

THE ORDNANCE EXPERT, HAS INVENTED A GUN WHICH WILL DELIVER A MUD BALL HALF A BLOCK DISTANT

PHOTOGRAPHIC PORTRAYAL OF THE LATEST NEWS HAPPENINGS

Commanding One of Uncle Sam's Newest Battleships Is Rear Admiral Spencer S. Wood, Recently Elevated to That Position.
Harris & Ewing

General Pershing Inspecting a French Munition Depot. With Its Seemingly Endless Rows of Shells Meant for the Hun Invaders in France.
Committee on Public Information

British Cavalry Crossing a Trench in Flanders by Means of a Road Thrown Across the Defensive System. Since the Battle of Cambrai Horsemen Have Again Come to Be Regarded as Essential in Modern Warfare.
Underwood & Underwood

Secretary of Labor Wilson Has Given These Three Sons to the Service of Uncle Sam. Left to Right: Private James K. Wilson, Lieutenant William B. Wilson, Jr., and Lieutenant Joseph B. Wilson.

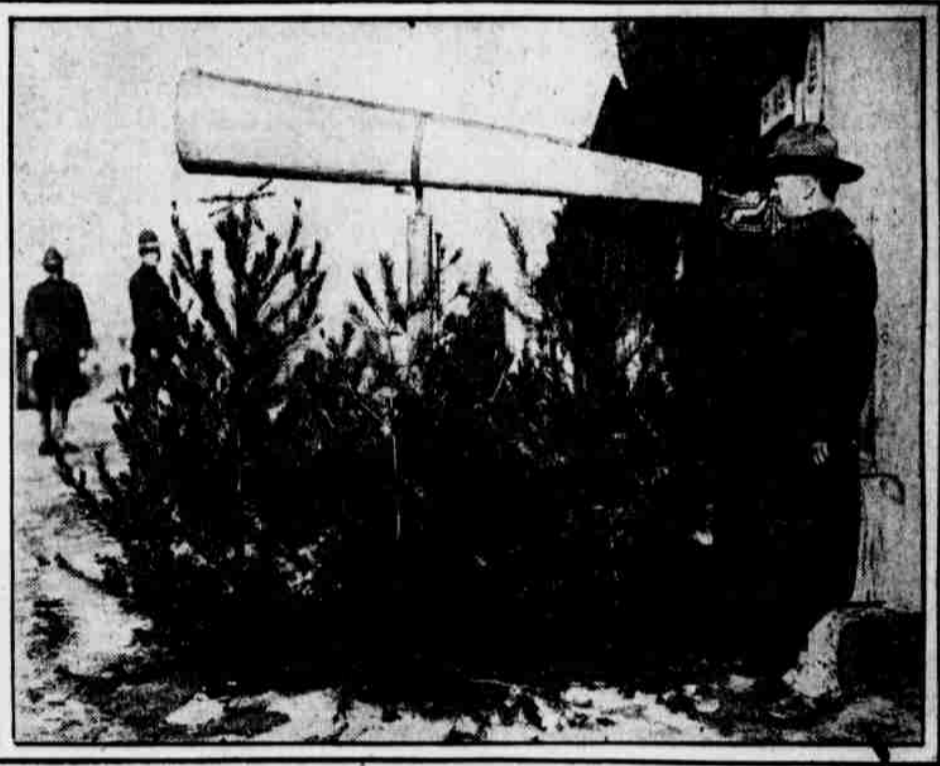

The young lady across the way says she guesses her father's doing all he can to relieve the food shortage, as she overheard him say he was holding 10,000 bushels of wheat.

Tommy Couldn't Tell
"My tooth," said Tommy, "ached awfully yesterday."
"Has it stopped?" asked his cousin, sympathetically.
"I don't know," said Tommy.
"What do you mean? Don't know if your tooth has stopped aching?"
"No, the dentist kept it."—Pearson's Weekly.

Members of the Committee of American Aid for French Wounded, Who, Under the Supervision of Miss Anne Morgan, Are Providing Shelter and Clothing for Inhabitants of Portions of France Recaptured from the Germans.
Harris & Ewing

A Regimental Megaphone at Camp Meade, by Means of Which Bugle Calls Are Magnified to Carry Great Distances Across the Cantonment.

Falls of the Schuylkill Male Chorus, Which Has Made Several Appearances This Season for Patriotic Funds and Worthy Charities.