Cardinal Says Policy Is Contrary to American Spirit and Creates Political Oligarchy

BALTIMORE, Dec. 12.- to an author-BALTIMORE, Dec. 12.—In an authorized interview in the Catholic Review to-day Cardinal Gibbors takes a decided stand against public ownership of rail-ways, characterizing such ownership as against the spirit of the American people and as tending to create a central power through the army of employes with immerse funds under one control He deprecates tragging of railroad corporations and praises the great development of the American railway system.

The Cardinal also directed attention to the tendency of labor organizations to interfere with railroad operations, which he characterized as ill-advised.
