

OF 50,000 MARINES SOUGHT

General Barnett Increases Before Naval Committee

ARMY NOW INSUFFICIENT

Work Accomplished by Branch of Service Regarded by Many as Most Popular

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—A movement is well under way to increase the strength of the marine corps to 50,000 men. General Barnett, commander in chief of the marine corps, recommended the increase to Congress last Saturday, when he appeared before the Naval Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives.

BAKER FORECASTS BIG U-BOAT DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Secretary of War Baker believes that Germany is not only preparing for a big drive on London, but that the "most powerful offensive hitherto undertaken" is to be made by submarines.

WEST FRONT ACTIVE

In connection with Mr. Baker's statement of the withdrawal of enemy submarines, it was pointed out that the "most powerful offensive hitherto undertaken" is to be made by submarines.

NEW TRAFFIC PLANS MADE AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—With thousands of industries and business houses closed throughout the country today because of the "heatless holiday," the second "heatless holiday" today and could sweep the eastern seaboard, closing freight.

WEEKERLE REORGANIZES HUNGARIAN CABINET

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—The resignation of the members of the Hungarian cabinet has been accepted by King Charles IV. The new cabinet is headed by Count Wekerle.

MAN SHOT DEAD IN ROAD

Caught in Ambush Near Mahanoy City, Police Believe

MAHANAY CITY, Pa., Jan. 28.—Shot through his neck from ambush, Charles Schwartz, thirty-two years old, married and with one child, was found dead, between this city and Mahanoy.

FALSE ALARM IN BLIZZARD

Police Seeking Culprit Who Pulled Box at Third and Walnut Streets

Police are searching for the practical joker who pulled a fire alarm box at Third and Walnut streets shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

Final Millinery Clearance

Every Winter Hat in our stock, about two hundred and fifty winter hats. Regardless of former prices. For women and misses.

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Peace Talks Mask for Big Teuton Drive

Information has been received from Amsterdam that the German submarine fleet is being overhauled and fitted out with heavier guns and that new units are being added to it.

ALLIES ARE PREPARING

While the Germans have been reorganizing their army on the western front, putting young soldiers on the line and moving them into Belgium from Russia, the Allies have been working feverishly preparing for the expected attack.

RECALLED BY BLIZZARD

MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1888 Weather forecast—"Looks like rain."

ODIOUS COMPARISONS

MONDAY, JANUARY 28, 1918 Weather forecast—"Cloudy and colder, probably snow."

SNOW ADDS TERRORS TO TROLLEY TRAVEL

Lines Blockaded and Hapless Passengers Held Up for Long Intervals

TRANSIT 'BANANA LINE'

So Dubbed Waiting Hundreds, Because Cars Come in Bunches When They Move

It was lucky that today was workless Monday. The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company would have had a herculean task on its hands—that of getting thousands of Philadelphians to work on time.

WIDE LABOR REFORMS DEMANDED IN GERMANY

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 28.—German unionists are demanding wide labor reforms in connection with the denunciation of Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister.

RECORD SNOW STORM TIES UP CITY, STATE AND NATION

Continued from Page One

and in the coal regions mines were shut down because the miners were snowed out of their homes.

NEW SNOW FALL IN CHESTER COUNTY

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 28.—With eight inches of snow already falling since early last night and still falling thickly, being driven by a high wind, Chester County is in the grip of the elements today.

SNOW BLOCKS COAL TRAINS AT POTTSVILLE

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 28.—A heavy snowstorm from the East, which began in the early morning and continued through the day, has almost completely tied up railroad traffic, so far as the transportation of coal is concerned.

TODAY'S SNOWSTORM RECALLS 1889 BLIZZARD

The blizzard of 1889, which today's storm is a measure recalled, was referred to in one of the Weather Bureau reports as follows: The storm of February 1889, when 22.4 inches of snow fell in Philadelphia, is almost impossible to surpass as far as it is concerned.

Baker Faces Critics: Tells of Triumphs

Continued from Page One

Meatless Days Wheatless Days Heatless Days But just so long as we do not reach the Eatless Days Come to the Hotel Adelphia Chestnut at 13th

BONWIT TELLER & CO. Individual Lingerie Shop THIRTEENTH AND SANSON STS. For Tomorrow, Tuesday Exposition de Blanc

Worry Causes Farmer's Suicide YOUNG, Pa., Jan. 28.—Harry Landis, twenty-four years old, a farmer who several years ago by recklessly driving an automobile ran over and killed Bruce Arpsberger, fifteen years old, committed suicide yesterday by shooting. The killing of the boy, it is said, proved a heavy blow to the farmer's mind and caused him to end his life.

BONWIT TELLER & CO. The Specialty Shop of Originations CHESTNUT AT 13th STREET For Tuesday Pre-Inventory Sale The Entire Stock of Women's and Misses' Winter Wearing Apparel Regardless of Cost Women's Velour and Plush Coats (fur trimmed) 16.50 Women's Plush Coats, large fur collars and bandings 22.50 Women's Velour Coats, coney and nutria fur trimmed 25.00 Women's High-Grade Velour Coats, nutria collar 28.50 Women's Georgette, Serge and Crepe de Chine Dresses 25.00 Women's Afternoon and Evening Gowns, in silk nets, embroidered georgettes, crepe meteor and satin 35.00 Women's Afternoon and Evening Gowns, of chiffon velvet, embroidered charmeuse, crepe meteor and chiffon 45.00 Women's Burella Cloth Suits 22.50 Women's Velour and Burella Cloth Suits (fur trimmed) 28.00 Women's Advanced Model Suits, in velour 38.50 Women's Velvet Suits, of the unusual type 50.00 Women's Blouses, of handkerchief linen, trimmed in copen blue; also plain white (very special) 7.50 Women's Voile Shirt, collar can be worn high or low 5.00 Women's Shirt, of moon-glo silk, in flesh or white 12.50