

IN THE AID OF THE POWERFUL KATRINKA THE BABY SCARED MOTHER HALF TO DEATH WITH HIS SNOW MAN

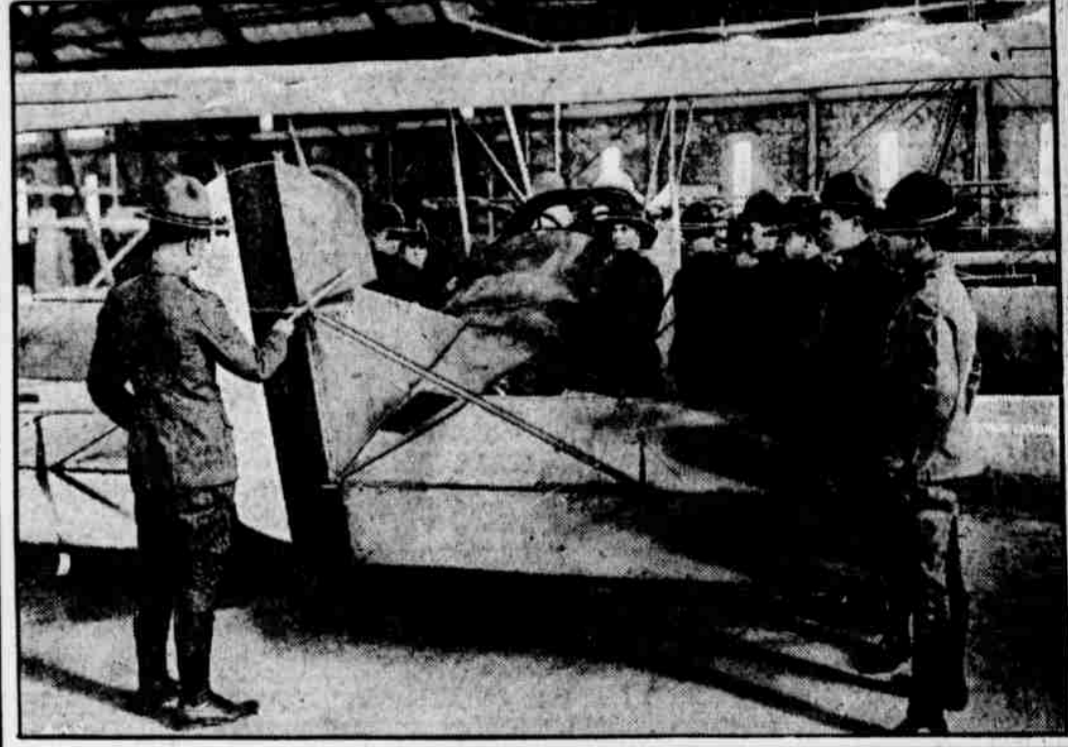

By FONTAINE FOX. (Copyright.)

PHOTOGRAPHIC PORTRAYAL OF THE LATEST NEWS HAPPENINGS

Sergeant J. Howard Berry, famous University of Pennsylvania athlete, now a member of U. S. Base Hospital Unit No. 20, has been appointed to the third officers' training camp at Camp Meade, beginning January 5.

American Aviation Students Mastering the Details of an Airplane's Construction With an Experienced Officer as Their Instructor. Because of the Stern Requirements, College Men Are Regarded as the Most Suitable to Become Birdmen.

Here Is Shown the Special Session of the Bar Association in 1891 Commemorating the Fortieth Anniversary of the Appointment of John I. Clarke Hare to the Bench. The Meeting Was Held in the Court of Common Pleas No. 2 in City Hall. On the Bench, From Left to Right, Are Judges Mayer Sulzberger, Samuel W. Pennypacker, President Judge Hare, William W. Wiltbank, James T. Mitchell and D. Newlin Fell. Sitting in the Witness Chair Is F. Carroll Brewster. The Leading Attorneys of the Day Constitute the "Morbidly Curious Spectators." (Illustrating Governor Pennypacker's "Autobiography of a Pennsylvanian," Which Is Appearing Temporarily on the Editorial Page of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.)

And Then He Did

—The Lampton.
"What's going to keep me from kissing you?"
"My goodness!"

Putting on We

—London Opinion.
"Hoots—but th' Army's the life fer me—I were nine stone when I joined up an' I'm fifteen th' now!"

THE PADDED CELL

Mutual Satisfaction

"Do you think your sister likes to have me come here, Johnny?"
"You bet. You take her to the theatre and bring her chocolates."
"I'm glad I can make her happy."
"Yes, and the young fellow what she's engaged to don't mind it either, for it saves him that much money toward housekeeping."

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she saw in the paper that the Barnard statue of Lincoln was a counterfeit presentment and it certainly was a pretty mean trick to play on Mr. Barnard to palm it off as genuine.

Also Transparent

Teacher—All things that can be seen through are called transparent. Fanny, mention something which is transparent.
Fanny—A pane of glass.
Teacher—Quite correct. Now, Fanny, mention some other object through which you can see.
Fanny—A keyhole.

SCHOOL DAYS

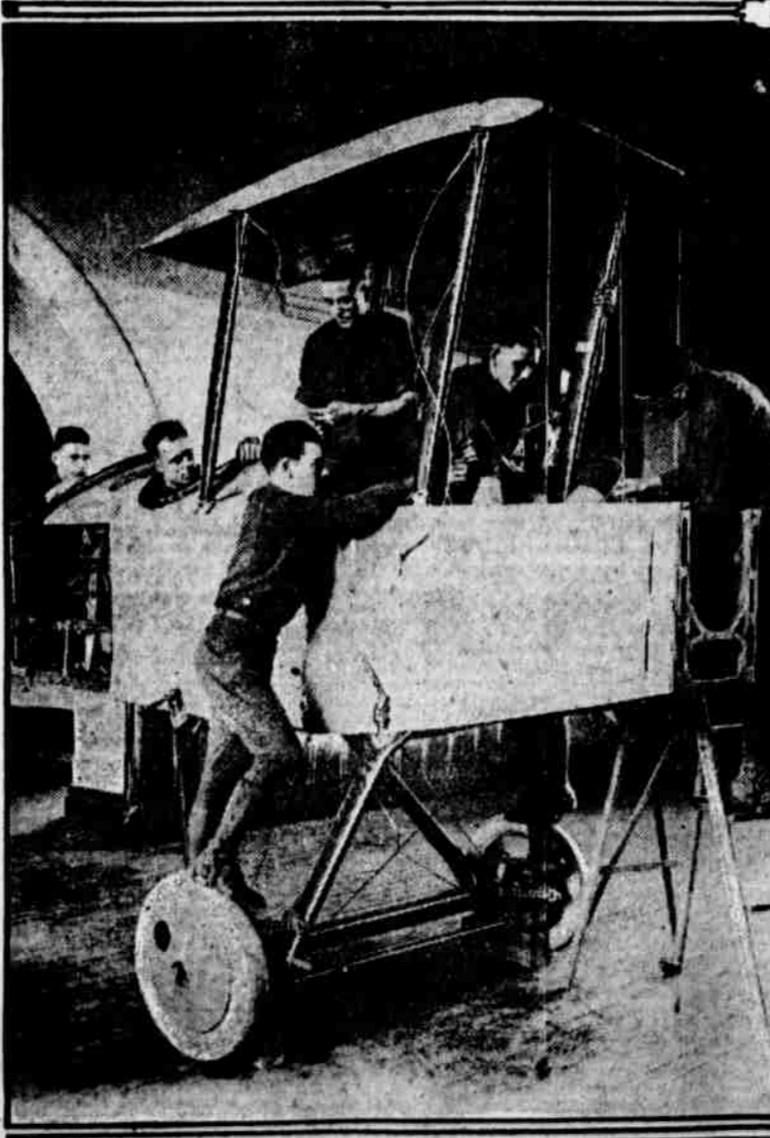

By DWIG

"Daddy, looky how nice I've shined up your shoes for you! Do you want me to clean the spots off your vest with denymine, or saythine?"

"Willie! Don't you know your pa's got a weak heart?"

—All Christmas!

A Model Airplane Is Used in Instructing Uncle Sam's Future Birdmen in the Mysteries of Flying. When the Students Receive Their Own Planes They Are Consequently Familiar With All the Parts.

Ellis A. Gimbel, President of the Philmont Country Club, Presenting a Sweater and Box of Candy to the Oldest and Youngest Caddies at the Club. They Are John Whar-ton, Sixty-three Years Old, and John Tomlinson, Nine Years Old.