CAPTURED

A True and Thrilling Tale of the Experiences of a Wounded Canadian Officer Who Fell Into the Hands of the Enemy.

By LIEUT. J. HARVEY DOUGLAS Fourth Canadian Mounted Rifles (Copyright, 1918, by Public Ledger Co.)

AS SOON as we arrived in Murren we were each assigned duties. Lieutenant Hubbs had been sent away in charge of a party of men to do some civil work for the Swiss Government, and I was appointed his successor as editor of the freely arranged in the various hotels.

SOLDIERS VISITED BY WIVES

Through the generosity of the people in England, an arrangement had been made whereby the soldiers' wives, in groups of eighteen, were sent free of charge to spend two weeks with their husbands in Switzerland.

GOT RIGHT TO WORK

As soon as Mr. Woods found that British prisoners were to be interned in Switzerland he at once applied for permission to come here and give them the benefit of his services.

A CRUEL PRACTICE

I spoke to a great number of men who had had limbs amputated, and in almost every case the bones were not cut far enough back to allow the flesh to grow over the end and form a cushion for an artificial limb.

INTERESTING STATISTICS

Mr. Woods keeps an exact record of every patient, and below will be found some interesting statistics of his work during the last year:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Address. Includes entries for Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Gills, Mrs. Thibaud, etc.

Nikky laughed suddenly and flung the boy to his shoulder. "Of course he is," he cried gaily. "And you are, and the Chancellor. And I am, of course." He stroked the boy on the cheek.

"Not a bit of it, young man!" "But I think she is," he persisted. "She's always known when you are."

While they played, overhead the great house was ready at last. Its woodwork shone. Its gold crosses gleamed. No flock of dust disturbed its austere magnificence.

Civil Service Examinations. The Civil Service Commission has announced open competitive examinations for assistant market milk specialists, at a salary of from $1500 to $1750 a year, and assistant in forest pathology, at a salary of from $1200 to $1410 a year.

Where Good Food

Advertisement for The New W Hotel Anover, featuring a lamp illustration and text: "predominates at prices that barely cover the service. A trifle off the high-priced avenues, but yet within easy walking distance of any downtown attraction."

Packard advertisement text: "Packard Annual Mid-Winter Sale of Used Cars. During This Week. A most stupendous Used Car Event, offering a big selection of makes and various types, including Renewed and Guaranteed Twin-Six Packards (the car of ultimate economy)."

CHAPTER XX The Delegation. Prince Ferdinand William Otto was supremely happy. Three quite delightful things had happened.

"You're going to stay now, aren't you?" "I am, Nikky's voice was fervent. "Where did you go when you went away?"

"I took a short and foolish excursion, Highness. You see, while I look grown-up I dare say I am really not. Not quite, anyhow. And now and then, like other small boys I have heard of, I—well, I run away. And am sorry afterward, of course."
