Northcliffe Begins Bitter Campaign Against Higher Command

CAMBRAI IS CRUX

Byng's Reverse Is Lever Used in Attempt to Pry Out Army Leaders

LONDON, Jan. 22. The Daily Mail's bitter strack on the War Office and the higher command of the army has created a senantion throughout the country. Coincident with this comes the unnouncement of the resignation of Colonel Replacton, the military correspondent of the Times. Both newspapers are under Lord Northeliffe's direction, and the public couples the two incidents. Colonel Repington is considered the Colonel Repington is considered the foremost military critic in Eugland. He is credited with exceptional inside knowledge of the army and acquaint ance with the higher officers. The baily Mail publishes a two-col-umn contributed article in connec-tion with the finding of the staff, ap-nounced in the House of Commons on Thesias, that the British higher army command had not been surprised by the German attack on the Cambrai fran ten November 39, when the British the offensive a few days carlier. The article says that the Govern-ment, under the pressure of the gen-eral staff, is hushing up the incident, while the Germans claim to have cap-tared or destroyed by tanks and to have taken 9000 men and 100 guns. The writer adds: "A particular army clique has had "A particular army clique has had supreme military control for two years and has repeatedly failed to fulfill its own expectations and promises." The Mall editorially indorases the writer of this article, blaming the Earl of Derby, Secretary for War, and General Sir William Robertson, cliff of the general taff, whose removial it suggests is desirable. It declares the public would like to see a man of the type of Sir Eric Geddes First Lord of the Admiralty, at the War Office. The article in the Daily Mult is signed.
