

THE BULLDOG SIMPLY LOATHES SHORTY JANSSEN, THE POWERFUL KATRINKA'S SWEETHEART

PERSONS AND EVENTS LOOMING LARGE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright)

When the history of the great war is written, the romance of America's shipyards will figure prominently. In less than a year the number of shipways has been expanded to 716 and contracts for 502 wooden and 414 steel ships have been let.
Committee on Public Information

A Real Hero

—The Purple Cow.
Alice—Do you think Jim is brave enough to be an army officer?
Horace—Brave? Why, I saw him tip a Pullman porter ten cents once.

HE DOESN'T, ANYWAY

"How little men understand women."
"Nonsense! I don't believe they understand them any better than big men do."

Uh-Huh

"What's your dog's name?"
"Ginger."
"Does Ginger bite?"
"No; Ginger snaps."—Yale Record.

Both the Same

—Lamb.
"Is there a difference between the time in Paris and New York?"
"Well, you can have pretty much the same time in New York as you can in Paris, if you know the ropes!"

War Savings Jingle

Mary buys war saving stamps
Out of her meager earnings
She does her bit to keep the lamps of liberty still burning.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says it never seems to occur to the critics of the Administration that perhaps Secretary Baker knew what he was about when he adopted the Lewis machine gun.

Beat It, Grad!

Planter—Have you ever had any experience on a sugar plantation?
Grad by Request—Oh, yes; I stood quite a little Cain while I was in college.—Chaparral.

Pointed

He—Are you fond of indoor sports?
She—Yes, if they know when to go home.—Tiger.

Not at All

—Cartoons Magazine.
"Why, Effie! How vain you are—Looking at yourself in the mirror!"
"Vain, auntie? Why, I don't think myself half so pretty as I really am!"

SCHOOL DAYS

Bhen! You forget to stop at the grocers and get the coffee, did n't you, dear?
Well that's too bad, but you'll have to run back and get it. That's a good boy—
Run along, now—

The galley slave

Four maids who will act as aides at the Philopatrian Ball at the Bellevue-Stratford next Monday night, being the Misses Helen V. and Margaret C. Best, Helen Murphy and Alma Fitzpatrick.

One of the reasons Samuel Untermyer has come to be known as one of America's most successful lawyers is that he never permits himself to waste a minute, even while "taking a vacation" at Palm Beach.
Underwood & Underwood

General William Nicholson, acting commandant at Camp Meade, dictates an order to his aide, Lieutenant Raymond Hurley, at the request of one of the Y. W. C. A. workers from the Hostess House.

A friendly bout with the gloves never fails to draw a knot of interested onlookers at Camp Meade. The lads in the above group, by the way, are Philadelphia draftees.