

IRRIBLE-TEMPERED MR. BANG GETS COMFORTABLY SETTLED WITH HIS PAPER AND FINDS THAT SOME ONE HAS TAKEN THE BULB FROM HIS READING LAMP

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright)

When Mars Meets Cupid

—Pack, for March.
My French goes lante
On "Je vous aime."
And Yvonne won't read the book,
Though that may be, I'd make her see
If she would only look.

No Wonder

"You know Bill and Marie are on the outs."
"No, I didn't suspect anything wrong. They were engaged."
"Well, they don't even write to each other."
"How's that?"
"She wrote him a letter: at camp and the fellows found it. It began, 'My Dear Hero.'—Awgwan.

So to Speak

—The Purple Cow.
"That's a rather light hat you've got on."
"Yes, next to nothing!"

MORE HORRORS OF WAR

"What time is the next train to Muddley, porter?"
"They've took it off, mum, 'cos of the war."
"Because of the war! How ridiculous! The war is in France."

War Savings Jingle
Sing a song of wartime,
A country full of camps,
Fifty million patriots
Buying savings stamps.

Too True
As the regiment was leaving and a crowd cheering, a recruit asked:
"Who are all those people who are cheering?"
"They," replied the veteran, "are the people who are not going."—Life.

Illusion Destroyed
"Just saw a performance of Julius Caesar."
"How was the mob scene?"
"Not very realistic."
"No?"
"It destroys the illusion to recognize your butcher's boy in a crowd of Roman citizens."—Birmingham Age Herald.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

I have the wind and moon for friends
So never, lonely can I be
Because they're wiser far than folks
And tell their secrets' all to me.

Insanely in Love, So to Speak
"Jack's just crazy to be with Mildred all the time."
"Gee, I think he's crazy to be with her at all."—Gargoyles.

SCHOOL DAYS

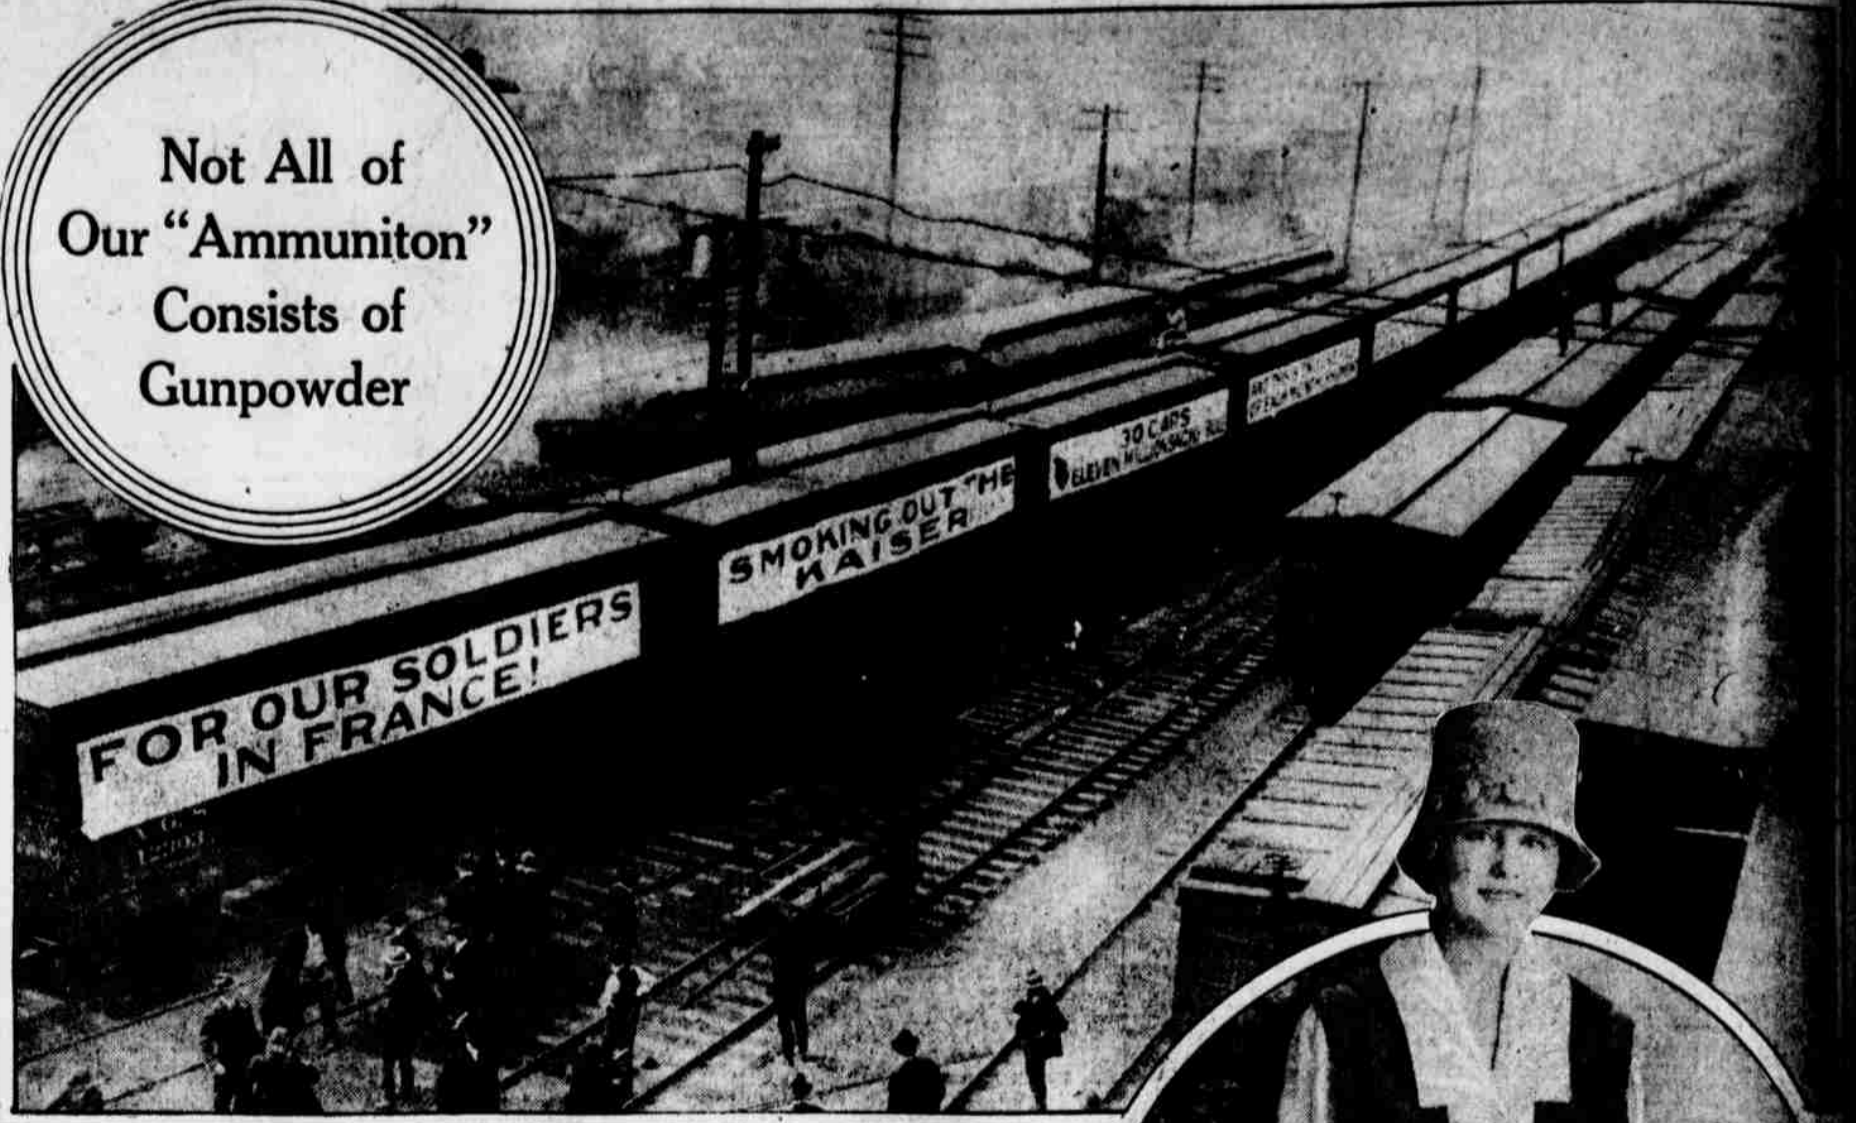

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says Rubella seems to be in a state of collapse and now it looks as if we shall fight her Austria also.

Not All of
Our "Ammunition" Consists of Gunpowder

The Campaign for "Smokes" for the Sammees, Present and Potential, Has Been Launched Most Auspiciously and Impressively With the Departure of a Train of Thirty Cars Crammed With 11,000,000 Sacks of Tobacco, Which Will Help to Dissipate the Prussian War Lord's Dream of World Empire in American-Made Smoke. Western Newspaper Union.

"War Kitchens," Where the Gentle Art of Making War Bread is Taught by Efficient Demonstrators, Have Just Been Opened Throughout the City. Mrs. Caroline B. King Yesterday Demonstrated the "Victory" Recipes to Housewives at 137 South Broad Street.

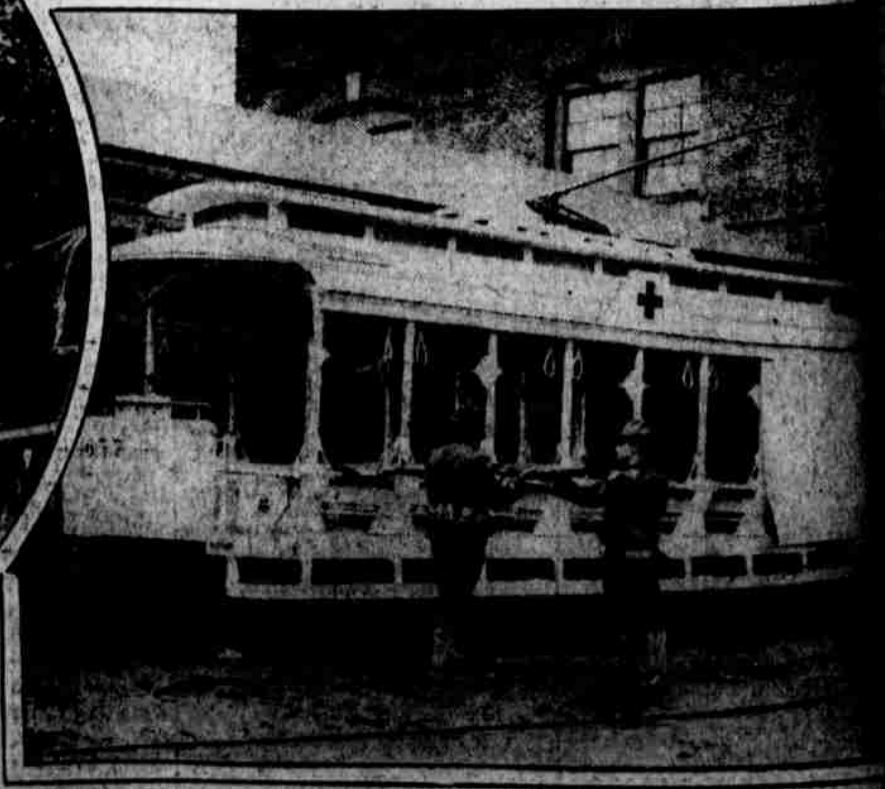

Shortage of Dress Materials Troubles Not the Ingenious Makers of Women's Fashions, Who Now Bring Out a Sleeveless Coat for Next Summer. Western Newspaper Union.

First Photograph of the Inter-Allied Naval Council, Which Will Fight the Submarine. Plan a Joint Naval Program. Front Row, Left to Right: Admiral Sims, U. S. N.; Admiral de Bon, France; Sir Eric Geddes, Great Britain; Admiral de Bevel, Italy; Rear Admiral Funakoshi, Japan. Back Row, Left to Right: Admiral Fremantle, Great Britain; Captain Twining, U. S. N.; Rear Admiral de Lottende, France; Captain Crease, Great Britain; Admiral Sir R. Weir, Great Britain. Underwood & Underwood.

"I'm Going a Milking, Sir, She Said," as She Gayly Counted Her Profits. The "Lady Milkman" is Another Feminine Phenomenon of Wartime, Now That Men Drivers Are Scarce. Underwood & Underwood.

The Scarcity of Suitable Vehicles for Ambulance Work is Responsible for Impressing Antiquated Trolley Cars into Service. This One, Now Being Used in Boston, is Modern in Equipment. Underwood & Underwood.