Here is Vigor CERVA is pure. Non-in-toxicating. And has the good taste of hops.

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1918

CONTINUE INCURSIONI

DEI SOLDATI ITALIANI

Sulla fronte nordica la neve e' caduta per 24 ore di seguito. Anche le comunicazioni nemicho ad oriente della regione del Friuli sono state completamente bloccate e le linee ferroviarlo, verso l'alto corso del Pave, sono state interrotte da valanghe di neve. make today:

"A wonderful victory for America as well as for its women. I am deeply thankful to feel justice is in sight." In commenting on the date, January 10. of the passage of the measure, Miss Katzenstein said: "I am thrilled to reca'l that it was the anniversary of two sign ficant happening. Forty years ago to a day

Prigionieri Teutoni

L'ARTIGLIERIA ATTIVA

it was the anniversary of two sign ficant happenings. Forty years ago to a day since the first introduction of the Susan B. Anthony amendment into the House of Representatives, and one year ago to a day since the first little group of bloketers marched from Cameron House 2 take their stand before the doors of the White House. Both events find their fulfillment in yesterday's victory. I feel every confidence that the Senate will follow the lead of the House.

Mrs. Edwin C. Girice, president of the Messaggio di Wilson ha Destato l'Unanime Ammirazione degli Italiani follow the lead of the House."

Published and Distributed Under Permit No. 341 Authorized by the Act of October 6, 1917, on file at the Postoffice of Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the President. A. S. BURLESON, Postmaster General.

Mrs. Edwin C. Grice, president of the Home and School League, said:

"So delighted that I have no statement. This is a challenge to all American womanhood to live up to its highest ideals. A grave and solemn responsibility on the women of the country. I believe it would be fitting for the women of the country to assemble in their several places of worship to offer thanks and freshly dedicate themselves to their God and their country."

"Although woman suffrage is fundamentally just, I do not believe in uni-The gray face of Doctor Shaw gave no encouragement to the flagging spirit. Her head sunk on her chest, her hands playing nervously on her lay, she was a picture of utter dejection.

"I felt that I couldn't bear a defeat," the beloved ploneer said afterward.

"My brain was numb. I couldn't take in what was going on."

Suffragists actually knell to Doctor Shaw last night before they turned into bed at the headquarters at 1622 ghound at the suffrage amendance twell and into bed at the headquarters at 1622 ghound at the suffrage amendance twell and into bed at the headquarters at 1622 ghound at the suffrage amendance twell and into bed at the headquarters at 1622 ghound at all, but surely believe that women has battled for more than a half contains battled for more than a half contains the privilege of voting should be decided at all, but surely believe that women should not be denied the vote simply the first on the galary late in the session after an educational test has been gat into the galary late in the session after trouble over their seats, likewise suffered a tremendous slump in optimism, a surface of the great woman in the galary late in the session after an educational test has been gat first the great woman after trouble over their seats, likewise suffered a tremendous slump in optimism, a treatment of the great woman in the galary late of the great woman who has battled for more than a half contained the privilege of voting should be decided at all, but surely believe that women should not be denied the vote simply the privilege of voting should be decided at an on numerosi ripartit. This incognizioni da parte delle truppe lating the privilege of voting should be decided after an educational test has been gated the privilege of voting should be decided after an educational test has been gated the privilege of voting should be decided after trouble over their seats, likewise suffered a tremendous slump in optimism, and the privilege of voting should be decided after the privilege of voting should be dec

La lotta della artiglierla genefal-mente non e' intensa, ma ad intervalli divente più violenta nel settore ad oriente del fiume Brenta. I nostri riparti di ricognizione cat-turarono dei prigionieri ad ovest di Coi di Sotto e provocarono un luasso fueco reazionario da parte del nemico. A Grave di Papadopoli riparti nemici di lavoro ed armati furono dispersi. streets. The proceeds will be donated Nelle vicinanze di San Duna' mortal da trincea del nemico furche ridotti al silenzio dalle nostre battarie. for the benefit of Catholic interests at If testo del discorse pronunza dal Presidente Wilson innanzi al Congresso Americana, giunse in Roma var a mazzanotte di mercoldi. Semitori e Deputati lessero premuroramente i dispacet el ebbero parodo di munimazione per il Presidente Wilson che seppe comprensi vamente stringere la situazione.

Un prominente statissa himarco, che

l Presidente Wilson o stato capace di completare l'idenzione del programma precedentemente studiato dal Presidente del Consiglio del Ministri Inglosi, Lioy I George, che mira agli accordi per una nuova societa' tra le nazioni civili dei

Wilson r.; sollevato un grande interesse, quanto il messaggio di pace del Papa, dello scorreo agosto. Il Senatore Tittoni, che fu gia' Minis-

Community Stores We Serve You Save

The Community Store Groces

is your neighborhood Grocer who has enlisted in a great forward movement, in the interest of your home, that enables him by force of numbers to guarantee to his patrons

> Prompt Delivery Service Acceptance of Telephone Orders A Continuance of Personal Store Service Privileges Reasonable Prices The purity of every article he sells have joined hands in this movement to provide for the housewife the efficient store service to which she is entitled—they aim to give every possible buying convenience—to make their stores the purchasing headquarters for all grocery needs—the store in your community where purchases can be made in comfort and personal interest attends every patron.

2100 Independent Retail Grocers

These grocers have in nowise surrendered the ownership or personal direction of their stores.

They are not governed by a central authority nor by an ordered rule.

Each maintains its own individuality-you deal directly with the proprietors or their assistants.

Their names will remain on their stores, but alongside is placed the COMMUNITY STORE sign-a reminder that your interest in your community demands your patronage go to your community grocer.

Your COMMUNITY STORE assures a high standard of Food Products-quality foods, well-known and extensively advertised brands-at the lowest prices for which "good foods" may be sold.

Your COMMUNITY STORE is working hand in hand with the Food Administration of the U.S. Government, to assist in every possible way in the efficient and economical distribution of all Food Products.

This is the Sign

Community Stores
We Serve You Save Look for

It means Real Service-Reasonable Prices, Pure Food Products-Fresh Stock, Acceptance of Telephone Orders, Prompt Delivery

PENNSYLVANIA—For the amendment: Vare, Edmonds, Costello, Darrow, Butler, Griest, Farr, Templeton, McFadden, Kiess, Rose, Brodbeck, Rowland, Robbins, Sterling, Temple, Clark, Strong, Beshlin, Porter, Kelly, Campbell, Scott. Total, 23.

Against the amendment—Moore, Watson, Heaton, Dewalt, Lesher, Focht, Kreider, Steele, Morin, Crago, Gagland, McLaughlin. Total, 12.

Absent—Graham.

NEW JERSEY—For the amendment: Bacharach, Scully, Hutchinson, Lehlbach, Eagan, Hamill. Total, 6.

Against amendment—Browning, Ramsey, Gray, Parker. Total, 4.

Absent—Capstick, Drukker.

DELAWARE—Polk, the only Delaware Congressman, voted against the amendment. TRIPLE RAII Casualties Inflicted

Snow Blocks Teuton nmunications in Mountains of Northern Front

TER AIDS ITALY

Germans Near

Ypres

THE STOP

British troops are continuing their by in the Ypres sector, successfully ag the enemy's trenches at three cant points, inflicting many casual-back capturing a few prisoners and suchine guns, Halg reports. They imported a strong reconnoitering the west of Zandwoorde, near the lines Canal, which Berlin says broke a without attaining its, object, and its in the western of the Upper Coucy Porest, the object of the Alsing, on the western of the Upper Coucy Porest, the object of the Alsing, on the western of the January ported against all small posts. That was the sole in reported on the French front, both Paris and Berlin speak of artillery duels at many points. r artillery duels at many points. Crown Prince made no effort to to the successful French attack of the St. Mihiel salient.

YOW BLOCKS FOE IN NORTHERN ITALY

Winter has seriously interrupted the brana, campaign in Italy, if it has not liked it altogether. The snow covers mountain front to a depth of from to five feet.

Monte Grappa, which is the central bint of the operations between the laye and the Brenta Rivers, has three let of snow, while further north the po-tions occupied by the enemy are buried a much greater depth. The snow bar-se much greater depth. The snow barser is operating strongly against the temp, as they are on the higher sumits while the Italians are on the lower round sloping toward the plain.

On Monte Grappa, which is the domiating summit held by the Italians, and a Monte Pertica and Monte Caprile.
sarby, held by the enemy, the canonade has decreased and there is lite activity beyond patrol movements. e activity beyond patrol movements.

Set of the soldiers are busy clearing a mountain paths so as to permit the analy movement of supplies. Huge actor snowplows are being used and edges are taking the place of trucks or currying food and munitions.

In addition to the interruption at the mmediate front, the heavy snowfall may lose the enemy's line of communication rom Austria southward into Italy. The principal route runs through the o, an Alpine pass, and has a rail-lown to Trent and thence to Primwhich is only ten miles from Monte Grappa and the fighting front. It is this route which has been open up to this time and has given the enem;

direct communication to the front.
While the lower section is not blocked, midications are that Stelvio pass, which the vital link in the route, is blocked from ten to fifteen feet of snow. The lyio is the highest pass in Europe, seeding nine thousand feet, and contocoding nine thousand feet, and consects the Adige valley of Austria with the Adda valley in Italy. Snows in that section invariably are followed by avanches which further block the valleys and available outlets.

Itsed until this time.

The uneasiness communicated itself to vice in the alignment of the suffragists. Had their confidence in the given pledge of the country's law- by his absence.

and available outlets.

Indications are that the enemy will a unable to carry on any large operations, particularly on the mountain cast, daring the period that his computations are growbound.

BACHARACH PICKS FIVE LADS FOR CADETSHIPS

Atlantic City Congressman Makes Appointments to Naval Academy and West Point

By a Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Three appointments to the Naval Academy and we to West Point were forwarded to he naval and military academies, respectively, this morning by Congressman Isaac Bacharach, of Atlantic City.

The three principal appointments to worker in this city. Because of her ad-

Walter Rockey, of Stone Harbor. Charles Sharp, 2710 Monterey avenue, Jack Corry, Riverton, N. J.
The two principal appoint

The two principal appointments to est Point were: Cornelius Garrison, Port Republic, N. J., and Louis Storck, 431 North Rhode Island avenue. alternate appointments for the aval Academy were:

First alternates — Hugh H. Sloss, correstown, N. J.; Maurice Brunstein,

South Vermont avenue, Atlantic J. Alfred Leconey, Moorestown, d alternates-Edward R. Dur-

Browns Mills, N. J.; George W., South North Carolina avenue, At-Third alternates—W. C. Frecke, Maple sde, N. J.; C. J. Johnson, Rivers.de, J.; Lloyd Seaman, Stone Harbor.

alternate appointments for the try Academy, where there are only instead of three alternate places, st alternate — J. Earl Warner, side, N. J.; Rebert R. Dorlan, 34 i Sovereign avenue, Atlantic City, ond alternate — Raymond Filer, and, N. J.; Fred Beigley, Vineland, asman Bacharach upon the recom-idation of the county superintend-of schools of South Jersey, repre-ted by him, following an examina-in held at Wildwood last month.

ES, CALLING TO MOTHER

Swallows Poison While at Home on Visit

CASTER, Pa., Jan. 11.—Walter er, twenty-eight years old, son in A. Sauer, committed suicide oning. His mother was aroused midnight when he called to a the reached the bedroom he it's all over, mother, Good-by, a fell unconscious to the floor, as employed on the Pennsylvanilroad between Allentown and City and was home on a visit.

HOW STATE VOTED ON SUFFRAGE

OF FINAL VICTORY IN SENATE

SUFFRAGISTS, IN TRIUMPH, SURE

Had he spoken sooner, his admirers argue, time would have been given the southern Democrats to raily from the blow struck at the heart of their States' rights fetich, and instead of a great victory a tragic defeat, in all probability would have resulted.

That these same southern gentlemen. however, resent bitterly having been placed in the uncomfortable position of either voting contrary to the wishes of either voting contrary to the wishes of their constituents or to the expressed idesire of the great leader of their party, the Chief Executive, was evident from the opposition speches of the debate. And yesterday's historic proceedings eft the so-called "solid South" just a little bit less solid than it has ever been before. Breaks in the Tennessee and Kentucky delegations were viewed with a sorrow that was almost plaintive because the men who believe eternal damnation, more or less, to be a fitting punishment for those tampering with the sacred States' rights and the immemorial belief that woman's place is in the sacred States' rights and the im-memorial belief that woman's place is in Republican enthusiasts naturally attribute the success to James R. Mann. Pale and broken, the Republican leader, who has been confined to Johns Hopskins Hospital for months with aliments described as desperate, crept to the House at a late hour to cast a favor-House at a late hour to cast a favor-Blows was sagainst the advice of his coming was against the advice of his doctors. He was received with a tremendous ovation, and without a doubt his actual presence acted as a great moral breakwater to stop the waves of mendous ovation, and without a doubt his actual presence acted as a great almost to a standstill. A second rollcall was taken and still the House was unsatisfied. Representatives, unmindful of their dignity or of Mr. Roberts's rule of parliamentary prosonal convictions be put aside.

As the time for the taking of the vote came on it became evident that the suffrage leaders and their friends had burt. The silence would be a standstill.

A second rollcall was taken and still the House was unsatisfied. Representatives, unmindful of their dignity or of Mr. Roberts's rule of parliamentary prosonal convictions be put aside.

As the time for the taking of the vote came on it became evident that the suffrage leaders and their friends had burt. The silence was taken and still the House was unsatisfied. Representatives, unmindful of their dignity or of Mr. Roberts's rule of parliamentary prosonal convictions be put aside.

A recapitulation was asked for and and howled their protestations in a perfect babel of noise.

suffrage leaders and their friends had burt. The been too generous to themselves in the was 'arf ar polls taken. Representative Raber, ling put it chairman of the Suffrage Committee, And the had predicted confidently that not only did the hill have the necessary two-thirds, but a substantial residue.

OPPOSITION GATHERS FORCE The opposition, however, developed unexpected strength. An air of nervousness seemed to sweep over the House. A careful diagnostician might have pro-nounced it an unmistakable case of Senate then. Senate then. Senate then. Senate then. Senate then. Sugar crop, and negotiations between the functional suffragists declare they mendous import of what was about to happen seemed not to have been real-tred until this time.

LONDON, Jan. 10.

troops are continuing their

Ypres sector, successfully memy's trenches at three is inflicting many casualis but another bit of astute statesmanship, lose the ground gained by decades of

The gray face of Doctor Shaw gave

Even after the two amendments to the Even after the two amendments to the amendment were defeated things continued to look dark. The first amendment provided a referendum to be submitted, not to the State Legislatures, but to the electorate. And the second appended the seven-year provision which was successfully hitched on the prohibition amendment mand on December 19.

A recapitulation was asked for and granted. The tensity of the suspense furt. 'The silence 'ung 'en 'eavy you was 'arf afraid to speak,' as Mr. Kip-

And then the Speaker's steatorian voice ended the awful agony.
"Two hundred and seventy-four for the affirmatives; 136 for the negatives.
The amendment has passed."
It was thus that January 10, 1918, was made an historic date, as January 10 exactly for the market.

It was thus that January 10, 1918, was made an historic date, as January 10 exactly form.

was made an historic date, as January 10, exactly forty years ago, was made historic when Susan B. Anthony brought the first amendment into Congress, the cabled advices said, because Cuban railways and industries face paralysis due to an impending coal famine. "We are LPHIA SUFFRAGE LEADERS VOICE JUBILATION Interactly without bread at any price," the cablegram added, "and the coal supply will be exhausted at the end of the present month. The United Railways of Havana and the Cuba Railroad have only coal enough on band to be a complete to the cable result of the coal supply will be exhausted at the read at any price," the cablegram added, "and the coal supply will be exhausted at the road of the order. PHILADELPHIA SUFFRAGE votes on the amendment in the House

Mrs. Sarah A. Steele, for nearly half century an advocate of suffrage, was the first Philadelphia woman to make a statement. She said last night: "I cannot tell you how happy I am that I have lived long enough to see the

Mrs. Steele is the oldest suffrage worker in this city. Because of her advanced age, seventy-three years, Mrs. Steele no longer takes an active part in suffrage work, but the "old guard" recall her as one of the most sincere champions of the movement. She made her first suffrage speech in Marshalltown, Ia. in

Miss Caroline Katzenstein, of the National Woman's Party, has re-ceived the following telegram from Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the party, who wired:

"Today we rejoice, and for the moment that is all we do. With tomorrow we shall begin to press for the immediate passage of the amendment through the Senate."
"Four years." "Four years ago we lacked only eleven votes in the Senate. Our strength has grown enormously; victory should be easy. It is not now a question of vic-

Philadelphia suffrage circles are jubi- tory or defeat, but how quickly we can lant over the results of the suffrage secure submission of the amendment to only coal enough on hand to last until February 1. If the United States Govthe States and begin the campaign for ratification. With the official support of every political party we believe that the world.

CAMPAGE AND THE PARTY OF THE PA Where are You Going Tonight? Do you dance? No? Well, it matters not. Our Music and

"Yesterday's result is certainty a long step forward," concluded Mrs. Nichols That little time will be lost or wasted in rejoicing is the opinion of the suffrage leaders of the city it seems. A cam-

CUBA FACES FAMINE

IN FLOUR AND COAL

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.

Reported Crisis Jeopardizes Marketing of Island's Record-Breaking Sugar Crop

Grave economic conditions through the Cuba, due to a famine in foodstuffs and a coal shortage, were reported yester-day in cabled advices from high official sources in Hayana to the Cuban News

Bureau here. There is no flour on the island and the baking of bread ended selling at $1 a pound and more, with little on the market. This crisis in Suba's of Jence, coming at a time when the chergies of the Cubans are centered on the production of their record-breaking 3,500,000-ton

CLAUDE M. MOHR, Mgr.

How the "Christian" forces of Germany joined with the infidel Turk in unspeakable atrocities upon defenseless Armenia—the treachery of a German missionary—the slaughter and slavery of 70,000 women and

Tomorrow's PUBLIC & LEDGER

Kultur in Armenia

children-

Details of a national crime which, for sheer barbarism, transcends even the occupation of Belgium-told by an eyewitness in