Ropert Sargent Holland. A faseinating story of the adventures of a youth Durch boy who in the days of Beter Sturvesant comes to New Amsterdam to win his fortune. Illustrated 21,25.

AT ALL BOOK STORES 連城場J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY域域域

A Russian

By Serge Aksakoff Translated from the Russian by two earlier volumes being-

"As a piece of literature it is a sheer delight; as a document revealing the Russian spirit it is of singular value at the present

The Daily News (London)
"It is an admirable book,"
The Moraleg Post (London)
Vol. II., "Moderns." (In Preparation) LONGMANS, GREEN & CO.

A. S. W. Rosenbach is probably a well informed as any one in the United States on the devices to which bibliophiles will report when they wish to get possession of a rare book. He also knows how little some of the new-rich philes and interest all others who care for a cynically humorous exploitation

The story begins just before the outbreak of the great world war and its characters and a three-cornered love affair are projected a hundred years into the future: finding the world in the grip of a perverted and ty-

IF I WERE TWENTY-ONE, by William Maxwell, appeals to every man, old or young. Filled kind. A spappy book with a punch. 12 illustrations. $1.25 net. EARLY PHILADELPHIA: ITS PEOPLE, LIFE AND PROGRESS

120 illustrations, Octava Decorated cloth.
A Limited Edition. The city of many institutions and unimpenched traditions is preented in its varying aspects by one who knows the people of today and yesterday. The public places with the learned institutions, the unique sporting life, the financial and business concerns, the social clubs and associations, are written of in a way that will make the book a fund quable information to all who are interested in the beginning of

OLD ROADS OUT OF PHILADELPHIA

Water Babies, by Charles Kings- The Greyfurs' Neighbors and ley. Every nursery library should The Adventures of the Grey-

The Blue Heron's Father, by Tell Me a Story Picture Book

Winona of Camp Karonya, by Margaret Widdemer. A charming account of the work and play of a group of Camp Fire Girls during the autumn and winter months. By the author of "WINONA OF THE CAMPFIRE." Illustrated. $1.25 net

"A book . . . which is quite but of the way delightful.

She has written one of the good books of the year."

Russian Poets and Poems

graphical and Critical In-J. D. Duff, Fellow of Trinity troductions. College, Cambridge, 8vo. $2.25 By Mme. Nadine Jarintzov Vol. I, "Classics," Prefaced, by Jane Harrison, With Por-traits. 8vo. Pp.xl+318. $3.50

Years of Childhood. $3.00 net

New York

By ARCHIE BELL

The author makes us feet the inde-limate spell of the land which centres to the seews come of Full, until we can seem the cherry brossoms and how the gentle voices of the gelshas. It is not merely a book about Japan, it is not of Japan Reelf. New York Tribuse.

THE DEFENDERS

A Book Dedicated to Our Soldiers, Sailors and Nurses.

Profusely Illustrated in Color and Black and White by Lending Allied Artists. Large Sco. Cloth, Full Color Onlay.

OF ENGLAND

Author of "Heretics," "Orthodoxy,"
"The Crimes of England," etc.
Cloth, $1.50 net.

Fifteenth Edition CARRY ON:

By Lieut. CONINGSBY DAW-Author of "The Garden Without Walls."

ctc. Frontispirce. Cloth, $1.00 act.

'Cne could wish that a law might be passed compelling every perilat to read the read to the could warr on! It is this spirit of a new literature, a new religion, pervading the book that makes it with a penetrating, such a comprehensive interpretation of war. New York Times.

THE RED PLANET

Author of "The Wonderful Year," etc. Cloth. Net, $1,50.

Y ALL BOOKSELLERS

sed a reat job, with the privilege of crawling by night over into the German (of the Kaiser's) stand out among the trenches, when once we actually get others, but there are many of deep instarted at them, so something worth while may still come of the business."

The text is especially notable for the appreciation of Raemackers by the foremost English writers of the day. Major Ian Hay Beith author of "The As we have already said, it is not the First Hundred Thousand" and "All in equal of his first book, but it is indeed it." has always written under the name worth while.

C. H. S.

The Spirit of Canada No wonder those Canadians can fight This, perhaps, is the first thought tha will come to a reader after finishina Ralph Connor's new book, "The Major. The novel is a new interpretation of Canadianism, than which nothing is closer to Americanism, for each has caught part of the other. It is a grip-ping tale of that which makes men. The development of a civilization, the resysolegy of a liberty, the growth of a

And suddenly, over night almost, this hand that has grown mighty in its development, confident in power of its resources, proud in the stardiness of

Since writing his previous novel Raipt

THE MAJOR. By Ralph Conner, author of The Sky Pilot. The Doctor, etc. New York: George H. Doran Company, 11.40.

Lore

published by Poubleday, Page & Co., is to be produced soon on Broadway by the Messrs. Shubert and Miss Jessie Bonstelie. In the cast will be Lowell Siverman, Miss Annie Hughes and Miss Lily Cahill.

Isaac F. Marcosson has just returned from his fourth visit to the war zone in keeping with his adventure, the ship that brought him back was attacked by a submarine. During his last trip he visited the Italian, French, British and American armies, and he is now preparing to go on an attended lecture tour of same delightful, humorous vein as "The Melting of Molly," it makes you think. Don't fail to get this book! Illustrated, $1.35 and then say that letter writ-ing is a lost art. The letters are charming informal, gos-sipy and brilliant. . . The book is as interesting as a novel. Nay, it is more in-teresting, for it is an acteresting, for it is an ac-count of things that actually happened, written by an expert in the art of descrip-tion."-Philadelphia Evening Ledger.

Adventures and Letters of Richard Harding Davis Charles Belmont Davis

"No one can read the book fusely (thestrated from poetry photographs and mapshate path-ered in all parts of the world. $2.50 net The Deserter The story of an American boy with fighting record in the English

Charles Constitution of the Charles Fifth Avenue New York

Woman By Mae Van Norman Long

A story of love and of life close to the great heart of nature

At All Bookstores $1.85 Nos The Penn Publishing Company, Philadelphia

TURNS FOR RELIEF TO

WAR WORN ENGLAND

The Road To Understanding By Eleanor H. Porfer

Author of "JUST DAVID." "POLLYANNA," etc. London Punch: "Told with an excellently human and sympathetic understanding. The Western Mail: "The book stands out for its sheer human in-Lady's Pictorial: "A very human and charming love story." Scots' Pictorial: "The charm of the book lies in its simplicity and

Aberdeen Daily Journal: "Thoroughly charming-a novel to read and HEAD YOUR CHRISTMAS LIST WITH

THE ROAD TO UNDERSTANDING Attractive red and gold binding. Illustrations in full color. $1.40 net at all bookstores or from the publishers

Houghton Mifflin Company

OF THE YEAR The Life and Letters of

HEADS THE LIST OF THE BEST BOOKS

Edward Everett Hale BY HIS SON, EDWARD E. HALE, JR.

The long-awaited life and letters of this famous preacher, author of "The Man Without a Country," patriot, and the guide, philosopher and friend to untold thousands. In these two volumes Dr. Hale reveals himself in the selections from his many letters, journals and notebooks, which his son has carefully

Forty-three of a jury of fifty representative critics, including literary editors, college professor of literature, etc., who made up a representative 191 collection of 300 books for exhibition in the Nation Arts Club of New York, voted for THE LIFE AN LETTERS OF EDWARD EVERETT HALE. Th is the largest number of ballots cast for any of 300 best books of the year.

With Illustrations. 2 vols, 8vo. Cloth, in bex, $5.00 act

At All Booksellars

Publishers LITTLE, BROWN &

Schoolboy Englished in the Metres of the Originals, With Bio-

This is the third and last section of Aksakoff's memoirs, the A Russian Gentleman. $2,25 net time."-Daily Graphic.

The Leading Novel

JOHN LANE CO. NEW YORK

Author of "The Spell of the Holy Load,"
"The Spell of Layet," etc. With 56 Bustrations. Board. Cloth. $2.50 act.

OF DEMOCRACY

The Militia of Mercy has assemuled

The Leading War Books A SHORT HISTORY

By G. K. CHESTERTON

"A history of ideas. As imaginative a a moving picture and as brilliantly lever as a ciever play."—New York Sus. Letters in Wartime

By WILLIAM J. LOCKE

A wartime novel of love, courage and mysters—just as romantic, just as ten-der as "The Beloved Vagabond."

tostrial Relations gives The annual list of accidents, approximately 25,000 fatalities and 700,000 injuries involving disability of more than fou weeks. That these faures would be equaled by the casualty list in our army overseas is improbable, and while it is perhaps more exercised to lose one's arm or leg. pectacular to lose one's arm or leg payer and philanthropist. "Good Morning, Rosamond!" a com-edy by Miss Constance Lindsey Skinner, from the book of that name, recently published by Doubleday, Page & Co., is to be produced soon on Broadway by the Messrs. Shubert and Miss Jessie Bonstelle. In the cast will be

Wonder Book of Fairy "The Magic Stone" has a very human

REILLY & BRITTON