Morning Musicale and Afternoon Talk-French Play to Be Given in Aid of Auxiliare No. 16 Beaumont de Perigord on Wednesday Night

rs Monday again, girls and boys, and so you know there was the Morning Musiat 11 o'clock at the Bellevue and there as the delightful talk this afternoon at the ndence Square headquarters of the nerican Red Cross by Mr. William T. lis, who has just returned from a trip brough Petrograd, Moscow, Kiev, the sucasus Mountains and Siberia, and eneys the distinction of having been, so to sk, the last man out of Russia.

Well, Mr. Ellis told the workers this ternoon of his experiences in that icken country. Do you know that pretty ittle June Ramsey, who is here with the Otis Skinner company, was at this auxilary one day last week, in her Red Cross me making dressings and pneumonia ckets and everything else that this enrprising auxiliary has to be done. You mow, the members of the stage women's par relief go down to this auxiliary, No. 76, when they have spare time in Philaphis. They have no particular headparters of their own here, as in New York, ind so they chose the Independence Square uxillary in this city. They have a bluend-white shield on their caps and a posr of the shield is placed over the tables t which they work.

THE next thing now is the French play, "Frere d'Armes," which Mrs. Clarrie colan is getting up. It is to be given at he Bellevue-Stratford next Wednesday eveing at 8 o'clock. The play is to be given for the benefit of Auxiliare No. 16, Beauont de Perigord, in the province of Dorfogne, France. This hospital, or "auxilare," is run_by les Mademoiselles Delpit and they are doing splendid work.

The play was written especially for the asion by Mademoiselle Marie Antoinette Delpit and is founded on an interesting sode which occurred in the village in which the hospital is situated. Mile, Marie antoinette Delpit is head of the hospital and her sisters, Mile. Louise Delpit and Mile. Cecile Delpit, are here in this country and are working hard to raise funds or the upkeep of the hospital. Dr. Charles A Reese, of Milford, Conn., is chief physician at this Franco-American hospital, and Dr. Edouard Delpit, a brother of the three Miles. Delpit, is working at the hospital

The Diepit girls were all educated at one of the French convents of the Sacred Heart by the religious of that society, who have convents in this city on Arch street and at Eden Hall, Torresdale.

Alix Dolan is going to take a leading part in the play, and other girls in it will be Peggy and Polly Thayer, Anne Ashton, Lucile Carter, Alberta Reath and Fifi Widener; also one of the French teachers of Miss Baldwin's school in Bryn Mawr. Besides the play, Scoutmaster Mary Packard, of Villanova Troop, is going to have her Girl Scouts drill. Don't you think it will be very interesting?

MONG the patronesses will be Mrs. ABarclay Warburton, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Mrs. Edward Stotesbury, Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Robert Kelso Cassatt, Mrs. A. J. Antelo Devereux, Mrs. Howard Henry, Mrs. Harry Waln Harrison, Mrs. Herbert Lloyd, Mrs. J. Gardner Cassatt, Mrs. Thomas Leaming, Mrs. William C. Scull, Mrs. Thomas McKean, Mrs. Samuel D. Riddle, Mrs. Francis I. Gowen, Mrs. Thomas Doian, Mrs. Thomas J. Dolan, Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge, Mrs. George Brooke, Mrs. William Struthers Ellis, Mrs. Arthur Emlen Newbold, Mrs. George Packard, Mrs. Thomas G. Ashton, Mrs. P. Williamson Roberts, Mrs. G. Assheton Carson, Mrs. Edgar T. Scott and Mrs. boxes have been sold and almost all the tickets, so if you want to go you had better get busy and call Mrs. Dolan and tell her you want some tickets, for there are only two more days. It's going to be an early play, too, so don't be late, for the girls declare they will commence at 8 clock sharp.

AMONG the box holders are Mrs. Van Rensselaer, Mrs. Stotesbury, Mrs. Clyde, Mrs. Gardner Cassatt, Mrs. Bobbie Cassatt, Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Leaming, Mrs. Riddle. Mrs. Petey Roberts, Mrs. John Sanford, of New York; Mrs. Clarence Dolan, Mrs. Tom Dolan, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Ellis, Mrs. Gowen, Mrs. Strawbridge, Mrs. Newbold, Mrs. Widener, Mrs. William Warden, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe, Mrs. Charl-ton Yarnall, Mrs. Franklin McFadden and Mrs. Paul Denckla Mills.

NoT so long ago two young people we all know were married, with the usual assurance that no one could possibly spot them, as bride and groom. They left for their honeymoon, and if we were to believe their story it would seem that, contrary to all expectations, they had succeeded in keeping it a secret. Unfortunately for them, however, a little bird told me something that happened, and I am going to pass it on as a warning to future brides and grooms who wish to save themselves a few laughs from the cruel public.

With all the nonchalance in the world said the little bird to me) they walked into the hotel lobby and, barring the fact that their baggage looked suspiciously new, they didn't attract particular attention, for the discreetly in the corner, while hubby ad-ranced with much dignity to the desk and se had engaged, and then just to show how pletely he was at his ease he took up pen and signed his name boldly and with purish, John Smith, Philadelphia, then ned to go with a world-weary sigh!

"Pardon me, but haven't you forgotten thing?" said the fresh-looking clerk. "I think not," said the groom, though er began to clutch at his heart. "Well, then, haven't you forgotten some goodness sake don't forget her especially before the eyes of a hotel clerk, who is a veritable Sherlock Holmes on the track of all newlyweds. And if you want to keep little wifey happy, don't write "and wife," just as if she were one of your goods and chattels, Remember she's with you is time to write Mr. and Mrs. John Smith. 1 hope this sinks home.

Century Club in Lansdowne on Friday Evening

It is splendid to see how many affairs are being given all the time for the Red Cross, Out in Lansdowne entertainments of various kinds are arranged all the time for this cause, the Lansdowne auxiliary gaining considerable support from them. The latest benefit is a dance which is to be held at the Twentieth Century Club on Friday evening. The Tau Sigma Phi Sorority has charge of ill.

The B-Natural Music Club is also planning a musicale anad short sketch which it will give for the Red Cross on Wednesday evening, February 6. This affair will be given at the home of Miss Mar's O'Brien, and as many of the members of the club have a decided amount of talent it will of course

A meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Louis L. Gerstenberger on Thursday evening.

The Century Club is planning to have a woman's chorus. For some time this has been the desire of some of the members, and at the last meeting, on Tuesday afternoon, it was finally decided upon. Mrs. William A. McEwen is organizing the chorus, and it will be under the direction of Mr. Henry Hotz. The chorus will probably meet one afternoon of each week, and in the spring a concert will be given. The women have earnestly felt that some music in their lives is needed now more than ever, and the chorus will surely prove to be a real pleasure to them. Some of the junior members are also going to join the chrus, which will be quite a large one.

The juniors had a meeting at the clubhouse last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Oscar S. Kimberley gave a very bright and interesting review of Edna Ferber's book. "Fanny Herself." which was hugely appreciated by the girls. Miss Betty Marion played several The Century Club is planning to have a

Mrs. McEwen spoke to the girls about the chorus that has been planned by the club and Mrs. Eppelshelmer told them of the club's decision to have a service day every Tuesday, and have the club open all day, when any one who wants to may come and help with the work to be done. Just at present this work will be bandage rolling, the making of surgical dressings and the knitting of gloves, as there is a great necessity for these gloves in some of the camps.

It was decided at the junior meeting that the proceeds of the card party which the girls gave during Christmas week should be divided between the Baby's Hospital in Llanerch, the Armenian Relief and the Traveler's Ald Society.

Lansdowne certainly ought to be proud of the part it played in the recent Red Cross membership drive. The quota was $90, and actually double that many memberships were secured, for on New Year's Eve, when the campaign came to a close, the Lansdowne Red Cross Branch had gained 1605 new men.hers. The number seems almost incredible and certainly shows how hard the Lansdowners worked. Mr. E. Wager-Smith and Mr. Horace Paul Dorman had charge of the drive out there, and some of the Red Crossers who secured the greatest number of memberships were Mrs. C. H. Spayd, Mrs. Raymond Young, Mrs. Thomas M. Love, Mrs. Andrew S. M. Young, Miss Mabel Phillips, Miss Garrett, Mrs. M. G. Cook, Miss Emilie Groce, Mrs. John Solenberger, Mr. Howard Read and Mrs. Frank C. Nieweg.

Last week Mrs. Franks D. Maxwell entertained the representatives of the various departments of the Americanisation Federation of Lansdowne at a luncheon given at her home. Mrs. Maxwell herself is at the head of this organization, and is deeply interested in the work it has been accomplishing. Her guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Isaac H. A successful card party was given at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Moelbert, 124 Apaley street, Germantown, last Tuesday evening. The purpose of the entertainment was to raise funds for the purchase of blankets for the boys located at Camp Wheeler, Ga. It was owing to the tireless work of Mrs. Moelbert and Mrs. John msley, assisted by the women of the neighborhood, that the gratifying amount of $73 was raised.

During the meeting it was announced by the committee in charge that if any one would give them the names of some men stationed at any of the various camps they would be very glad to send them reading matter, such as books and magazines.
