Abbe Flynn Will Address Large Audience Tomorrow in Witherspoon Hall-"Mikado" Given Tonight at Metropolitan

witherspoon Hall, when the entire proceeds will be donated to the Catholic Women's War Work activities and the society of the Fatherless Children of

Given under the patronage of a number d prominent women, including Mrs. John Markoe and Mrs. Robert W. Leslie, one of the most successful occasions of the kind anticipated. The Abbe, who will be introduced by Miss Agnes Repplier, is a Frenchman of Irish descent. He was invited to this country and has been speaking before a mber of audiences with much success. At present he is in the West and will arrive here early in the week. His charming personality has won him a host of friends in this country who are now anticiating his lectures. He was born in Paris and had a large congregation in the vicinity of that city, and has been eighteen onths in the trenches before Verdun, seemenths in the treatment fighting of the rar. He is most eloquent, and relates his experiences, illustrating them with photo-

The Society of Fatherless Children in France is well known here, having a board managers in this country as well as in France. It is absolutely nonsectarian in dministration, and the work it accomplishes is well known in both countries.

In France at all times, but particularly furing the war, the conservation of child life is most important, and it is pitiful to imagine what would have become of many of the little ones who constitute the next generation if it had not been for the plendid work of the Societe des Orphelins Francals.

The committee numbers many prominent men, including Cardinal Gibbons, in its American committee.

Tickets for tomorrow may be obtained from Mrs. Markoe or Mrs. Leslie, or at the Emergency Aid Headquarters at 1428

THE Supper Club it is still called, per-L haps because it's almost supperless in these days of food conservation-no more collations like those of yesteryear. But whatever its name, Suppor Club or Saturday Club, and whatever the eats or lack of them, I think the subscribers will agree with me that those meetings every so often were heaps of fun. The wind-up for the season came last Saturday night and Mrs. Roberts presided as hostess simply because of the result of her efforts on behaft of the overseas committee. She had, I was told, something like $2600 several weeks ago, and certainly Saturday's party brought many more sheckels, for, with a hundred odd guests present added to the members, the rose garden on the Bellevue roof would hardly accommodate every one, and waiters were kept busy squeezing in more ubles throughout the evening.

One of the largest parties was given by Evans Roberts themselves, their guests cluding the James M. Reeds, Guy Heckcher, the Ned Crozers and the Sam Chases. It is hardly necessary, but seems to be conventional, to still refer to Mrs. Chase as "the former Sue Bruce." Mrs. Roberts's daughter, Mrs. Dorr Newton, had a few guests.

Mrs. Louis Barclay Robinson entertained n honor of Miss Sterner, of New York, who is a sister of Albert Sterner, and, not content with only reflected glory, a very uccessful interior decorator "on her own." Margaret Wright had a small party, including the attractive British officer, Lieutenant Sutton; and speaking of attractive Brit ers, Captain Reed and "Peter Latham," as he is known by his Intimates in town, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woodward, together with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rockwell, Dr. and Mrs. Horold Roberts, Betty Elliot, Lieutenant Harry Belknap and several others. Captain Latham, were he not really awfully modest, would have had his head turned a dozen times by now, so lionized has he been since coming to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul O'Neill also had several guests at the club, as did Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Fitler, Mrs. Charles F. Bochman, whose daughter Esther had Dorothy Mason, of Washington, as her guest, and numerous others.

THEN tonight there will be the performance of the "Mikado" by members of the Catholic Operatic Society. The Operatic Society is giving the affair for the sailors and marines stationed here, and a large attendance is expected. They have also invited representatives of the various war work of the city, and it is quite certain there will be a most appreciative audience to listen to the ever-popular "Tomtit" and "Flowers That Bloom in the Spring."

Officers of the army and navy have been invited to be present, also Government officials and a number of men prominent in the affairs of the city and State, as well as members of local society. Mrs. Edward Stotesbury very kindly donated the use of the Metropolitan Opera House for the evening, and Father Murphy, of St. Patrick's Church, this city, who is head and director of the Operatic Society, very kindly consented to repeat the very successful performance of last October when invited by those who have these things in charge for the men. Altogether it will be a gala occasion, any who will later attend the Philopatrian ball at the Bellevue-Stratford first going up to hear the opera, will no doubt add to the brilliancy of the audience by the elaborate gowns and jewels of the women there.
