For several days there have been reports of riots in the Austro-Hun garian industrial centers and the unrest has been growing. Although the Austian Government asserts that the general strike has been settled by a compromise, the regulations governing public meetings and the press have been tightened. .All political literature, except the mass-meetings in Vienna are being broken up at the point of the bayonet. The German militarists are exerting powerful influence upon the Austro-Hungarian Government, urging drastic steps to check the unrest.

GENEVA, Jan. 24. A mutiny has broken out in the Vienna garrison and the soldiers refused to fire on mobs that were destroying property, according to information from the frontier today.

It was reported that numerous food shops were pillaged and that anarchists were openly defying the authorities.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 24. Austrian Socialist leaders are "experiencing difficulty in controlling the extremists of their party," according to delayed messages received today from Vienna.

The dispatch reported 200,000 Viennese still striking, At Budapest he strike partially continues.

Austrian Eruption

REVOLUTION has broken out in Vienna according to wireless dispatches received by the Bolsheviki at Petrograd.

The revolutionists have already named a provisional cabinet, according to this report.

Neither Londor nor Washingion has any confirmation of the Petrograd statement, but Geneva has a report from the frontier of a mutiny of the Vienna garrison, which refused to fire on mobs that were destroying property.

Delayed dispatches from Vienna, via Copenhagen, declare 200,000 persons in that city were still on strike, and Austrian sosocialist leaders were "experiencing difficulty in controlling the extremists of their party.'
