JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Colonel Steele Addresses Workers at Independence Square Red Cross Auxiliary—A Class Meets in Merion Each Week, Says Nancy Wynne

Independence Square Auxiliary of the ad Cross, at 608 Chestnut street, on Mon-ay afternoons, has been transferred this sek to Thursday; in other words, today, nd Colonel Steele, head of the British ecruiting office will speak to the women the work at this auxiliary. The Inde-endence Square Auxiliary has started up regular surgical dressings class, such is taught at headquarters and quite a sher are enrolled already among the udents. Think of it, recently they were sked for 2009 dressings in three weeks' ime and sent more than $600, and these hings included large and difficult dressings and bandages, pneumonia jackets and ther such things. It is certainly a most consider the set of activity rishing center of activity.

RED CHOSS relief work class of which I have heard only recently meets every ednesday morning at the home of Mrs. ercy Simpson in Merion. The class is posed of a number of the younger set. arried and otherwise, and includes Gladys tarle Mather, Isabel Gest, Doris Dexter, atherine Ogden, Theodora Lillie, Kathrine Jenney, Natalle Davis and Alice Mebe Simpson. Alice Simpson, you know, spending the winter with her mother-inw in Lieutenant Simpson's absence.

TISTEN, my dears, to the sad experience recently undergone by a certain young atron of the Main Line. Her youthful isband, while not forced to associate with he ordinary run of humans, is a most lert and democratic sort of person, hopbing on every occasion with bootblacks, ewsboys and others whose purses unformately are not as fat as is his own. "Count that day lost whose low-descendng sun," he has been quoted as having sid to his wife, "finds me not a new riend made in the course of my peregritions hither and thither. In other words, LIKE to talk to people; and whenever get a chance, especially when I'm travelng, I am going to talk to 'em. I feel lost I don't make a new friend every trolley r train trip I make." Think of it! She smiled indulgently, nd he meantime continue! striking up ev acquaintances among motormen and tevedores. If it pleased him, she would t interfere.

But a slight shock was registered one gening. It opened new and unthought-of sibilities, when he announced: "I met a charming young girl tonight

ing over on the bus." "Who was she?" asked Mrs. --, mildly terested. (It was most considerate of her, king into account the fact that they've married only some eighteen moons.) "I don't know her name." he responded. didn't ask her name. I was too much terested."

"HENRY!" exclaimed Mrs. Henry, "Tes," boasted Henry. "And she seemed well interested in me, too. We alked together over from the bus. What's matter?" "I don't believe you," said startled Mrs.

nry. "You're joking." "It's the truth," said he, "I don't believe you," reiterated Mrs.

"L don't believe you! I don't believe

"It's the truth." he repeated. Well, they dropped the matter and ap rently neither thought more of it. SHE in't, of course. Time passed.

One day he and she bundled up the baby nd brought it to town to exhibit it to miring relatives. The train was crowded. erms - baby - heavens! 'Mrs. Henry

THE talk which is usually held at the to his grandmother, Mrs. Henry Wickham, at Devon.

Mrs. William A. Nichols, of St. Davids. announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Agnes Nichols, to Mr. Frank Keen simon, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morse Shanbacker, of Front Creek Banch, North Fork, Cody, Wyo., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son. Mrs. Shanbacker will be remem-bered as Miss Florine Pearson, of German-

Miss Resalie Hoban, of 1605 South Broad street, has returned to her home after spend-ing a week in New York.

Mrs. James B. Bonner, of Overbrook, who has taken apartments in Washington for the winter, has been spending a few days in this sity, Miss Doris Wetherhes, daughter of Mrs. F. T. Wetherhes, of Wyncole, entertained in-formally on Monday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, of Mount Mr. and Mrs. James Daugherty, of Mount Airy, announce the marringe of their daugh-ter. Miss Helen Alice Daugherty, to Mr. Everett Carlton Sunderland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sunderland, of 5406 North Fifth preet, Tabor. The welding took place yesterday. Miss Dougherty was attended by her cousin, Miss Laura E. Waenke, and the best man was Mr. Harry E. Davis.

Members of Auxiliary No. 75 American Red Cross, who meet at the Bethlehem Baptiet Church, at Eighteeuth and York streets, received a note from headquarters recently commending their splendid work. An election of officers was held this week with the following result: Mrs Joseph Elmer, president; Mr. H. Whalen, vice presi-dent, and Miss Millick, scretary and treaslent, and Miss Millick, secretary and treas urer.

The show given by the Liberty Minstrels The show given by the Liberty Minstrels was such a decided success at the United Service Club on South Twenty-second street last Sunday night that the performance will be repeated. The production was directed by Miss Gertrude E. Wilson, of 1537 South Fifteenth street, who is well known in dra-matic circles throughout the city. The cast included Miss Elizabeth Morrison, Miss Eliza-beth La Roche, Miss K. Wilson, Miss Logenhherdeed Miss Edizabeth Morraon, Miss Ediza-beth La Roche, Miss K. Wilson, Miss Joseph-ine Wilson, Miss Anna Till, Mr. William Selby, Mr. Samuel Canter, Mr. F. J. Noble, Mr. Henry Valardi and Mr. Christopher Name

Mr. Harry D. Holloway left today for Palm Beach, Miami and other Florida reorts to remain until spring.

Miss Gladys Kochersperger, of Merchantville, N. J., entertained a number of her friends from Philadelphia and Merchantville

Friends of Miss Allee Loughlin, of Hunt-ing Park avenue, will be glad to know that she is rapidly recovering from her recent operation for appendicitis.

DANCE TOMORROW

IN HOLMESBURG

Dance at Recreation Center, Another at Home for Indigent in Aid of Red Cross

Another dance will be given tomorrow evening at Craig's Hall, by the Helmesburg Recreation Centre. The chaperous of the dance will be Mrs. Robert Matthews, Mrs. M. Tiluz, Mrs. William Short, Mrs. Frederick Richard, Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. Ernest J. Habgood, Mrs. Rudolph Snyder, Miss Katharing Patter and Miss J. Hahgood, Mrs. Rudolph Snyder, Miss Katherine Petty and Miss Mary Glenn. These affairs have been so successful in the past that a most enjoyable time is anticipated by all those who have previously attended these documents.

these dances. Mrs. H. E. Mounce will give a dance in the suditorium at the Home for Indigent. State road and Rhawn street, tomorrow night for the benefit of the Tacony branch of the Red Cross, Mrs. Robert Salmon, of Rhawn street and Mrs. Robert Salmon, of Rhawn street and Frankford road, is spending several weeks in Washington, D. C. Miss Regina Palmer, of Rhawn street, will entertain the members of her knitting club at her home tomorrow avenue.

at her home tor

Hall, South Philadelphia,

FIFTY-FIRST ANNUAL BALL ON MONDAY

Philopatrian Literary Institute Will Have Elaborate Decorations for Yearly Affair at Bellevue

The fifty-first annual ball of the Catholic Philopatrian Literary Institute, which will be given at the Bellevue-Stratford on Monday vening, promises to have the success that dwaya characterizes this affair.

The proceeds of the affair. The proceeds of the affair will be given for the Knights of Columbus War Camp Fund. This appeal has touched the particitism of all people, and subscriptions varying from five to five hundred dullars each have been received. An interesting item is the fact that nearly one thousand dollars has been sent in anonymously, showing the unusually broad appeal of the Knights of Columbus War Fund.

The decorations have been planned on an The decorations have been planned on an elaborate scale and will feature the national colors. The boxes will be decorated with candelabra, holding large bouquiets of red, white and blue thewers and draped with rib-bon streamers of the national colors. The lowered atage will be covered with banks of flowers and behind a screen of palms and ferms an orchestra of seventy-two pieces will play.

play. The musical program has been specially arranged for the occasion and contains a article blending of the national airs of the Allies and the familiar Irish melodies. The Clover Room has also been engaged, and another orchestra will play in that room in order to give every one an opportunity to dance. In place of the grand march of former cars, the ball will open with a minuet at 39 o'clock. The dancers, who include some of the best amateurs in the city, have been trained by Miss Marguerite Walz, who will dance a pas seul later in the evening. Other young women will act as aides, wearing large picture hats and carrying graceful basicts of flowers. Among these will be Miss Alma Fitzpatrick, who will wear a gown of flesh-colored satin, draped with tuile and silver lace; Miss Helene Murphy, whose frock will be of pink bayonet satin; Miss Margaret Cecil Best, whose costume will

DANCING CLASS IN LANSDOWNE

About Fifty Members of Younger Set Met at Twentieth Century Club Last Saturday

A date ing class has been organized out in Landowne, which includes about fifty mem-hers of the younger set. Mire. Aired 47, Balch has charge of it, and the other women who are acting an patronesses are Mrs. Charles A. Wilcox, Mrs. Howard W. Bead, Mrs. Robert W. Gick and Mrs. John T. Krall, The class had its first meeting at the Twen-tieth Century Club last Saturday evening. There are to be five meetings, and at the end there will be a large dance, to which the interobers may bring their friends.

Members may bring their friends. A dance will be held at the Twentieth Century (link on Saturday evening by the Delta Gamma Delta Sororhy of the Land-down High School. Miss Nettle Greer in chairman of the committee which has the arrangements in charge, and the other mem-bers of this committee are Miss Mary D. Ingram, Miss Anna Crawford, Miss Emma Galbraith and Miss Kathryn Milliden. We and Med Green D. Schore De Saturd

A very successful charity tea was held A very successful charity tea was need at the Devensitie on Saturday afternoon. It was given by the Girls' Guild of the Episcopal Church for the benefit of St. Andrew's School, in the mountains of Tennessee. Mrs. Cross-well McBee and Mrs. Frederick A. Mason poured tea and chocolate, which were served to the guests by the girls belonging to the guild. These include Miss Dorothy McEwen, the president; Miss Roberta Crawford, Miss Dorothy Edwards, Miss Gertrude Edwards, Miss Marian Mishier, Miss Olive Mason, Miss Sue Suddards, Miss Florence Conway, Miss Alice Statzell and Mrs. George Hooper, Cakes, candles and jettlest were also gold at the affair.

DANCE IN RIDLEY PARK

Subscription Parties Given Every Other Saturday in Auditorium Are Always Well Attended—Activities of Delaware County

A SUBSCRIPTION dance will be held in the Ridley Park Auditorium on Satur-day evening, February 16. One of these affairs is given every other west, and they are always largely attended by the younger set out there. Mrs. Charles G. Hetzel has charge of them. Saturday and dance will be given in the A nuclear and dance will be given in the set out there. Mrs. Charles G. Hetzel has charge of them. The last dance was given on Saturday evening, February 2. There were duite a number of men in uniform present, and also guests from Philadelphia, Norwood, Ridey Park, Sharon Rill and thestor. During the evening there was a novelty dance, when each person was presented with a useful favor favor. Autong those present were Miss Sarah Grant, Miss Frances Quinn, Miss Ruth Mat-thing, Miss Jeannette Hays, 1188 Flor-ence Bottomic, Mass Ethel Claire, Miss Flor-ence Bottomic, Mass Helen E, Atherholt, Miss Helen Haus, Miss Margaret White, Miss Ethel White, Miss Reba Crawford, Miss Helen Bickley, Miss Margaret Gibb, Miss Rex Leeds, Miss Dorathy Brandt, Miss Engles Cusuling, Winte, Miss Reisa Crawford, Miss Device, Miss Margaret Gildo, Miss Rex Leeds, Miss Devolty Rrandt, Miss Enrice Chromins, Miss Echice Chromitis, Miss Echice Chromitis, Miss State Mellia, Miss Ritz Wolfe, Miss Naemi Melfenry, Miss Marie Huston, Miss Marior Enact, Miss Marior Enact, Miss Marior Enact, Miss Marior Enact, Miss Middeed Lanney, Mr. Thomas Gheson, Jr., Mr. Howard Chandler, Mr. Courthand Haum, Mr. Charles Matthias, Mr. Snedley Ward, Mr. Charles Matthias, Mr. Steader, Mr. Charles Taylor, Mr. Lee Deardorth, Mr. Edward Coller, Mr. Park Cullert, M. Harry Baxter, Mr. Charles Taylor, Mr. Lee Cataneol, Mr. Edward Thompson, Mr. Miker, Mr. Meynard Peole, Mr. Franklin, Mr. Solomen F. Fox, Mr. Richard E. Merchant, Mr. O. G. Smith, Mr. Caein, Mr. Janes Hurit, Mr. Frederick Chestinut, Mr. Berder, Chentul, Mr. Janes Hurit, Mr. Frederick Chestinut, Mr. B. Weitington, Mr. Anders M. Mr. and Mrs. J. Collier, Mrs. E & Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herzel, The Weitarder Mrs. E & Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herzel, The Remember Statiffer, Mr. Charles Charles Herzel, Charles Herzel, The Remember Statiffer, Chest Mr. Charles Herzel, The Remember Metherny, Mrs.

The Barnstormers will hold their club night in the Ridley Park Auditorium to-morrow evening. A splendid entertainment s being planned. harlest Hetzel.

Derrow evening: A spiendid entertaintent is being planned. On Monday evening, a concert was given in the new school building, for the benefit of the Ridley Park hranch of the Red Cross. A shortage of coal prevented the members of the Woman's Club out there from having their regular service day at the Service House on Tuesday, and the club meeting in the afternoon was also postponed. Mr. Edward Collier was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Collier over the weekend. Lieutenant Roger Haydock, son of Mr. Thomas O. Haydock, Jr., was home on furlough over the weekend. Mr. Courtland Hamm, who is in camp, also spent the weekend at his home in Ridley.

ment the week-end at his home in Ridley Mr. Henry Michell is now in France with the Engineer Corps, The Rev. Frederick Limerick has returned to Ridley Park, after an absence of about three months. During that time he was sti-gaged in Y. M. C. A. work at one of our

Mrs. John H. Folneroy has been chosen and ing friends from Boston, Mass. So many serious things are occurpting the minds of women nowadays that perhans they feel more than ever the need for rehaxation now and then. In several towns this has now and then. In several towns this has very pleasantly taken the form of choral societies, which have lately been formed in connection with the women's clubs in those towns. The members are bound to get a great deal of enjoyment out of these cho-ruses, for somehow singing can make any-body happy. The Woman's Choras of the Twentieth Century Chib, of Lansdowne, has had several meetings. It is under the direc-tion of Mr. Henry Hotz, and is held every Wonday afternoon at the clubhouse. Mrs. tion of MP, Henry Holz, and is need to be Monday afternoon at the clubhouse. Mrs. William A. McEwan is president of the chorus; Mrs. Theodore Evans is secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. W. B. Ward is b-brarian. A concert is being planned, and it will be given at the club some time in April

The Women of Dresel Hill have also organ-ized a chorus, with Mrs. E. S. Foljambe as president; Mrs. Louis G. Wilson as secre-tary and treasurer, and Miss Corinne Hafer as librarian. This chorus is under the direc-tion of Miss Martha C. Barry and will hold its meetings every Friday afternoon at Mrs. Foljambe's home. It will meet tomorrow, for the first time. These women will also give a concert in the latter part of April. the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the free wood fund of the Drexel Hill Red Conse herech The Women of Drexel Hill have also organ-

A musicale and dance will be given in the Brookline Hall, Friday evening, February 15, under the direction of Miss Neilis Shorland, It will be for the benefit of the Oakmont Red Cross branch.

The second annual meeting of the Delaware County Other Boys' and Girls' Conference was held at the Methodist Church in Lans-downe on Saturday. Interesting addresses were made, and discussions of various activiwere made and discussions of various activi-lies were held. A banquet was given for lhose who attended the conference, at 5:45 oclock in the Twentieth Century Club, Fol-lowing that, an address was made at the Methodist Church by Mr P, G. Orwig, who is State secondary superintendent. He dis-cussed the problems of the present day. Dele-rates of all church denominations were present. The officers of the conference are Mr. Frederick A. Bonsall, of Lanndowne, president; and the Rev. E. H. Bonsall, Jr. of Cliffton Heights, mentor. Mrs. A. E. Maltby, of Lansdowne, and Mgs. R. W. Atmore, of Drexel Hill, are at the Traymore, at Atlantic City. They expect to remain there until Easter.

Le Bon Temps Club to Have Pageant of Allied Nations

The annual feelic of Le Bon Temps, an organization composed of graduates of La Salle and St. Joseph's Colleges, will take place tomorrow evening at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. The proceeds of the affair will be de-voted to the Knights of Columbus War Fund. Prominent among the novelties will be a voted to the Knights of Columbus War Fund. Prominent among the novelties will be a grand pageant of the Allied Nations. Miss Marguerite McCloshey will take the role of Italy: Miss Helen Hare, one of the stars in the recent St. Francis show, will be Bel-gium; Itumania will have Miss Helen Dooner Moore as a representative; the Oriental allies, busin end (Thing will be biotected emore Moore as a representative: the Oriental allies, Japan and China, will be pictured respec-tively by Miss Eleanor O'Loughlin and Miss Elizabeth Smart; France will be represented by Miss Margaret Magnire; Serbia by Miss Marie Greenfield, and England by Miss Mar-garet Ragan. The part of America will be taken by Miss Frances Lodge, who at the finale of the pageant will sing the "Star-Span-gled Banner." The dancing of the Allied group has been coached by Mr. Daniel Hogan, the old Mask and Wig favorice. The musical end of the program will be conducted by Mr. Leo-pold Sayre. Another feature of the ball will he the exhibitions of Russian and Spanish ballet dancing by Miss Elizabeth Waleh and ballet dancing by Miss Elizabeth Walsh and hallet dancing by Miss Elizabeth Walen and Miss Marie Carrigan. Among the patronesses are Mrs. J. Wash-ington Logue, Mrs. Herbert Northrop, Mrs. William V. Lynch, Mrs. Frank Drueding, Mrs. John J. O'Reilly, Mrs. Michael F. Han-son and Mrs. James Mundy.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Carey, Jr., enter-tained some of their friends at bridge at their home on Saturday evoning. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Gersten-berger, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Wilkle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. James Temple Butter and Mr. Chester P. Galleber.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Hays gave a small dinner party at their home on Saturday eve-ning. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Plummer and Mr. and Mrs. D. Webster Bell, of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bur-ton Etherington, of Germantown.

of the Jesse W. Stars Grammar School, gave a class porty on Monday evening at her ionse, at which all eighteen members of the class were present. The evening was pleasantly spent in music and games, and refreshments were served later. Miss Florence Shields was married to Mr. William M. Forebee, of Norfolk, Va., Iast Saturday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Daniel N. Cooper, 1127 South Eighth street. The coronory was performed by the Rev. George E. Morris, pastor of Kalghn Avenue Baptist Church. ^AMr. and Mrs. Albright, of Gloucester, were entertained on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, of Park avenue, Collingswood.

An excellent concert was given last night by the Merchantville Musical Club, at Collins Hall. Merchantville, for the benefit of the local three units of the Red Cross society, Many people of the town attended. Artists connected with the Vietor Talking Machine Company gave several numbers at the affair

The Worth More Club, of Merchantville, was entertained by Miss H. Rudderow, of 'ove road, last evening, Cove road, last evening. Doctor Milford, of Korea, delivered an in-teresting address before a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church of Camden yesterday afternoon. A "cup social" followed. Mrs. Benjamin Adams, of Fourth and Vine terms. A second process of the terms.

treets, is entertaining Miss Iona Adams, of

Miss Mary Campbell Parsons, of 397 North Sixth street, is visiting relatives in New York or a few days. Mrs. Winfield S. Schermerhorn, of 514

North Fourth street, entertained the Shake pears Club at her home last week.

CAMDEN YESTERDAY President of Graduating Class Gave Party at Home for Schoolmates on Monday A les was held at the house of Mrs. Wiliam Deckman, of 175 Packer avenue, Wood-lynne, yesterday afternoon. The affair was well attended and a musical program was Miss Dorothy Kerms, of 1309 Park Boulevard, president of the February graduates for a safe seat for Mr. Henry, for e was carrying baby.

"Sit there," she commanded, pointing to seat beside a woman. This passenger, to was looking out the window, radiated Inement, so to speak; at least, after a wift survey Mrs. Henry assured herself at no germs for baby threatened from at source.

Henry obeyed meekly. Mrs. H. settled wn beside a rough-looking masculine nmuter and potential germ distributor few seats ahead. The train sped city-

Presently Mrs. H., after composing herlf, looked around to see that all was ell. Imagine her shock, my dears, when beheld Henry in an animated teteate with the sharer of his seat, who had ted her veil and disclosed herself to be very good-looking young personage, a uthful one, a beautiful one, with entrancg eyes and a radiant smile; at least, that what she looked like from several seats ead. Henry was quite engrossed. And worst of it was that she had picked it that seat! Mrs. H. noted that her neck It tired when after ages of travel the ain pulled into Broad Street Station. "Who was your delightful fellow passenr?" she asked when she had regained r husband's side in the bustle of getting the train. "Why didn't you introduce

"I don't know who she was," said he. didn't ask her name." "HENRY!" exclaimed Mrs. H.

These irresponsible men! Poor soul, he n't help it if he attracts many friends n he? NANCY WYNNE.

Social Activities

Mrs. R. Walter Starr, 117 South Seven

Miss Leta Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and 78. James Francis Sullivan, will return her home, 2100 Walnut street, from a sit to Atlantic City, where she has been sying at the Shelburne Hotel.

Mrs. Frank A. Craig, who, with her mother, B. Frishmuth, has been spending some time Atlantic City, returned this week to her South Twenty-first street

Miss Annie Beaston received informally sterday at the Wellington. / No cards sent out.

Ars. Francis Thorne Patterson will be at me today after 3 o'clock at her home. 90 St. James place, Mrs. Patterson will 9 be at home next Thursday. No cards 9 been sent out.

Alan Hartwell Strong has discontinher days at home for this month.

utenant John Channing Wickham, who sched to the famous fighting Worces-re Regiment of the English army, is we of absence and is making a visit club at her home tomorrow evening. Miss Norma Norton, of Craig street, will give a funcheon followed by bridge tomorrow afternoon in honor of her guest. Miss Cor-rine Allen, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who will stay with her for the next two or three weeks. A meeting of the O. C. C. A. was held today at Trinity Church. Ms. Adolph Partold, Is, last here and a Mr. Adolph Petzold, Jr., left last week for a naval training camp. Mrs. J. M. Borger, of Lancaster, Pa., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hofmann, of $47 Levick street, has returned to her

Dance Given for Junior Section of Philomusian Club

The hospitality committee of the Philo-mustan Club gave a complimentary dance to the junior members of the club, in recognition of the services which have always been so of the services which was introduced when willingly gives. An attractive feature was introduced when little rolls of red, white and blue paper ribbon were given out to the young people, who tossed them over two cords which who rossed them over two cords which stretched diagonally across the room. The gay streamers thus suspended gave an unusu-ally graceful shower effect as they floated overhead, or twined around the dancing couples. The music for the evening was fur-nished by the Chestnut Hill Academy Orches-tra. These young players are winning an enviable reputation throughout the city and suburbs, for their exceedingly "peppy" music compares favorably with the older and better known orchestras. own orchestras. The hostesses for the evening included Mrs.

The Howard F. Park, Mrs. W. Ross Wilson, Miss Bertha S. Graham, Miss Marion Graham, Mrs. Edward W. Mumford, Mrs. John W. Baker and Mrs. George E. Scranton.

MISS GERTRUDE KERBAUGH of Camden, who took the part of the cabin boy in the minstrel show given last evening. cabin boy in he of metal cloth trimmed with pale blue and opalescent beads, and Miss Helen Best, who will wear a quaint little frock of blue satin trianmed with silver-embroidered tule. The ball committee is under the leader-ship of Mr. John Monaghan, who has worked unceasingly to insure its success. Others on he executive committee are Mr. Frank A Mulherin, president of the club; Mr. John F. Costello, Mr. George J. Kane, Jr., and Mr. John B. Kane, as secretaries; and Mr. Gerald Dougherty, the treamurer; Mr. Nicholas Albrecht, Mr. James V. Bradley, Mr. M.

shim - marks

peakers. Free, fembers.

South Philadelphia Sunday Schools' patriotic rally, Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Eighteenth and Tasker streets, West Philadelphia Business Men's As-sociation meets, 4922 Baltimore avenue, 5 o'clock, Members, Philomusian Club, operatic recital by Henri Scott, program of the "Works of American Composers," 8 o'clock. Members.

Ceramic League monthly meeting, lecture by A. P. Cobden, "A First Phinting," 8:15 o'clock. Members.

Meeting of Finance Workers, Business

Women's Christian League, 7 o'clock. Free. Meeting of the Tioga Business Men's As-

Military charlity ball by employee of the Frankford Arsenal, Moose Hall, Proceeds for University of Pennsylvania Base Hos-pital No. 20. Admission charge.

3543 Germantown avenue, 8 o'cl

A most interesting lecture the auditorium of the Landowne High School building by Dr. Warwick James Price on Friday evening. It was given under the auspices of the College Club. Doctor Price's subject was "The War in 1918."

A delightful meeting of the junior section of the Twentieth Century Club was held at the Devonsitive on Thursday afternoon. Three new members were elected-Misz Emma Love, Miss Helen Adler and Miss Marcellin Myers. Mrs. Edward McGinley talked to the girls on what backs they should read, and interested them in five of the best of the modern novelists---William Dean Howells, Henry James, Thomas Hardy, George Mere-dith and Joseph Conrad.

Mrs. Robert Downing Taylor entertained the knitting club of which she is a member at her home on Friday afternoon.

The social committee of St. John's Epis the social commutee of St. John's Figure copal Church net at Mrs. James Temple But-ler's home on Friday afternoon. Among those present were Mrs. Crosswell McBee, Inose present were Mrs. Crossweit McBee, Mrs. Charles Shurtleff, Mrs. Owen Brooke Evans, Mrs. F. J. Bush, Mrs. Milliken, Mrs. Philip F. Jaisohn, Mrs. Clifford Parkinson, Mrs. R. Hall Andersen, Mrs. James B. Ruck-er, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Emily Martin, Mrs. Horace P. Dornion and Mrs. William Baxter. The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal Church will give a musicat tea at the parish house on Monday afternoon. Among those who will furnish the entertainment ar Frances Shreiner, Mrs. W. B. Ward and Mrs. Wharton.

Wharton. A very successful card party was given on Frnday evening at St. Philomena's School Hall, It was for the benefit of the free wood fund of St. Philomena's Red Cross branch, and Mrs. Thomas M. Fitzgerald had charge of the affair. There were about 300 people

Mr. Thomas A. Bradley, Jr., was home ver the week-end. He is stationed at one f the camps.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Pennock have reeived word that their son, Mr. Charles Pen-ock, has arrived safely in France. He is with the Friends' Reconstruction Unit.

Mr. Clinton Wunderlich, who is at present camp, has received a first lieutenant's Graduation exercises, Kensington High School for Girls, Cumberland and Amber treets, 8 o'clock. Free. Mrs. Oscar S, Kimberly has been visiting for a short time in New York.

Mrs. Harlan P. Statzell returned Friday from a visit to New York.

The Dickens Fellowship, meeting and buf-et, Hotel Adelphia, 8:15 o'clock. Members. Annual banquet of the East Germantown mprovement Association. Members. Fifth annual reunien, North Kensington

Business Men's Association, Textile Hall, Censington avenue and Cumberland street, O'clock. Members, families and friends. Lecture by Dr. Edwin F. Northrup, of the

from a visit to New York. Miss Mabel Phillips has been spending some time at Atlantic City. Miss M. Louise Van Zandt spent the week-end at Atlantic City. Mr. Thomas M. Fitzgerald expects to leave for Pinehurst, N. C., next Tuesday. He will spend a month there. The regular monthly meeting of the Amer-icanization Federation of Lansdowne was held at the home of Mrs. Charles S. Musser on Monday morning. Deture by Dr. Laboratory, Princeton University, "Application of Oscillatory Cur-rents to Heating and Electric Furnace Prac-tice." Franklin Institute, 8 o'clock. Free. University Extension Society, lecture by Dr. Theodore F. Herman, "The Making of Dr. Bustan," Americation Making of on Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Eastman are being congratulated upon the birth of a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Bates are being congratulated upon the birth of a son.

Dr. Theodore F. Herman, "The Making of a Nation; Russia," Association Hall, Ger-mantown. Admission charge. St. Nicholas Nursery has a jumble sale, 1206 Chestnut street. Free. Millitary Charity Ball, Moose Hall, 1314 North Broad street. Admission charge. Alumai of Central High School has an-nual reunion, City Club, 313 South Broad street. Members. Ansaal Banquet Associated Artists of Philadelphia, 1336 Sansom street, Members.

Items of news for the society page will be accepted and printed in the Evening Public Ledger provided they are written on an aide of the paper only and are signed with full mame and teleophyse number of the sender. As frees "Society Editor," Evening Public Ledger. 606 Chestaut street.

