Cause and Effect

The Passing Show.
He—Are you sentimental?
She—It depends.
He—On what?
She—On the restaurant and the dinner.

But Don't Go to Sleep

The Sketch.
Tommy (to the charges he has borrowed for a week-end leave, after it has been down three times in ten minutes)—Wait! On yer knees again? Go on—got on with it—Bless ya and ma an' make me a good 'orse, Amen.

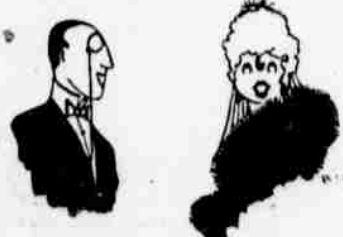

AND GAINED A FORTUNE

Teacher—Bobby, where did Columbus get the money to build his ships with?
Bobby—I guess he must have sold his egg.

A Good Country
In a kindergarten class dogs were shown, and in answer to a question a little girl gave the response that was expected of her, "This is the flag of my country."
"And what is the name of your country?" was the next question. "Tis of thee," was the prompt reply.—Indianapolis News.

Where, Oh Where?

Williams Purse Co.
He—He traveled incognito.
She—What part of Baypt is that?

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

Oh, please excuse my back because I'm curious to see what's printed in this paper on the other side from me.

War Savings Jingle

I wish I was a savings stamp, a stickler to a card,
The biggest Home advances, a helper to retard.
I wouldn't sleep, I wouldn't eat, I wouldn't cut a dash—
I'd just rest there for five short years—
Then turn right into cash!

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she saw in the paper that Germany may lose the war on account of not being able to get any cotton but she's afraid they'll be willing to use wool all summer if the Kaiser...

SCHOOL DAYS

—new Tom, I'm as innocent as a newborn babe stealin' them there chickens, but if you'll frame that big red apple, why, I'll tell you exactly how I done it an' just how they nabbed me.
How long are ya in for?
All right, Hunk, pull 'er up!
Feeding the jail birds in the calaboose.
