

SOMETHING WILL SIMPLY HAVE TO BE DONE TO KEEP THE POWERFUL KATRINKA FROM RAISING WINDOWS WITHOUT UNFASTENING THE CATCH

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright)

PERSONS AND EVENTS LOOMING LARGE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY

Dr. Russell H. Conwell, whose Seventy-fifth Birthday Occurs Tomorrow, Surrounded by Those Whom He Terms His "Faithful Helpers," Namely, George J. Clayton, His Private Secretary; the Rev. W. D. McHardy, Associate Pastor of Baptist Temple; Margaret Herbert, Financial Secretary at the Temple; and Mrs. H. John, Social Secretary.

A Few Years Ago Miss Sue Dorsey Began Her Service with the Government as a Stenographer. A Few Days Ago She Was Recommended by Paymaster General McGowan for a Commission in the Navy, with the Duties of an Assistant Paymaster.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

How rapidly I move through life!
Behind me years and years are strung.
No matter though how old I get
I never finish feeling young.

Gone, Not Forgotten
During the fighting a Highlander had the misfortune to get his head blown off.
A comrade communicated the sad news to another gallant Scot, who asked, anxiously:
"Where's his head? He was smoking his pipe."—Tit-Bits.

—The Purple Cow.
"Jennie's pretty to look at."
"Yes, good to be-hold, too."

TO ALL OUR READERS

An Old Fashioned Valentine

Just the fragrance of old-fashioned roses,
Just an old-fashioned love-knot or so;
Just an old-fashioned garland of posies;
Just a love dart from Don Cupid's bow;
Just a touch of the old-fashioned fancy,
Wherein hands and hearts are entwined,
Just a maid with the old-fashioned
Just an old-fashioned Valentine.

—Cartoon Magazine.

War Savings Jingle

"I'm going to meet that Kaiser Bill,"
Said Sammie to his girl,
"Don't knock," said she, "Just walk right in;
"Just say, 'I'm here, Berlin';
'And while you're gone, so brave and fine,
I sure will work darned hard,
To fill with little savings stamps,
That bully pasteboard card."

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says nations are very much like individuals after all and it must be a great relief to the Treasury Department when it is able to take up all its certificates of indebtedness by exchanging bonds for them and not owe anything any more.

Almost Fussy
Major Prof.—Are you particularly studious, young man?
Minor Student—Yes; very particular about what I study.—Chaparral.

SCHOOL DAYS

Day dreams don't always come in June.

Perhaps the Most Unusual Among Service Flags Is That Which Will Be Flown Next Week From the Office of the American Express Company, at 1127 Chestnut Street. Similar Flags, with the Stars Arranged According to the Nationalities of Former Employees Now in the Service of the Allies, Have Been Displayed in New York and Chicago.

Many Times the Dispatches From the War Fronts Have Spoken of the Work of "Mopping Up the Trenches." Here You Have American Soldiers Performing That Very Operation by Exploding Bombs in the Nooks and Corners of the Trenches They Have Just "Captured," Lest Some Lurking "Foe" Remain Alive.
Committee on Public Information.

Just Outside the Ruined Village of Bethelmont, in Lorraine, Is the Little Cemetery Where the First of Our Sammees to Die on the Battlefields of France Have Found Their Last Resting Place. Two American Newspaper Correspondents Are Viewing One of the Graves.
International Film Service.

Germantown Has a Grocery Girl Who Delivers the Goods to Her Customers in a Flivver Which She Drives Herself. Her Name Is Evelyn Hilbert, and She Works for Charles Y. Scully, Main and Coulter Streets. Incidentally, Her One Ambition Is to Drive a Red Cross Ambulance in France.