That was the general hought in diplocatic quarters today, though American officials shed little right on what is proceeding beneath the surface.

Those believing the statement would be hurried argued that if it were made specific and so framed as to expose tier-many's duplicity at Brest-Litovsk it would stimulate the Busians not to re-sume dickering with the Teutons. And while doing this it would put the final crimp in Germany's desperate effort to force peace on a world unwilling to yield until it is safe from future Teuton since June 5 and for the yearly griefd until it is safe from future feath aggressions.

As for recognition of the Holshevik Government as a de facto regime there.

drastic course would not be necessary, the provos' marshal general aid it was not inconceivable that least of labor would be made, and hat the Government had full power or such a move.

General Crowder, in his annual resert sent to Congress today by Secreary Baker, takes the position that it necessary to retain workers in ship uilding operations, in munition factories and on farms, but he believes that the deferred classification will save of terms containing concentrations.

Do the dead talk with living? Spiritualism direct work of rebel imps

"Is spiritualism the work of disgraced timps and does the Kaiser communicate with fallen angels." will be the lecture theme of Dr. Benjamin Wilkinson Sunday evening in the Garrick Theatre. "I still reveal the part that Lucifer and his codemons are playing in this war," said to the Doctor to a reporter, "and with the Bible in hand I will explain how spiritualism pretends to permit the living to communicate with the dead."

Monday evening the Doctor will lecture at the Grand Fraternity Hall on Arch near 17th Street on "The Seven Last Plagues of Rev. 16, Are They Near."
